MR. J. A. GIBSON. The Canadian Post. LINDSAY'S BIG FAIR.

THE SHOW A FINANCIAL SUCCESS.

LARGE ATTENDANCE—CONTINUATION OF REPORT OF SPENDING IN THE DISPLAYS BY LOCAL MERCHANTS—MACHINES AND IMPLEMENTS—THE PRIZE LIST.

Our reports in last week's issue detailed the details of the Lindsay Central Fair up to noon of Thursday, the last day of a show.

During the afternoon there was a fair attendance. The weather though fine was cold, with wind enough to blow clouds of dust about the grounds.

At two o'clock the judges took the stand and called for entries in the competition for lady drivers, single and double. Messrs. Thos. Sadler, Thos. H. Fox, Jackson Reid and Jas. Jackson acted as judges.

The terms of competition and prize are given below:— Lady drivers, horse, single in harness; 1st prize by J. H. Sotherton, $25, cash.

Two competitors appeared, Mrs. J. J. Daly of Lindsay, and Miss Graham of Oshawa. Mrs. Daly drove the bay mare "Black D."

Miss Graham drove a bay mare, and top buyer of the day, the judges of the lady competitors put the horses at an easy trot around the track.

Both ladies were admirable drivers and the judges had great difficulty in reaching a decision. It is possible that had the judges insisted that the horses be trotted by sending the horses across the turf where some clever handling would have been required, more direct display would have been made.

Almost immediately the competition for lady drivers, double horses in harness; 1st prize $25, cash, was called on.

Two ladies appeared to compete for Mr. Edwards' silver cup, Miss Graham driving a handsome open black mare, and Mrs. J. J. Daly driving a bay mare.

The race did not start till half past one, and the ladies were called on to start. Mrs. J. J. Daly's bay mare "Black D." was the winner.

After some time spent in scoring the horses and in the afternoon the horses were sold. Before 200 yards had been traversed Stella B. broke and her example seemed infectious for the others dropped into the mud.

Stella B. secured the lead and presently three settled down into a lively trot. Cavan Blair trotting steadily pulled ahead and began the second round.
