For people to expect a cure for Indigestion, unless they refrain from eating what is unwholesome; but if anything will sharpen the appetite and give tone to the digestive organs, it is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Thousands all over the land testify to the merits of this medicine.

Mrs. Sarah Burroughs, of 248 Eighth street, South Boston, writes: "My husband has taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla, for Dyspepsia and torpid liver, and has been greatly benefited."

A Confirmed Dyspeptic.

C. Canterbury, of 141 Franklin st., Boston, Mass., writes, that, suffering for years from Indigestion, he was at last induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla and, by its use, was entirely cured.

Mrs. Joseph Aubin, of High street, Holyoke, Mass., suffered for over a year from Dyspepsia, so that she could not eat substantial food, became very weak, and was unable to care for her family. Neither the medicines prescribed by physicians, nor any of the remedies advertised for the cure of Dyspepsia, helped her, until she commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. "Three bottles of this medicine," she writes, "cured me."

A large number were prevented from coming by the terrible snow storm which prevailed all day and late in the evening. $28 50 was realized at the close of the meeting. There was a very nice program; speaking by Rev. Mr. Lawrence of Coboconk and Rev. Mr. Kelly of Fenelon Falls and the pastorof the church. The chair was occupied by Mr. George G. Keith of Fenelon Falls. A recitation by Richard Suggitt, entitled "The close-fisted economist." was highly applauded. Another recitation, "Who bids for the children?" by Miss Laura Eades, was cordially applauded. The choir furnished some good music, but could not do themselves justice music, but could not do themselves justice owing to some of the members suffering from severe colds. Miss S. BUSINESS NOTES.—Business is very brisk here at present in the different lines. Our esterprising merchant, J. C. McCully, is filling up his store with the best stock in the market. He says he buys for cash and he will make this a famous resort... Our new blacksmith, Mr. D. McInnis, is doing a good business here, and our genial friend, W. Stewart, is at present turning out some first-class rigs for summer. Go it, boys, while you are young.

MAIL MATTERS.—Owing to the blockade in the road south of here it was impossible for our genial mail man to come up from Greenbank, so we were unable to get any mail here till 5.30 in the afternoon.

BUILDING NOTES.—G. Hadden is now drawing brick from Beaverton to brick his new house...... Mr. J. Stone's house is now completed and adds greatly to the appearance of the place. Now or never, Joseph.

mer? We have lots of material here if we just had the proper place to practice.

¿ Personal. - Mesers. R. Stone and John Mundle of Point Mara were in town last week. John looks well and likes the bush life.... We are pleased to see the face of our old friend, J. C. McCully, in our midst again.... We noticed our genial cattle dealer, Mr. A. Buck, in town last Tuesday enquiring after some fat bullocks.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A sad accident befell Mrs. Baker, an old lady of aixty years of age, which resulted in her death the following day. She was residing with her brother, Mr. R. Warriner of this place, and on the evening in question she was left alone, Mrs. Warriner having gone to attend service in the Methodist church. Being a beavy opium eater she was very notional and at times imagined that the house was full of gas from the coal stove and wanted to keep a small window in the uppor part of the house always open, much against the wishes of Mr. and Mrs. Warriner. So just as soon as Mrs. Warriner had gone to the meeting she went upstairs and got upon a chair just at the top of the stairway to open the window, and in doing so she fell down stairs, breaking her arm in three places and receiving injuries which which caused her death the next day. She was quite conscious for some time after the accident and through the effects of the opium no doubt did not feel any great pain from her injuries, and was sitting quietly in a chair when Mrs. Warriner returned trom the meeting.

PORT HOPE. Not Dynamite.—A youth called McCaffrey was throwing snow-balls on Waltonst. one day last week when one went crashing through a window into the Times sanctum. Visions of dynamite bombs, connected by threads of newspaper criticism to infuriated villains, filled the head of our young men. The revulsion of feeling was terrible when on going to the door to meet their doom they are the young colority. their doom they saw the young culprit "skinning" for a corner.

"skinning" for a corner.

ENFORCING PAYMENT.—At a recent carnival a list of the members of the curling club, with "paid" or "unpaid" opposite each name, was posted in the dressing room, thus acquainting those who attended the carnival with the club delinquents. And now there is war and rumours of war among some of those members opposite whose names the offensive "unpaid" appeared. These malcontents say that such a proceeding was uncalled for and unnecessarily and publicly offensive. They tried to get signatures to a petition to the president to call an indignation meeting of the club, but so far as we can learn their attempt has failed. However, some of the "kickers" declare that they will resign. On the other hand the "paid" men declare that the method is in use by the Belleville club, and that the "unpaid" men deserve their dunning because there had been a resolution passed at a meeting of the club, and at which some of these men were present, asying that no member whose dues were unpaid, should curl, etc. It is to be hoped that the relations of the members will resume their cordiality.

MUSKOKA FALIS

MUSKOKA FALLS. Correspondence of The Post.]

A PURCHASE.—It is said that Mr. George Ateman of Washago has purchased the South Falls shingle and saw mill of Fred. Brasher of Bracebridge and is shortly to commence work in the line of sawing shingles. A number of men who, seconding to their own statements, have been employed, were at Muskoka Falls a few daysiago enquiring for a boarding place. ford (boneman) of this village, who lives by himself in a small shanty on the bank of the Muskoka river, secluded and unmoof the Muskoka river, secluded and unmo-lested, was startled the other day upon re-turning to his cot to find himself minus his atovepipes. Hungry and cold he searched for them until uitimately be found them placed in the river, partly filled with anow and ice. After much difficulty the unfortunate being replaced them, and having partaken of some refreshments he retraced his steps to Bracebridge to get a search warrant for those who had caused him so much grief and hardship. It the guilty parties are found out Mr. Belton-ford is resolved to make them sup sorrow in the cup.

INHUMAN CONDUCT.—About a week ago a son of Mr. Springsteen of this neighborhood nearly perished in the anow a short distance from his home. We understand that he was taken from the house almost naked while his father was away by a person who was driving a horse that had died on the road near by to hold a lantern, it being dark, while he unharnessed it. On the boy's return the light was extinguishbeing dark, while he unharnessed it. On the boy's return the light was extinguished and losing his way he wandered about for a considerable length of time in the deep anow. Finally he managed to get to the house, his feet and hands being badly frozen. If this driver had any human feeling in him he would not have taken the little boy who was so poorly clad out on such a night.
