

$12,000

McLean, Smith & Co.

Owing to a change in our business, which takes place next 15th day of January, we have got to reduce our present stock of $20,000.00, to 8,000, and in order to do so we will commence on 1st November to sell our stock of Millinery. Silks and Dress Goods at what they cost wholesale.

We have a large stock of Men's and Ladies' Fur Coats, which run into a great deal of money, and if you require one this is an opportunity that you get once in a lifetime, as the goods have to be sold by the 15th January.

The earlier you take advantage of this the better for vourself, as our stock of Flannels, Towellings, Table Linens, Table Napkins, Shirtings, Tickings, etc., is now complete, and we will not buy any goods after this date.

Our stock of Black and Colored Silks are of the very best makes and our Dress Goods, Black Cashmeres, Meltons, Winceys, etc., we bought in the very closest markets.

The first time you are buying give us a call and we will convince you by the prices we quote you that this is a real genuine Sale and all goods will be sold for cash only, as we have got to raise $12,000 by 15th January next.

You may think that this is a scheme we have gotten up to make a big sensation, as our town is full of bankrupt stocks, schemes, etc., to draw wool over people's eyes and make them believe that they can buy goods cheaper than what they were manufactured for. But if you want to buy good reliable goods at wholesale prices you do not want to let this pass without taking advantage of it.

Rev. Mr. Marsh has been over a year incumbent of St. Paul's and last Sunday briefly referred to the circumstance. It is encouraging to be able to state that excellent progress has been made, and that his faithful and zealous ministrations have apparently been abundantly blossed.

—The new Methodist church, situated on the corner of Queen and Caroline-ats., Victoria ward, is being pushed forward very rapidly, and if everything goes favorably as at present Christmas services will be held therein—much to the satisfaction of the energetic and devoted pastor. Rev. Mr. Dewey. The dimensions of the building are 42x58, frame, veneered with brick, and when completed will be an imposing looking editice and a credit to the east ward. The basement has been arranged to accommodate a furnace for heating the building, and the ground floor will be divided into class-rooms, vestry, etc. Upstairs will be the auditorium—the dimensions of which promise well with regard to scating capacity and general fitness for church purposes, and will have twenty-foot ceiling. The windows will be of stained glass.

—The old church, which has long been unfit for the needs of the congregation, besides being out of the way, has been found to be doubly so since the Rev. Mr. Dewey commenced his ministrations. It will likely be sold and converted into a private dwelling.

The heavy rains of the latter part of last week raised the water in the lake over four inches, and the Esturion made the trip Saturday up the river with a full head of steam on. This has not been practicable for five weeks past. The handling of freight will be greatly facilitated.

The brick building now being erected opposite the market for Mr. Eugene Fee will be rented by him to Mr. Charles McLean, agent for Noxon Bros. farming implements. The building will be admirably adapted for the purpose, and the situation is most convenient for farmers.

The ghostly flicker of the gas lamp opposite the new post-office building should be remedied. Mr. Needler's enterprise will no doubt be cordially appreciated and supported.

—Mr. Robert Bryans, our enterprising lumber merchant, is "hustling" matters up north. His lumber and shingle mill at Kinmount has been running fall tilt all summer, and to provide the material for its insatiable maw next summer he has a large force of men on his limits in the townships of Somerville, Lutterworth and Monmouth, under that experienced foreman, Mr. J. Coburn of Lindsay. Altogether he has to "cash up" to a force of forty-five men on pay day.

—A flurry of excitement was created among our hotel keepers Wednesday evening by the news passed around by a "reliable" that four "whiskey spotters" had alighted from the evening train. Descriptions were jotted down, and a cold shoulder given to the suspicious characters, one of whom is suppesed to be corn-lotion vendor. There is some fear that precautions were taken too late in several instances. A couple of the shady men were chased up Kentst at a late hour Wednesday evening, but they "got thar" ahead of their pursuers.

st. at a late hour Wednesday evening, but they "got thar" ahead of their pursuers.

—Mr. Wm. May, employed by Mr. E. Woods, stove and tinware merchant, met with a serious accident Saturday evening last that will confine him to the house for some weeks to come. He was instructed to take a small stove to an east ward customer in the firm's delivery wagon, hitched to which was a rather skittish and beadstrong little animal. Gathering up the lines he jogged along quietly until McConnell's corner was reached, but on the way down the incline towards the bridge something touched the horse's flank, and his efforts to get free from the irritating rubbing at once assumed the proportions of a lively runaway. The stove was deposited in a somewhat dilapidated condition upon the old Conway house steps, and the horse continued his career towards the bridge. At this point May either jumped or was shaken off, and was thrown with great violence against one of the buttresses, rendering him insensible. When picked up he was bleeding profusely, and was at once conveyed to Dr. Kempt's surgery, where his injuries were attended to. Fortunately no bones were broken, but the contusions were many and severe, especially those on the face and over the heart and lungs, the latter distressing him very much and making the act of breathing exceedingly painful. Under the care of Dr. Kempt, however, he is progress ing favorably.

the care of Dr. Kempt, however, he is progress ing favorably.

—A good deal of feeling has been caused by an unfortunate religious dispute regarding the burial of a Mrs. Smith, a resident of the south ward, who died Sunday evening. The family had been in straightened circumstances and had received assistance from Protestant and Roman Catholic societies and sources. Mrs. Smith died a professed member of the RomanCatholic cure home say she had been converted in her last illness, a few days prior to her death. She received attention and assistance from Protestants and was visited by Rev. Mr. Marsh. Mr. Obadiah Bigelow is owner of the house occupied by the Smiths and rendered assistance, being an active member of the Roman Catholic charitable society. It is also stated that Mr. Bigelow took an earnest part in reclaiming or converting, or perverting as you will, the sick woman to his faith. Some say she was or had been a Roman Catholic; others that she was always a Protestant. The funeral was to have taken place Tuesday. Mr. Geo. Warner of Victoria Road and Mr. P. Warner of Hartley, brothers of the deceased, arrived for the purpose of attending, and being Protestants, strongly objected to the funeral going on under Catholic auspices. The members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society withdrew; and next day the funeral took place to Riverside cemetery. There are various exaggeraied versions of the affair current, and no doubt some hard feeling will be stirred up.

—We wish to remind the public of the coming entertainment in aid of the collegiate institute reading room, at which Miss Agnes Knox will make her first appearance in Lindsay. Miss Knox is one of the best elocutionists in Canada or America, and her great natural ability has been much improved by a long course of training in Philadelphia and New York. She has just returned from England, where she read with much favor before large and critical audiences. Everywhere she has received the highest praise. Sir David Wilson of University college writes: "I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to Miss Knox's ability as a public reader. Alike in patnetic and humorous pieces she is highly successful in winning the sympathies of her audience." And Prof. Neff of Philadelphia school of cratory says: "As a reader Miss Knox is a genius Her expression is the result of a piercing and discriminating intellect, a large and responsive soul, a vivid imagination and a rigid self-control. Her readings are not the effections of a so-called art, but are the well nigh spontaneous manifestations of nature, and queenly presence, and educate because her personality is ever the transparent medium of truth." Some idea of her appearance may be formed from her photograph now in Duudas & Flavelle Bros. windows, next week at Porter's bookstore. Don't forget the date, Nov. 23rd, and get your tickets early. Plan open at Porter's bookstore next Monday.

whistling and sarcastic expressions were far too numerous.

—A very serious charge has been laid against a young man named Cameron, belonging to Oakwood, and is undergoing investigation before P. M. Deacon. The young man is charged with having outraged a girl of thirteen, near Manilla, one evening last week. The girl was on her way to the post office when Cameron met her and induced her to get into his buggy. The girl suspected no harm and Cameron drove on a side-road and accomplished his purpose. There is naturally very strong indignation about the crime. The case is adjourned until to-day.

—The public can probably well understand that under the big-buttoned great-coat of a guardian of the peace there should occasionally well up an intense longing for novelty—something to break it. This was the case Wednesday evening, no doubt, but thanks to Dr. Poole a diversion was created. As the doctor was entering his gate about 10 p.m. he heard some guttural exclamations from the other side of the road and his interest was at once excited. Going over he found a very much inebriated individual floundering in the muddy ditch unable to extricate himself, singing snatches of song and making himself very much at home. The doctor extended him a helping hand, and as the man was unable to walk he hunted up Chief Bell and P. C. Clunan, who procured a stout wheelbarrow and started for the scene. Placing the maudling personage in the barrow P. C. Clunan spat on his hands after the most approved plowman fashion and started for headquarters, Chief Bell steadying the occupant, who attempted to warble "We won't go home—(hic)—till morning," to which the chief grimly assented. Turns were taken at the barrow, and finally the mud-bespattered occupant was safely ensconced in quarters for the night.

A DAISY DEAL FOR THE DELVER'S DOLLAR

READ AND CONSIDER

Our claims on your custom—you ought to trade with us—that's our opinion, and our opinion has the following substantial underpinning: We are the cheapest sellers in the Midland Counties. The daisy deal for the delver's dollar is found at the City Store. We want your dollar and we want it badly, and we'll give you more for it than any other firm. That's not all. We carry a sterling stock; a Stock offering the choice of the markets in every line of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Millinery and Mantles, Mantle and Ulster Cloths, Ladies' and Gents' Furs, Astrachan and Bocharan and Seal Mantles, Men's Fur Coats, Caps and Robes: a Stock that for comprehensiveness stands slone.
We are Al and lead the procession by a head and a long head, for its the long head that leads every time. Then we call attention to quality. The best as well as the most is our motto. Our Goods are all high grade, well made and finely finished. No one will give you better treatment all finely finished. No one will give you better treatment all round than we will. That's why we say you ought to trade

LADIES' FUR MANTLES.

As usual we are fully equipped for the Season's Trade. Our stock of Fur Mantles is a mammoth one. Our prices for first-class goods are the lowest to be found anywhere, and considering the weather we are selling more Ladies' Fur Mantles than ever before; and why wouldn't we when we are selling a Mantle worth $25 for $20; a Mantle for $25 worth $32; a Mantle for $27.50 worth $35; a Mantle for $35 worth $45; a Mantle for $40 that cannot be bought retail anywhere for less than $50. We are determined to be the leaders in low prices and best values. Whatever you do don't buy until you have seen our Mammoth Stock and learned our values. Remember that a dollar sayed is a dollar made. Always a pleasure to show goods.

ORDERED CLOTHING.

A big suit or a little suit, a long suit or a short suit, no matter how good, the cloth requires to be durably trimmed, skilfully made, artistically cut, and finished with requisite taste in order that the purchaser will receive full value for his money. A suit made to these requirements is a source of great satisfaction to the wearer. He feels dressed and comfortable, and the suit actually wears double the length of time that a suit will which is badly made, miserably trimmed and ill-fitted. To get the greatest perfection attainable in clothing it is necessary for you to buy at the City Store, where you get all the perfections and lastest English and American styles in cut, fit and finish, besides the great advantage of a large and carefully selected Stock of Tweeds, Suitings, Worsteds, etc., for Suits, Overcoats, Pants, etc., to select from. Come and see us. Remember it it is always a pleasure to show goods.

MEN'S FUR COATS.

Never before have we shown half the Stock in Men's Fur Coats that we are showing this season. We have them in all the popular furs at the lowest price for serviceable wellmade and durably trimmed coats. We have them, from $14 up. Our prices range as follows: $14, $20, $22.50, $25, $27.50, $30, $35, $40, $45 and up, and a finer lot of Fur Coats to select from you cannot find anywhere. This is no blow but an actual hard-pan, bare-legged, indisputable, undeniable fact. A large stock of Goat and Fancy Robes to select from. We have a first-class quality of Goat Robe for $22 and $23.50 as have a first-class quality of Goat Robe for $3 and $3.50 each, the lowest price in Canada to-day for good, sound, tight-haired, strong lined robes. Fur caps in Seal, Otter, Beaver, Persian, etc. Underclothing from 25 cents up.
