THE CITY CARRIAGE WORKS Still Keeps to the Front.

"Let Her Go! This Buggy was made by KYLIE." The success that has attended our efforts since commencing business in Lindsay is evidently causing some of our friends in the business a little uneasiness.

The craze tells us that they don't make any changes, nor don't intend to be cranking along in the old ruts and we will leave them there.

My aim is to build up a reputation second to none in Canada, and I am happy to say that so far I have succeeded beyond my expectations.

I am also Agent for the celebrated O. B. & S. ROAD AND BREAKING CART—the best of its kind made.

L. O'CONNOR'S CARRIAGE and WAGON WORKS, Etc.

1888. LINDSAY. 1888. L. O'CONNOR would respectfully ask all requiring a first class job of any kind in his line to call and see for themselves and not be humbugged by oily-tongued wind-bags in this important business.

I have now on hand the largest stock I ever had and orders are coming in fast. I have a great variety of the latest styles of Buggies, all manufactured of second growth of hickory and well seasoned and made by skillful workmen.

As for my painting (I do not advertise for old buggies to be re-painted) I have my old reliable painter, Mr. John Harding, who has worked for me for ten years and expect he will for another ten, as I do not keep changing hands every year.

Repairs of all kinds promptly attended to at the lowest price. A call solicited. CORNER OF WILLIAM AND RUSSELL STREETS, LINDSAY.

However, the committee did report, and on the 27th of March last the writ was ordered to be issued, but in that case it took ten days for the writ to issue. Kent is not so far away that the government could not communicate with the committee who was running in the conservative interest, and find out who was to be his returning officer, in less time than that, but it required ten days before that writ was issued.

"When a new writ for an election has to issue upon the order of the house of commons, then in every such case the day for the nomination of candidates shall, in the electoral districts of the province of British Columbia, and in the electoral district of Alameda in the provinces of Ontario, and in those of Gaspé and Chicoutimi and Saguenay in the province of Quebec, be within thirty days after the day when the house of commons shall have ordered the writ so to issue, and in the other electoral districts of Canada, shall be the day when the house of commons shall have so ordered the writ to issue.

"I think, if these amendments are adopted in the manner in which I have proposed, they will be in the general interest of the entire country.
