Now, honestly, this is extra good value in Tea. ions of Temperance Open Lodge Concert. The Lindsay Sons of Temperance lodge 223 purpose, we understand, giving monthly open meet ings in the hall over Mr. Blackwell's store in order to bring the work and aims of their societ, more prominently before the public, and to furnish entertainment of a musical and literary character during the winter months. The first open meeting of the season, which was held a short time ago and a notice of which we inadvertently in the press of other matter overlooked, was very successful and enjoyable. The large room, richly carpeted and tastefully decorated, presented the appearance of a comfortable drawing room rather than that of an decorated, presented the appearance of a comfortable drawing room rather than that of an ordinary hall; and the large audience which filled the space to the door, seemed to enjoy the attractive program all the more on account of their comfortable surroundings. The large number who wore the regalia of the order on the occasion shewed the strength and standing of the Sons of Temperance to be equal to that of any other society in town. During the present year we learn there has been a large addition to the list of members through the untiring elforts of the officers and other active workers of the association. The Sons in Lindsay have developed into an organization that cannot fail to exert a strong influence in the community in furthering the progress of the leading object of their order—the total suppression of the liquor traffic. Messrs. Perrin and Milner supplied the literary portion of the reveloped and well received. The Misses McCarthy sang a very pretty duett; and Master John Smith's two songs elicited the same number of encores. Mr. Gillogley sang with his usual effect "Mr. McCarthy," and in response to an encore gave a very amusing but pointed temperance song. The song by Mre. J. D. Macmurchy it is needless to say was favorably received and elicited a hearty encore; and the same success attended the efforts of Miss Aggie Jackson and Miss Fogg. The success of the program was ably contributed to by the accompaniments of Miss Watson and Mrs. E. B. Roberts. During intervals in the program short and pointed addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. McTavish, Dr. Herriman and Mr. J. R. Dundas. We coagratulate the Sons of Temperance upon the success of their first open meeting.

MUNICIPAL.—There is a general desire to re-elect Mr. Cameron, our worthy reeve, by acclamation. He has discharged his duties faithfully and has made as excellent and influential representative in the county council. He has been reeve three or four years, and deserves the homor of re-election by acclamation. He has, however, one fault: he doesn't "Swipes"

ELDON MATTERS.—In Eldon the old council will probably go in by acclamation. The reeve, Mr. McEachren, is especially strong and popular in the south; and Mr. Staback is a capable representative and a level-headed young fellow.... Quite a sensation has been caused by some bills calling a meeting at Lorreville to discuss township matters. People are advised "at their peril" to attend. There will be a lively "circus" there.
