Ayer's Preparations.

The First Symptoms

Of all lung diseases are much the same; feverishness, loss of appetite, sore throat, pains in the chest and back, headache, etc. In a few days you may be well, or, on the other hand, you may be down with pneumonia or "galloping consumption." Run no risks, but begin immediately to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Several years ago, James Birchard, of Darien, Conn., was severely ill. The doctors said he was in consumption, and that he could do nothing for him, but advised him, as a last resort, to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking this medicine, two or three months, he was pronounced a well man. His health remains good to the present day.

J. S. Bradley, Malden, Mass., writes: "Three winters ago I took a severe cold, which rapidly developed into Bronchitis and Consumption. I was so weak that I could not sit up, was much emaciated, and coughed incessantly. I consulted several doctors, but they were powerless, and all agreed that I was in Consumption. At last, a friend brought me a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. From the first dose, I found relief. Two bottles cured me, and my health has since been perfect."

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

They are as fine a lot as ever left Port Perry. The net average of the lot is 1,750. The prices paid vary from $10.00 to $12.00 per lb., live weight, which leave no room to grumble, as farmers can afford to fat cattle at these figures.—[Standard.]

BASKET SOCIAL.—Last Friday evening the little school house, No. 5, Thorah, was packed to the doors, the attraction being the basket social and literary entertainment announced three weeks ago. The baskets were numerous and attractive and the gentlemen showed their appreciation of the ladies' taste by bidding briskly. After the contents of the baskets were opened the audience listened with interest and close attention for more than two hours to a program of literary recitations and dialogues. They also had the pleasure of seeing Mr. McMillan of Beaverton swing his illuminated clubs. The fine evening and good sleighing had added largely to the pleasure of the gathering, and every body went home apparently in the best of spirits. The committee report the net proceeds as over $50.

BOOMING.

Our two sawmills are in full operation. Mr. Jeremiah Maguire has given his mill a complete overhauling in every department and is doing good work in the manufacture of both lumber and shingles. Our pushing merchant, has got an immense spring stock on hand in view of doing a large spring and summer trade in dry goods, hats and caps, linens, and wools, and many beautiful patterns; in fact everything that may be required in a general store at lowest prices. Mr. Lavory deserves encouragement in his line as he is a pushing fellow. He not only serves promptly all who call on him and is anxious to meet their every wish, but he also takes the road the whole season round with goods of every description and supplies the farmers at their homes with everything they may want in his line, and buys up their trade for cash or goods as they may want. It is immense the amount of eggs, butter, hides and skins, wool and wool picks he handles in a season. Go ahead, Mr. L., and prosper, the wider your many friends throughout the whole country.

MARIPOSA.

KIRKFIELD.

WEDDING.—On last Wednesday, 14th inst., this village was all aflutter owing to the marriage of Miss Mary A. Routley to Mr. Walter McInnis of Swift Current, N. W. Terr. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Routley, by Rev. S. Perrin, B.A., in the presence of many guests. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents, among which were a silver and silver-plated service, silver teapot, silver pitcher, silver teapot, silver knife and fork. Miss Routley was an active worker in the Presbyterian church here. Being a member of the choir, she was of great service to the choir. The appreciation of her labors was shown by the presentation of a family bible, silver pattern holder, and other gifts, accompanied by the following address:—Dear Mrs. McInnis.—It is indeed with great pleasure that we take this opportunity of expressing our entire appreciation of your labors in the cause of the church. We shall treasure up in our hearts and memories the many instances of your straightforward and unselfish service to the cause of Christ. In order that our expression of regard and affection for you may assume a more tangible form we have prepared this family bible, trusting that from its pages you may find many words of wisdom and comfort. We are sure that you will treasure it as a precious possession. Signed on behalf of the Presbyterian congregation, Kirkfield, L. PERRIN, pastor.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT.

A dramatic entertainment under the auspices of the Kirkfield dramatic company was held in the school house on last Wednesday evening. The piece "Among the Breakers" was placed on the board by the best local talent and they certainly deserve great credit for the manner in which they presented it. There was not a weak character in the whole play. The acting of Mrs. McInnis as Biddy Bean; Mr. Hylford as Scud; and Mr. McInnis as the skipper, were all round of laughter. The music was well brought to a close by the well-known and laughable farce, "Box and Cox." It was a grand success, and caused plenty of merriment. The entertainment was a decided success in itself, was a financial delight. A worse night could not possibly have been chosen. It having raised nearly $100.00 for the benefit of the school, all day the roads were impassable, thus preventing all living outside of the village from attending. The village people, however, turned out in full force and enjoyed themselves to the heart's content. The proceeds, which amounted to $92.00, will go towards the purchase of a bell for the school. The company were billed to play in Georgetown, and they were to play there, but they were so busy elsewhere, they will likely do so early in the spring as soon as the roads dry up.

OBITUARY.

On Sunday, 18th inst. The funeral, which took place on Tuesday, 20th inst., was followed by a large and sorrowful concourse of friends and acquaintances. Mr. Freeman has the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. J. H. Moore has purchased from Mr. McMullen of Greenbank the Stealer estate comprising fifty acres. The price paid was $3,000.

A GOOD TIME.

Of late the young people in this locality have had an enjoyable time of it socially. During the past week quite a number of dances were given among them being Mr. and Miss Vernon of Uxbridge, Miss E. Beckett of Toronto, the Misses Markham of Bay City, the guests of Mrs. W. R. Smith of Uxbridge, and of Newmarket spent a week with her brother, Mr. T. H. Roberts, returning home last Friday. LEGAL.—One of the firms of Barron & Campbell, barristers of Lindsay, will be at Woodville to do business on the first and third Thursdays in every month from now on. Loans at lowest current rates.—70-cw-17.

TRENT VALLEY CANAL.

A strong effort is being made by the members of the North Victoria, Mr. Barron, to have the government prosecute the Trent Valley canal scheme vigorously. It appears to be futile, however, and as we expected the recent commission appointed to investigate the scheme is only another block put in the way. It is too bad to allow a matter of such vast importance to be tossed about as a hobby of politicians. It is not a matter which should be done in this way or the other by giving the matter to a committee of inquiry. The fact is that the scheme is not a matter of such vast importance to be tossed about as a hobby of politicians. It is not a matter which should be done in this way or the other by giving the matter to a committee of inquiry.

MILLBROOK.

OBITUARY.—We regret to record the death of Mr. Thomas Mallock, which occurred on Wednesday, the 13th inst. The deceased was afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism which caused his death. He bore his long sickness with Christian fortitude, which is only felt by those who have an enduring faith in a Saviour's love and redemption. Mr. Mallock had been employed in the Great West Railway, and is a brother of David Mallock, who is also a tried servant of the road. The deceased was ever foremost in the line of duty and in whatever capacity he was engaged used his whole energies in behalf of those who claimed his services. He was for years a prominent member of the I. O. O. F. and was a member of the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. of N. S. W. His remains were followed to their last resting place, Omeamee, by a large number of friends and relatives. He is survived by a wife and several children. The Rev. James Cameron conducted the services (which were very impressive) at the grave, and at the close the band played "By and Bye." Friends with saddened looks, departed and left their loving brother with a long fare well.—Reporter.
