Dr. Colton and Gas. It is the height of absurdity for a Lindsay dentist to talk of Dr. Colton of New York as antiquated. Dr. Colton has the thanks of millions of people. Without him gas would never have been introduced. His rooms are crowded with people. Mr. NEELANDS studied with him, administers the same kind of gas, and has the same success in extracting teeth.—02 1.

The Downeyville Picnie. The Dewneyville Picnic.

The picnic at Downeyville came aff Wednesday in Mr. Lehane's beautiful grove, north of the village. A very pleasant day was spent, dancing, sports, swinging, etc., being the order. The attendance was not quite as large as usual, no doubt, owing to the excessive heat; but still there was a very large gathering. Rev. Father Connolly, the popular parish priest of Downeyville, gave hearty welcome to all. The Omemee brass band played choice selections. The list of prize-winners in the games will be printed next week.

-The beautiful and impressive ceremony of decorating the graves of departed brethren and friends, now annually commemorated by Oddfellows throughout America, has been set down by the Lindsay brethren for Tuesday, July 17th. A movement is on foot to declare Tuesday afternoon a general half-holiday, so that citizens and others having loved ones interred in the "silent city of the dead," Riverside cemetery, may be afforded an opportunity to co-operate in the beautiful ceremony. The idea is a good one, and we trust it may be carried out.

Sturgeon Point Notes.

The season has fully opened up at the Point and the hotel is rapidly filling up with guests. snd the notel is rapidly filling up with guests. Following is a list of arrivals for the week: H. S. St. Paul's church was the scene of a very inceresting ceremony on Tuesday morning last, at 8.39 o'clock. The occasion was the marriage of Mr. Sid. Smyth, dry goods merchant, to Miss Alice Murta, neice of Mr. J. H. Knight, public school inspector. Rev. Mr. Marsh officiated, and tied the indissoluble knot in his usual neat and efficacious style. The groom was supported and encouraged throughout the trying ordeal by his brother, Mr. Stanley Smyth, whilst the bride, who looked charming in a handsome combination brown and plaid travelling suit, was attended by Miss Bessie Goodwin as bridesmaid, in a bewitching costume of gobelin green. A large number of friends were present at the nuptials, both contracting parties being very popular and possessing the esteem of a large circle. After the ceremony, the happy couple left on the 9.15 train on a honeymoon trip, and will visit friends in Western Ontario. As regards the presents, it is almost unnecessary to say that they were many, handsome and costly, 8.39 o'clock. The occasion was the marriage of timate friends; "Sid's" store friends tendered him a neat and appropriate gift in the shape of a beautiful china sugar and cream service with silver frame; the members of St. Paul's choir, of which the bride has been a member for some years, presented her with a "gipsy camp kettle, tripod and faggots in miniature; friends in Dundas & Flavelle's store, an elegant satin parasol, with Egyptian handle; and the teachers in the Sunday school, with a proper appreciation of true comfort, united upon an improved rattan rocking chair of most enticing proportions..... Our congratulations and good wishes are mingled with those of a host of friends.

-The young ladies of St. Paul's church intend holding their annual strawberry festival and sale very shortly. Look out for further notice —In our notice of the services at the Baptist church on June 2nd we stated that "Mr. Wm. White" sang a duett with Prof. Canfield. It should have read "Mrs. H. A. White." -The regular monthly meeting of the C. E. T. S. in St. Paul's school room, Thursday evening, was well attended. An address by Rev. Mr. Marsh, recitations, readings and songs formed a pleasing program.
