A VICTORY FOR MANITOBA.

The supreme court have decided the railway crossing case referred to them by the Dominion government in favor of Manitoba. The court was asked if in its opinion the provincial statute under which the Red River Valley extension railway was being constructed was "valid and effectual," and the court has decided that the provincial statute is "valid and effectual."

The C.P.R., it is understood, intend to oppose the crossing, and to carry the case now in the Manitoba courts to the privy council if necessary.

The welcome news has come from Stanley that Emin Bey was safe and well-provisioned and that Stanley had left him to return to the Congo, whence further details are expected in a few days.

Philadelphia Record: "There is no successful merchandising that does not grow out of judicious advertising. The pedler relies on individual exertion; the merchant relies upon public information, and the topmost merchants are the heaviest advertisers."

The people of Valentia neighborhood have had a debate on the question of lowering the dam at Lindsay, and after full discussion have decided unanimously in favor of the project.

It is stated that a circular has been issued by the Ontario provincial conservative association urging active organization for the municipal elections with a view to controlling the preparations of the voters' lists.

The junior tory organ is naturally disgusted at our exposure of the little game being played with it in municipal affairs, and it charges THE POST with all sorts of wickedness.

The balance, amounting to $5,200, is needed for and is being expended in providing a gymnasium to comply with the regulations of the education department, and for furnaces, desks, seats and other necessary furnishing and equipment.

The committee having thus exhausted their efforts to erect a building and equip it for $20,000, decided the council should be asked to grant an additional $7,000, and the amount having been placed at the disposal of the board a contract was entered into with Messrs. McNeely & Walters for the sum of $21,000, the amount of their tender as above stated.

Mr. Wiman, for the Great Northwestern Telegraph Co., wants to reduce the dividend or rent paid to the Montreal Co. from eight to six per cent, and there is consequently great indignation at this latest jaw-breaking move of the New York Canadian financier.

The Woodstock Sentinel-Review says: The London Free Press, commenting upon the London dispatches which indicate that both Lord Lorne and Sir Charles Tupper have taken a position in opposition to imperial federation so far as Canada is concerned, declares that "in so doing they do but represent the feeling in this country on the matter."
