 LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

GLAMORGAN.
 A fatal accident occurred in the township of Glamorgan Wednesday last week. G. L. St. John, a young man from Deseronto, was engaged in felling a tree. When it came down all the rest got away. While he was hurrying away a limb fell and struck him, fracturing his skull. He was taken to Peterboro, St. John's, where he died a short time before he went to the woods.

ZION'S MARIPONA.
 The disease has been in our midst. Two members of Mr. John Hall's family are at present suffering from the disease. The disease is contracted while on a visit to their brother, Mr. W. J. Hall of Cannington, who has since lost his eldest child, a boy of three years of age. Mr. Hall, being late resident of the locality, has the sympathy of the entire community in their grief.

PLEASANT VALLEY FENELON.
 The happy couple are Mr. Thos. Moyne and Miss E. L. Boyd. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Wm. Yeo of Sunja in Ontario. Mr. Yeo is a well-to-do farmer and is going to his farm in Ontario. We wish him success in his new home.

HARTLEY.
 The trustees of s. s. No. 4 school, have engaged Mr. E. Anstie for the coming year.
 Mr. Alex. D. Campbell, while engaged in chopping wood the other day, cut his ankle, putting an ugly cut in his foot below the ankle. Under the skillful treatment of his parents he soon will be about again.

 (Correspondence of The Post.)
 The society meeting was held on Tuesday evening, Dec. 22, at the residence of Mr. G. H. of Peterboro. The meeting was very successful and the program was well received. The society is very active and is doing much good in the community.

RECALLING.
 (Correspondence of The Post.)
 Rev. Thomas W. Bowen, late of London, Ont., has been pastor of the Congregational church in this place. On Tuesday, Dec. 22, a council consisting of ministers and deacons from the neighboring congregations met at the residence of Mr. Bowen's wife to discuss the views of Christian doctrine, etc. It was unanimously agreed that the pastor should be recalled. In the afternoon, Mr. Bowen's wife was called to the C. C. M. C. of Kingston, president and was supported by several ministers, and delivered the charges to the pastor from the pulpit. The charges were very full and pointed out the many deficiencies of the pastor. The charges were given by Rev. G. H. of Peterboro. The charges were very full and pointed out the many deficiencies of the pastor.

STOCKING AND SHOULDER FATILITY.
 A shocking and at the same time remarkably strange accident happened at Peterboro last Wednesday afternoon, but its fatal results were not known until the following day. A carpenter, named McKeen, who lives on Sherman-st., went into his workshop at about eight o'clock, and was cutting a body of wood, but the head of the saw in the upper story. He soon recognized the body as that of his son Freddie, a lad of 12 years. Freddie had gone away from home the day before, without saying where he was going. His parents at night concluded he had gone away with one of the town drunks, as the head of the saw had been found in a morning. After leaving home the boy told one of his companions that he was going to the shop for some nails, and he had done so. The nails were in the second story. The saw was no ladder to climb, the way of gaining the apartment being "jumped and catch." The boy was not tall enough to do this, but he got a saw and climbed down. He was about to get up when he saw the head of the saw. He was about to get up when he saw the head of the saw. He was about to get up when he saw the head of the saw.

ONTARIO COUNTY.
 Sliced Off Fingers and Fingers.—Mr. W. E. Bone, residing near Peterboro, met with a serious accident on Wednesday. He was engaged in cutting turpentine, and while holding one of the logs his hand slipped, coming in contact with the edge of a cutting wheel, and the saw cut off part of his fingers and thumb.

HARDWOOD TREES SALE.
 On Friday last Mr. Arthur Anstie, of St. Catharines, sold two acres of hardwood timber, including the large one of 361. For one acre he got $124 and the other for $124. The trees were sold for $124 each.

INTERESTING CASE.
 The interesting case of Mrs. Wm. Hood, who brought action to set aside the second will of her deceased husband and to establish an earlier one, dated the 22nd July, 1870, in which he was sole testator, was argued before the court on Thursday last.
