What a Time

People formerly had, trying to swallow the eld-fashioned pill with its film of magnesia vainly disguising its bitterness; and what a contrast to Ayer's Pills, that have been well called "medicated sugar-plums"-the only fear being that patients may be tempted into taking too many at a dose. But the directions are plain and should be strictly followed.

J. T. Teller, M. D., of Chittenango. N. Y., expresses exactly what hundreds have written at greater length. He says: "Ayer's Cathartic Pills are highly appreciated. They are perfect in form and coating, and their effects are all that the most careful physician could desire. They have supplanted all the Pills formerly popular here, and I think it must be long before any other can be made that will at all compare with them. Those who buy your pills get full value for their money."

"Safe, pleasant, and certain in their action," is the concise testimony of Dr. George E. Walker, of Martinsville, Virginia.

"Ayer's Pills outsell all similar preparations. The public having once used them, will have no others."-Berry, Venable & Collier, Atlanta, Ga.

MARA. Township Drains.-Mr. A. G. Cavana, D.L.S., and K. L. Burnet of Orillia are at present engaged in laying out two large drains in the township of Mara. Both the drains will be in the neighborhood of two miles long, and when completed will, it is expected, have the effect of reclaiming a large quantity of land, which is at present useless. The surveys on the work will not be completed for another month yet. It will be a most decided boon to the farmers in that district.—[Times.

[Correspondence of The Post.]
OBITUARY.—It becomes our sad duty to chronicle the death of Mrs. Angus Smith of this place who died on Thursday evening last of consumption. She had been ill for some time previous and her death was not unexpected. Her funeral took place on the following Saturday afternoon and was largely attended by sorrowing friends and acquaintances. Her remains were interred in the Eldon cemetery. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the whole community in their hour of sorrow. This is a solemn warning to us all that we are only pilgrims and sojourners here for a few fleeting years at the most.

Campbell of the 7th con. line, who was united in bonds of matrimony to Miss Catherine McCuaig, eldest daughter of Mr. Donald McCuaig of the same line. The knot was tied by the Rev. Alex. Ross, M.A., of Woodville, who never ties but a running knet and the older it gets the tighter it holds. We wish the young couple a pleasant and prosperous voyage over the sea of time.

THE SECOND ELOPEMENT SUCCESSFUL.—
Thursday night of last week an elopement was nipped in the bud at the union station here by the sudden appearance of the girl's father and her big brother, who severely chastised the man, Morton Sinclair, a peddier of small wares, and took the girl home. She was Maria Hennilstone, daughter of a York township farmer. Maria promised to forget all about her lover, but she didn't. Wednesday afternoon she received permission to spend the evening with a neighboring family, but as she did not return late at night, her father went to her bedroom and found a letter from her, telling him she could not live without her lover, and asking her parent's forgiveness. Mr. Hennilstone accompanied by his son immediately started in pursuit, but he did not reach Toronto till midnight, and found that Sinclair and the daughter had left with the 10:30 train for Detroit. A detective telegraphed to detectives in Detroit to head them off. Farmer Hennilstone left for Detroit next day. TORONTO.

SAD CASE OF DROWNING .- Word was SAD CASE OF DROWNING.—Word was received here Friday afternoon that a young man named Jae. Quinn, son of Mr. James Quinn, one of Orillia's oldest and most respected residents, had lost his life while crossing from Point Severn to Waubaushene in a row boat with two companions, Robert Strathern and George McLeod, also belonging to Orillia. They had been on a hunting exhibition up the Severn river and were returning home with their boat heavily laden. When Savern river and were returning home with their boat heavily laden. When about half way between Point Severn and Waubaushene a storm came up suddenly and swamped the boat, precipitating them into the water. They clung to the boat. She would hardly support all of them, and two hounds which belonged to young Quinn kept climbing on top of him, and in a short time he was forced to let go his hold and went down, his two companions hold and went down, his two companions being too exhausted to render him any assistance. Scrathern and McLeod hung on for several hours, and were fin-ally rescued by a tug after giving up all hope. They were taken to Waubaushene, hope. They were taken to Waubaushene, and are at present under the care of Dr. Hanley. Mr. Samuel Fraser, inspector, is out with a tug dragging for the body, and no word has been received from him up to the time of writing. The greatest sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Quinn in the ioss of their son, who was a favorite among his acquaintances.

Leg Broken.—Little Eddie Chirpaw had his leg broken on Saturday afterneon while playing football in the match between Chalk Lake and Uxbridge juniors.

Hand Crushed.—On Saturday evening Mr. George Thompson, switchman on the railway here, had his left hand badly crushed while coupling cars and some of the fingers had to be amputated.

Big Yield.—Everybody knows that potatoes are a big crop this year, and nearly everybody knows the Uxbridge is a great potatoe township. While the average yield would perhaps be 200 or 250 bushels per acre, there are some growers who have had much more than this. Mr. E. Miller for instance had 300 bushels off a piece of land not quite an acre in extent, and some of the hills turn out half a pail each.

Mysterious Bisappearance.—Mr. Jas. Johnston, a young man of Quaker Hill, left his home on Saturday night and has not returned. He came down to Uxbridge, left his horse in the Plank house stable and said he would return for itat 11 o'clock. He didn't return, but bought a loaf of bread at O'Neil's bakery, a basket at Old No. 1, and a piece of cheese at Vanhorn's, and when last seen was walking south down the railroad track. He was a sober steady young man and no cause can be assigned for his strange action. The announcement of his disappearance was made from the church pulpits on Sunday night.—[Journal.

FENELON FALLS.

FENELON FALLS. THEY WON'T GO.—A few days ago Mr.
J. A. Todd, secretary of the Fenelon Falls base ball club, received a letter asking them to go to Victoria Roal to play the Salem club for the cup which they have already won. They say they will not go and we can't blame them. They beat the Palestine club and the Salem club at Victoria Road and as the game with the Palestine club and the Salem club at Victoria Road, and as the game with the Kirkfield club was stopped by darkness our boys played them on their own challenge at Lindsay, each club putting up $25, and beat them by a score of 11 to 16. Under these circumstances they decline to play again for the cup, especially as it is worth about $6, barely a third of what it would cost them to go to Victoria Road; but they are quite ready for another game with the Salem club, provided it be played at Fenelon Falls.

AN ELOPEMENT FROM BOBCAYGEON.—About 2 o'clock on Wednesday morning there arrived at the McArthur House from Bobcaygeon a livery 'rig' which contained besides the driver a young couple, who, finding the course of true love didn't run so smoothly as it ought to have done, resolved to run away from, rather than attempt to surmount the obstacles to their union. The swain was Mr. James Slater, formerly of Bracebridge, but for the past two or three years a resident of 'Caygeon, and his fair companion was Miss Louisa Chapman, whose father presides over Boyd & Co's boarding house at Little Bob. They were expected at the hotel, as the young man had telegraphed for rooms; and soon after daylight—which does'nt come very early at this time of year—he was up and afoct making arrangements for the coming event. Mr. J. C. Fitzgerald was routed out of bed and urgently requested to hustle in filling up a marriage license, and the Rev. Mr. McAmmond was interviewed and informed that his indispensable services were required. A little Bob. nterviewed and informed that his indispensable services were required. A little before 8 o'clock the ceremony was per-formed in one of the parlors of the Mc-Arthur house, Mr. N. Ingram officiating as groom's man, and his niece, Miss Ruby Ingram as bride's maid. The father of the bride was not only not present to give her away, but his disclination to part with her was so strong that he telegraphed to Constable Nevison to arrest her, as she was only eighteen years old, and consequently not of age. But, as the telegraph offices do not open until 8 a.m., the message did not arrive until the marriage was over; and the happy pair, after receiving the congratulations of all who were present at their union, took the train for the south and went on their way rejoicing.

PETERBORO. FARLEY'S SENTENCE COMMUTED TO IMPRISONMENT FOR LIFE.—The efforts made to secure a commutation of the sentence of death passed upon James F. Farley have met with Euccess. After receiving the deputation and petitions from Peterboro and giving the case consideration the governor general, upon the recommendation of the government, has changed the sentence to life imprisonment. Saturday afternoon Mayor Stevenson, M.P., received the following telegram from Sir John Thomp-

"Farley's sentence has been commuted to imprisonment for life.

THE PIGEON CREEK BRIDGE.—Yesterday THE PIGEON CREEK BRIDGE.—Yesterday the warden of the county, Mr. Walsh, and Mr. Michael Sanderson, formally and effectually caused the Pigeon creek bridge to be closed. They engaged a stone machine and put two large boulders weighing about a ton at each end of the bridge so that it is now impassible. The county of Victoria will now realize that Peterboro means business. The county and town are prepared to assist in the maintenance of the bridge, but they are not willing to hear the whole expense. When the bridge was constructed in 1871, the town of Peterborough gave $400, the county $400, and the county of Victoria an additional $400; but this was not sufficient to complete the bridge, and the county of Peterborough expended about one thousand more to finishing it. Knowing that the bridge was likely to be was not sufficient to complete the bridge, and the county of Peterborough expended about one thousand more to finishing it. Knowing that the bridge was likely to be closed yesterday over 100 teams crossed it on Saturday, coming to Peterboro. The permanent closing of this bridge will not be entertained. The people of the town of Peterboro cannot regard with indifference the closing of an avenue to that town, and the people of Emily will not be willing to be deprived of the means of coming to Peterboro. There is no doubt that the Pigeon creek bridge is a common convenience to the people of both counties and therefore both counties should assist in its maintenance. This Victoria refused to do, and while Peterboro is unwilling to assume the whole cost of maintenance, county and town is perfectly willing to meet Victoria half way, or perhaps even more than half way in the matter of maintaining the bridge.—[Examiner.

St. Joseph's Hospital.—The corner stone of the new structure for St. Joseph's hospital, St. Leonard's Park, Ashburnham, was laid Thursday afternoon with the solemn ceremonies prescribed by the rubric of the Roman Catholic church, under whose auspices, as represented by Bishop Dowling, the building will be raised and the hospital conducted. His Lordship was assisted by the diocese and visiting clergy and a large concourse of representative citizens. Mrs. Dr. O'Sullivan presented the bishop with a beautiful silver trowel as a souver ir of the consion. Mrs. O'Sullivan contributed $2,000 to the hospital building fund.
