mmence on 1st November to sell our stock of Millinery, its and Dress Goods at what they cost wholesale.

We have a large stock of Men's and Ladies' Fur Coats, ich run into a great deal of money, and if you require this is an opportunity that you get once in a lifetime, as the ods have to be sold by the 15th January.

The earlier you take advantage of this the better for urself, as our stock of Flannels, Towellings, Table Linens, the Napkins, Shirtings, Tickings, etc., is now complete, dwe will not buy any goods after this date.

Our stock of Black and Colored Silks are of the very st makes and our Dress Goods, Black Cashmeres, Meltons, inceys, etc., we bought in the very closest markets.

The first time you are buying give us a call and we will not buy any goods will be sold for cash only, as we to got to raise $12,000 by 15th January next.

But if you want to buy goods at wholesale prices you do not want to good reliable goods at wholesale prices you do not want to sports.

-Is there money to be made growing clover? The answer to this question lies in the fact that last week Mr. S. Washington, a prominent Mariposa farmer, living on the 9th con., sold to Messrs. Spratt & Killen of this town part of the product of twelve acres of alsike, receiving therefor a cheque for $385. Mr. S. retained sufficient quantity for seed to swell the gross value of the product of the twelve acres to about $1,200. let this pass without taking advantage of it.

—A temporary crossing has been put in opposite the Daly house for the convenience of business firms on the other side of the street, who found that their trade was being interfered with owing to the permanent crossing a little further north being blocked for some distance with the stone cutting sheds in connection with the new post-office and customs building. The business men interested paid for the material—some $16—and the town supplied the labor.

—A Belleville item in Wednesday's papers says: Horse thieves are becoming numerous in this section. An Indian was sent to Kingston for two years on Monday, and on Tuesday Jos. Johnston, charged with stealing a horse from a neighbor of his father, (Mr. Thos. Calvert of Reaboro), in the the township of Ops. Victoria county, and a buggy from James Vieburn of Belleville, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to six months in the central prison. Joseph Devall, an accomplice in the horse-stealing case, was sent up for the same term.

—The much talked of "household troops band" of the salvation army, which was organized about a year ago in London, England, now making a tour through Canada, arrived in town Tuesday morning and attracted much attention. The band numbers about twenty-five players, and the leader is Staff-Capt. Appleby. It is said that the members do not get any remuneration for their services. Their mission to Canada is raising funds to be devoted to the "House of Rest" in Toronto; and with this object meetings are held in the different towns they visit, the proceeds of which, after traveling expenses are paid, being set apart for the above purpose. The meeting held in the Peelst, barracks was a great success, and many were unable to obtain admission. The receipts were close upon $70.

-The small boy was intensely proud of his individuality last week. In the early part of the week the river was covered with a thin sheeting of ice, just strong enough along the edges to admit of small boys gyrating thereon. The opportunity was seized upon with the alacrity proper to the occasion, and the ice was soon thronged with youngsters, shouting themselves hoarse at their favorite game of "shinney." The amount of business transacted in one short afternoon in the way of "swapping" skates and the spirited arguments pro and con as to whether straps should go with the dicker would make a Kent-st merchant turn green with envy.... Several boys broke through the ice during the week, but being close inshore the results were not serious.... School rosters shewed an alarming falling off in attendance.

shewed an alarming falling off in attendance.

- During the past three weeks Messrs. Spratt & Killen, our wholesale tea and coffee men, have received a consignment of no less than 500 chests of new teas, imported direct from Japan. The exceptional pungency and fine flavor of the teas and coffees handled by the firm have been appreciated and acknowledged by every purchaser, and the new lot is considered even superior in these respects. Some India grown blacks will be pronounced unapproachable in flavor..... With regard to coffees the firm have adopted an expensive but reliable plan to prevent adulteration. Sacks of different varieties of the green coffee bean are scattered here and there properly labelled, and several times a week a small quantity of each brand is roasted and ground on the premises with the most approved appliances. Bebson's New Block.

No better indication of the marked progress made by the town during the past year or two, or the wide-spread belief that a new and more prosperous era has been entered upon, can be furnished than lies in the apparently odd farit that Mr. W. -An event of considerable interest to many Lindsay friends took place last Wednesday at Kinmount, being the marriage of Mr. Alex. Watson, merchant, of Kinmount, son of Mr. J. Watson of this town, to Maude, youngest daughter of Mr. Gilbert Scott of the above village. The ceremony took place in St. James's church at 6.30 a.m., and the nuptial knot was tied deftly and effectively by Rev. G. K. Dean of Fenelon Falls, late of Minden. After the wedding breakfast had been partaken of at the residence of the bride's father the happy couple left on the morning train for a trip to Montreal and other points of interest..... The presents were numerous and costly as the bride was a general favorite among a large circle of warm friends. Watson of this town, to Maude, youngest

-A crowded house greeted Miss Knox on her first appearance last Friday night before a a Lindsay audience, and judging from their expressions of pleasure, a hearty reception awaits her return. Perhaps it is unnecessary to make any sort of criticism of Miss Knex's reading, but it would be unfair to omit what is her due. In all her selections except the first, she due. In all her selections except the first, she seemed to enter fully into the spirit of the piece and she certainly carried her audience with her. The gem of the evening was Anderson's "Cuddle Doon," in which she showed most plainly her power of impersonation. Her humorous selections were all excellent, and here perhaps lies her great success Of her tragic readings "The Captives" was the best rendered, and the genuine feeling of horror it stirred up in some of her hearers is the highest compliment a reader could desire. We certainly think that Miss Knox will in time come to be one of the world's attractions. Miss Scrimgeour, accompanied by Mrs. E. B. Roberts, supported her in two solos, both encored, and, in spite of the place, delighted the audience. The pupils of the high school are well satisfied with the result of their efforts—having obtained nearly enough to equip their reading-room—and they intend giving the citizens another entertainment after the re-opening of the collegiate in stitute to complete their rooms.

-The many friends of Mr. Charles Podger will find him behind the counter of F. Kean, Son & Co., with which firm he has taken a position in the grocery department.

-Mr. C. J. Agar, formerly accountant at Lindsay and latterly at Port Perry and Pickering, has been appointed manager of the Ontario bank agency at Mount Forest. Mr. Agar was a popular official here and his Lindsay friends will congratulate him on his promotion.

—Mr. J. A. V. Preston, son of Mr. Isaac Preston of Manvers, who passed highly creditable examinations recently at Osgoode hall, ranking second for solicitor and third for barrister, has entered the law office of Mr. G. H. Hopkins, Mr. Preston will be cordially welcomed to Lindsay.

Hon. R. S. Hudspeth, nephew of Mr. A. Hudspeth, M.P., of Lindsay, and a democrat in politics, has again been elected to the New Jerscy legislature by a majority of $42. He was formerly speaker and will probably be elected to that position again, as he made a very popular official.

lar official.

—Mr. J. C. Leary of King's wharf, Emily, has been in town this week waiting on the county council in the interests of the Pigeon creek floating bridge. Mr. Leary put the case strongly before the road and bridge committee. The matter was deferred to the January session. In view of Peterboro's sharp and solfish conduct in the Kinmount and Bobcaygeon bridges this county has to be very circumspect.

Several former residents of Ops township who some years ago moved to Daketa and settled in a section which they also called Ops, have come home for a visit of a month or so to friends and relatives. ## OUR CUSTOMERS

Who art in town and country, prosperous be thy walk in life, and may money flow into thy coffers in abundance; so that thou mayest be able to supply thyselves with good Clothes and Dry Goods of all kinds from the CITY STORE.

Give us this day thine influence and patronage and we will give thee in return RAIMENT such as thy body requireth for comfort and bodily health, and we will charge thee only a trifle of thy money, so that thou mayest have a plenty left wherewith to buy food for the family.

As the winter approacheth rapidly, it behooveth thee to be careful of thine own and thy family's carcasses and not allow them to suffer or perish for the lack of raiment and bodily covering, it also behooveth thee to deal out thy money carefully, and see thou that it is judiciously expended.

Thy name will be blessed until the third and fourth generations after thee if thou wilt take heed and provide thyself and thy family with raiment from the CITY STORE, for by so doing, and continuing so to do from season to season, thou wilt save a sufficient competence to provide for thine old age and posterity until the third or fourth generation, thy name will be engraved in the stomach of history, therefore, whatsoever thou or thy wife, or thy daughters or thy sons require in raiment, SEE TO IT that thou providest it for them.

May be thy wife or thy daughters suffer greatly from winter's cold and icy blasts. SEE TO IT that they are each provided with an outer raiment of FUR, and an under raiment of wool under clothing from the CITY STORE. By so doing thou wilt have money left to hide in the bank. SEE TO IT that thy sons are well provided with clothing; sufficiently well cut, made, trimmed and finished to entitle them to thy neighbors' and thy neighbors' daughters respect.

SEE TO IT, that all thy clothing is bought at the CITY STORE IN LINDSAY, where thou wilt save a goodly penny on every article of Raiment bought. SEE TO IT that your neighbors are duly informed of the above facts, so that the entire
