BASKET SOCIAL AND LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.—This event came off on Friday evening, 10th inst., and was a decided success. Mr. David Bruce auctioned off the baskets and for a time great excitement as well as amusement prevailed. This was the first social of this kind ever held there, and all sincerely hope it will not be the and all sincerely hope it will not be the last. After tea a splendid program was given, Mr. Andrew Gunn, V.S., of Beaverlast. After tea a splendid program was given, Mr. Andrew Gunn, V.S., of Beaverton, acting as chairman. After the opening chorus and a brief address by the chairman an instrumental duett was given by Miss Martha Gilchrist (rgan) and Mr. Robert McKay (violin) which was loudly encored, and which was followed by another duett equally well received. Then followed a vocal solo, "Jingle Bells," by Mr. Arthur Coone of Lindsay which was really very good. After this came "Scenes in a back woods school." This was succeeded by a solo, "Bay of Blecay," by Mr. Alex. Birchard of Beaverton, which was loudly applauded. We have not time to go into details so we will just mention the chief attractions. Solo, "Heart of Oak," by your old friend, Mr. Alex Skinner of Beaverton; recitation, "The last Hymn," by Misa Helen Foote; and a solo, "Memories Dear," by Miss Hogg, all of which were loudly applauded and encored. Then came "Trouble in a Mormon Family," principal actors Miss Helen Foote and Mr. A. Crone; a recitation, "Bruce and the Spider," by a class of sixteen pupils, was con-idered one of the finest things on the program; a quartette, "When the mists have rolled away," we salso well given; another solo by Mr. A. Coone; a duett by Miss Gilchrist and Mr. McKay; and last but by no means least.

"The Train to Maure," (to-morrow), by Miss Helen Foote, M. Ritchie and T. S. Waddell, which fairly brought the house down, the audience fairly ahricking with laughter and cries of eness, but Miss Foote did not go back, for the train was is. The aum of $16.65 was taken in, leaving a clear profit of over $13..... Miss Foote is to recite at St. Andrew's church social, Beaverton, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 20th, 1888, and we believe others who took part in this entertainment are also to assist on the 29th inst., at Beaverton.

THE NEW COUNTY.—A strong agitatic is now on foot to form a new county Mara, Rama, Orillia, Matchedash. Midonte, Tay, Morrison, Muskoka, Woo Gibson, Baxter and Oso, in part with the town of Orillia and village of Midlan Orillia would of course be the count town. A deputation waited upon Holmer, Mowat re the matter. The caution premier laid the question over for further consideration. In order to fully discuss the subject, the literary and debaing society of this place have appointed captains who have selected their followers to debate this question on Frida evening, the 16th of March. Mr. D. McPhee is captain for the new count scheme, and Mr. Gillespie is the leader against it. The following are a few of the men on each side. For the scheme Mesers. McPhee, Thomson, Loftus, J. W. Slaven and others. Against. Meser Gillespie, O'Leary, Mulvihill, Philip M. Rae, Joseph Fox, Jas. Doyle et al. A bit debate is expected. A full house is confidently looked for. All interested particular admitted free.

Shipping.—Uptergrove is becoming quite a shipping point. A deputation is going to wait on Mara council at new meeting to ask the council to enter suragainst the G. T. R. if they do not place as agent here.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

OFFICE OF THE CANADIAN POST.) Business has been quiet in the Lindsay mar ket owing to indifferent sleighing. Prices are not materially changed. The Woodville Advocate has a cock-and-bull story to run down the Lindsay market on pork; but as a good many farmers have been here from the other side of Woodville and Brock, getting from $6.95 to $7.59 for their dressed hogs, and taking home from one to two-hundred dollars with them there cannot be anything in the Advocate's paragraph, except perhaps some slim pork.

Montreal Live Stock Markets. There was a pretty large supply of butchers' cattle en the markets. Butchers were backward in purchasing. Trade dull, prices lower. Best cattle sold at ic, pretty good at 3jc, common stock at 22c to 3jc. A few sheep offered, but not of good quality, at 4c to 4½c. Prime yearlings scarce, would bring 5c. Spring lambs coming in sell at $4 to $5 each.

The Montreal Horse Market.

The horse trade at Montreal is brisk. During last week there were shipped from Montreal to the United States 123 horses at an average of $97.69 each. The highest priced lot was fifteen at a cost of $1,553, and the lowest priced nine are now "putting in" ten hours per day erecting the new 21-foot addition to the real of our store, with the object of having it completed before the arrival of large Spring Stock of New Goods.

JOHN CREASOR,

The rapid growth of our business has necessitated this action. We are more than pleased with the success achieved, and will continue to merit it in the future by square dealing with all purchasers. The increased space which will be available upon the completion of the addition will be given up to the Tailoring Department. This important branch of our business has been much hampered for space of late. The floor space up-stairs rendered available by the removal of the Ordered Clothing branch down-stairs will be utilized for their Ready-made, Carpets and Housefurnish. ings, and other departments now necessarily merged together.

These explanations will give you some idea of what our store will be when "the swallows come again." In the meantime we will continue right on selling goods; in fact, we are more anxious to sell goods now than we have been for some time, if that were possible. At any rate we recognize the fact that we have to offer greater inducements now than some time ago, because we are just between the two seasons.

Let us explain: In a month or six weeks from now our store will be turned topsy-turvy, departments changed new goods arriving and demanding favorable vantage points. The most thoughtless will admit that it is good policy to cut the prices of goods so low as to compel their sale, rather than have the trouble of changing round and in the case of many winter lines perhaps carrying them over to next season.

We've taken a pen and ink, crossed out the old and put on a price that will save you $10 on every $25 you leave us.
