Thirty-one school children are missig in Turner county; seven were lost ear Lonnox; and a teacher and sixteen Clear lake; six of the latter bodies being covered. An Omaha epscial says: Miss oute Royce, a school teacher stationed ght miles from Plainview, had three upils on the day of the storm. is due to a fear of the presence of spies.

—The Russian government has renewed its anti-German measures in the Baltic provinces. Forty Lutheran clergymen in Livonia have been deprived of their benefices without a moment's notice because they only used the German language. The czar revives the post of governor of the three provinces, and that official will be specially responsible for Russianizing measures..... General Gresser, prefect of St. Petersburg, on the night of January 12th (the new year in Russia) ordered that numerous houses be searched. The result was the arrest of of 857 persons. One house was set on fire by the occupants, and several nihilist printing machines and a large number of revolutionary pamphlets were burned. The occupants were arrested.

—Mr. W. O'Brien, M.P., editor of United Ireland, who had been confined in prison since October 31st, was released from Tullamore gaol on Friday last. He proceeded to the priest's house in Tullamore, followed by a large crowd, which cheered him repeatedly. There was no disorder.....Mr. Wm. O'Brien's looks denote that his constitution is shattered, and his physicans insist that he should go to the south of France for the benefit of his health. The people of Tullamore have presented Mr. O'Brien with an address, in which they say that they are indifferent to the coercion law, but that Mr. Balfour's execution of the law is brutal and a diagrace to the government.....Father McFadden has been arrested at Armagh for taking part in the opposition to the evictions, and has been committed for trial.....Mr. Blain, M. P. for South Armsgh, was arrested at the committed for trial.....Mr. Blain, M. P. for South Armsgh, was arrested at the same time Father McFadden was taken into custody. He was committed for trial on a charge of making speeches inciting the tenants to resist the authorities....Mr. Balfour was hooted while entering the building where he was going to attend the Judge's luncheon in Dublin the other day by a crowd gathered outside, which waited for his reappearance to hoot him again. When he came out he was received with flerce yells and jeers and cries of "Balfour, the liat," which were continued until he was out of sight....It is alleged in United Ireland that the government had made arrangements for the arrest of Canon O'Ma-Ireland that the government had made arrangements for the arrest of Canon O'Mahony, who charged Major Roberts, the governor of Cork county gaol, with corrupting young girls, and Canon Keeler, but had been deterred by an intimation that no Catholic constable in Cork county would make the arrest.....Mr. Lane, M.P., upon being lodged in Cork gaol, was stripped by the warders and compelled to put on the prison garb. He complains that he cannot eat the prison food, and that he has to eat the prison food, and that he has to sleep on a plank with scanty covering..... The Tribune's London correspondent says Mr. Balfour has not yet allowed the prisons board to act on the recommendations of the visiting justices, who ordered that Mr. Blunt should be moved to a better cell assistant chaplain has been refused admission to him, and although he has intimated his willingness to supplement his statement about Mr. Balfour, every effort is made to keep his mouth shut.

-A London Sunday cable says: The war scare in Vienna and Berlin is slightly abated just at present, but official circles remain confident that an open rupture of the central European powers with Russia cannot long be avoided. The attitude of Roumania creates a suspicion in Vienna that her intention really is, while-pretending to maintain a position of neutrality between the prospective combatants, to assist Russia in her schemes in the Balkans at the proper moment. The Roumanian minister of public instruction and arts, M. D. Stourdzs, is now in Berlin, whither he has gone to offer explanations to the German government of the attitude of Roumania, as betrayed by her recent actions. In the meantime the movements of the Roumanian troops up to date are all in favor of the czar's convenience in case of active war. At the Austrian foreign office the action of Roumania is considered to be a concerted plan with the Russi n campaign, and the result is anything but confidence in the profession of neutrality which the Rou-manian ministers do not cease to make. It is believed that Roumania has accepted Russia's terms for an alliance, and is pursuing this course in fulfillment of a formal agreement....The Moscow Gazette Saturday indicated the pacific policy of Russia. It declared that peace was assured unless Russia should be provoked by aggressive acts of her neighbors. The Novoe Vremya protests that the Russian armaments are protests that the Russian armaments are purely defensive. The Svet disputes the Wochenblatt's figures, and tries to prove that Germany can concentrate 1,000,000 men on the frontier of Poland within ten days, while Russia's huge area of territory and imperfect means of transportation render difficult the work of mobilization. The postponement of the rupture is not in accordance with the strategy of the Berlin office, nor within the wishes of the Vienoffice, nor within the wishes of the Viennese, but continues due to the irresolution of the Austrian government. Although convinced that war is inevitable and that it would be preferable for Austria sooner or later, Count Kalnoky persists in waiting Russia's time. Public sentiment in Vienna and Peath displays irritation over the position. The Hungarian papers charge Kalnoky with too great subservience to Bismarck, and urge that action be taken without waiting for an order from Berlin. The truth of the position, however, is that Prince Bismarck has already fully possessed Count Kalnoky of the fact that a German initiative to war is impossible, leaving the Austrian government free to open hostilities when it deems the time ripe.
