he above fair, which was held on Octowas very successful, taking into he fair had rather & gloomy did not, however, make anteten in the different depart. mis were largely in excess of any pre IN YOUR. The display of horses was in cattle & very noticeable improveto be observed, evidencing the our farmers are fast becoming rare that raining good stock pays. The unt was well represented approximent on former years perior quality, some of the sain shown taking first prize at the Torato exhibition. The speeding in the ring at lady driver Mrs. Delamere succeeded taking first prize. The show of ladies ork was very large and elegant. Alto-ther the show would compare favorably the most of our front shows, and great will indust the directors for the complate and natisfactory manner in which the whole affair was conducted.
