Silverwore and Jewelry. Optical Goods and Spectacles

S Very Complete and Attractive

To enlarge upon this text. It is hardly necessary to remind you that Christmas comes but once a year. Perhaps you have observed that fact for yourself. It is a kind of habit that Christmas has fallen

Likewise you know already that the festive season is now almost that hailing distance of us and it should not be allowed to pass without due observance.

In addition to the universal jollification this may manifest itself in the shape of a present of a Sealskin Coat to the good wife or a tin rattle to the baby, or John Augustus may just have reached that age when a watch would be extremely useful and appreciated by him Perhaps Mary has her own ideas as to the duties of Santa Claus, Esq., towards herself, and no doubt her ideas are entitled to consideration, while Grandmother has not forgotten when she was Marv's age herself, and some evidence that she is not now forgotten in the general hilarity will be most

It is not the easiest thing in the world to decide on the most appropriate gift; but an examination of a well assorted stock of goods especially adapted for presents; goods possessing the merits both of usefulness and beauty-will simplify and make the task a pleasant one.

We like to be abreast of the times, to keep the goods the people want in our line, and on inspection of our stock you will find that each department, viz:-

(T.) Watches, Jewelry and Clocks. (2.) Silverware, all reliable makes. (3.) Spectacles and Optical Goods. is the most complete in the county.

We keep only that class of goods on which you can place reliance for durability and accuracy.

Our SPECIAL WATCHES are justly earning a reputation that is equalled by no others.
