Vick's Floral Guide.

Most artistic of all the seed catalogues is Vick's Floral Guide, issued by James Vick of Rochester, N.Y. Vick specially excels in the line of flower seeds, bulbs and flowering plants generally, while he also carries a choice assortment of vegetable seeds. The Floral Guide is not morely a dry price list of seeds, however, but is in addition a beautifully illustrated work briefly describing the methods of culture and growth of all the plants which decorate the garden. Every flower-grower should have it for reference.

A Grand Success.

Prof. Buell's entertainment was a grand sucsess in Peterboro. The Examiner says: "The plendid photographic transparencies, projected splendid photographic transparencies, projected on a square canvass, were remarkably beautiful and artistic "Across the Continent and the C. P. It route were illustrated by magnificent views of the chief cities, public buildings and places of intere-t along (chiefly) the Canadian Foute, the rich historical associations of the maritime provinces and Quebec being particularly well delineated." "This entertainment is a magnificent advertisement of the resources of Canada. and deserves the largest patronage. The views of the Northwest rebellion were particularly fine, that of the Midland Regiment aspecially."

The Review says: "By means of strong lights the pictures were thrown on a large canvas and all the f. atures of the scene could be seen as clearly as in a photographic views. Views were given of Jerusalem, Constantinople, Rome, Paris, etc., and then scenes in England. Scotland and Ireland were thrown on the canvas, including the beautiful scenery of the Lakes of Killarney. Views were also given connected magnificent and the only reason for regret in that Prof. Sueli sid not stay in towa longer this every one saw the splendid exhibition."

Baby Bunting Again.

One of the greatest literary hits of the season is the story of "Baby Bunting; or, the Alphabet of Love," by Laura Jean Libbey, which is at preof Love," by Laura Jean Libbey, which is at present being published in the columns of The New York Family Story Paper. The paper containing the opening chapters of this wonderfully popular romance appeared on the news stands this week. The tremendous rush for that number by the young ladies of the town shows clearly that the publishers have struck a bonanza. The Family Story Paper is for sale by all news dealers, or will be sent to any address four months, postage free, for $1. Norman L. Munro, publisher, 24 and 26 Vandewater-st., New York.

Benj. Maginley as "Inshavegue." Of his appearance in Montreal the Herald says: That well-known and universal favorite, Mr. Ben. Maginley, was accorded a rousing reception yesterday, on the occasion of the presentation of the delightful Irish drama, Inshavogue. Irish plays are always well received here, and the large and enthusiastic audiences present at both matines and evenining performances gave emphasis to the fact. The plot of the piece is of intense interest, and appeals directly to the sympathies of the audience. Mr. Ben. Maginley as Inshavogue, acts his part very naturally and is the life of the piece. Mr. Bryan O'Lynn as Thaddy Blake, and Miss Belle O'Lynn aae exceedingly clever, their Irish jig and reel dancing being repeatedly encored. Mr. Elmer Grandin as Ulick Burke, makes a capital villian, and Mr. Adolph Lestins as Harry Carrington very pleasing. Miss Lillian Billings in the dual role of Nora Maguire and Ellen Brady austains her rather difficult parts to perfection. The company is deserving of liberal patronage." Mr. Maginley and his troup will appear in Bradburn's Opera House next Monday evening.

-Chief Justice Waite of the U.S. suprem court died last Friday.

-We deeply regret to learn that the illness of Mrs. Matchett. referred to on another page, has had a fatal termination. She passed away late yesterday afternoon. The sad news will be received with deep and general regret.....The funeral will take place from the family residence to the Grand Trunk station at 11 a. m. on Saturday for interment in Omemce

-Our worthy old friend, Mr. Thomas Ray of week in the death of a brother and a sister. The latter, Mrs. Dunlap, had been living with him in Ops for the past few years, her husband having died several years ago. On Monday last she passed away in her 8ith year, after a short Illness brought on by a cold..... When making arrangements for the funeral a telegram announced the death of a younger brother, John Ray, a farmer in Yarmouth township, near Port Stanley. He too caught a cold and died after an illness of a few days, in his 80th year. The family came out in 1825, when quite young, from Antrim, Ireland, and settled first in Lanark. There were seven sens and two daughters. Four brothers are now living. Two in Lanark, and one in Bruce, and our worthy friend in Ops, to whom we tender respectful sympathy.

—Death has after a long and weary struggle carried off the venerable Rev. Dr. Smithett of week in the death of a brother and a sister. The carried off the venerable Rev. Dr. Smithett of Omemee, one of the most widely-known ministers of the district. The sad event took place last Saturday, and the flags on the public buildings in town were placed at half-mast. Rev.Dr. Smithett had been rector of Omemee six years and was incumbent of St. Paul's, Lindsay, for the eight years preceding. He was in his sixty-sixth year at the time of his death, and had been nearly a quarter of a century in the ministry, partly in England, in South America and the United States. His was a busy and eventful life. The funeral on Tuesday was one of the largest ever seen in the district. The deceased was a grand chaplain of the grand Orange lodge and the Orange and True Blue lodges in Lindsay went to Omemee, accompanied by the Citizen's band, to take part in the mournful ceremony, which was conducted with Orange honors. The deceased was also a prominent member of the Masonic organization. The pallbearers were Rev. Rural Deans Allan of Millbearers were Rev. Rural Dean Allen. Canon O'Meara of Port Hope and Rural Dean Allen. Canon O'Meara made an impressive address, dwelling on the many good qualities and zealous services of the deceased.

-Among the large number of victims of a railway accident on the Minnesota & Northwestern railway near Freeport, Ill., two days before last Christmas was little James Cayley, son of Mr. Cayley of Minto, Dakota, and formerly of Ops, sustained a compourd fracture of the skull and had his knee dislocated. The little fellow recovered, but subsequently passed away, as will be seen by the following extract from the Forest River Journal, published at Minto: We are called upon to give the sad announcement of the death of little Jimmy Cayley, son of Michael Cayley, aged five years and three months, on Saturday evening at half past four o'clock. The narrow escape of himself and father in the railroad acc dent near Chicago some six weeks ago has been announced in your paper. At that time Jimmy received some severe injuries, but by the strict and loving care of his father and the physicians, aided by the kind and unremitting attention of the kind Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's hospital, Chicago, in whose care he was placed by the railway company, he came through all right. Soon after his arrival home he was taken with croup, and in spite of all that medical skill and loving friends could do the little fellow passed away to the brighter shore. "Of such is the kingdom of heaven." railway accident on the Minnesota & North-

You are sleeping now, dear Jimmy,
In the celd and silent earth;
Your spirit now has fied
To accept a heavenly birth,
You have left a weeping mother
Who guarded you with care,
And a kind and loving father,
Who will half the burden bear.
You have walked the path before us,
For the road we all must go,
When the Saviour sends to call us
From the scenes of life below.
Up in heaven now, dear Jimmy,
An angel waiting at the throne,
Too pure and good for earthly fetters,
And Jesus claimed you for His own.

—A later issue of the same paper contains another notice of another visit of the angel of Death to the same household:

Sweet, lovely buds, so soft and fair, Called hence by early doom; Just sent to show what perfect flowers In Paradise would bloom.

Two more of the children of Michael Cayley passed to the thither shore of the dark river to join little Jimmy in the better hand. Annie, two years old, passed over on Saturday last, and sorrow's tribute of tears had not cassed to flow when the fountain was open afresh for little four-year old Janie. The stricken parents have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.
