"Grip."—Canada's Comie Paper. With the new year Grip enters upon its thirty-second half-yearly volume; a fact which With the new year Grip enters upon its thirty-second half-yearly volume; a fact which speaks eloquently for the merits of this unique and favorite Canadian journal. No former attempt in the field of humorous journalism in Canada was ever successful, because in no former casa was there the happy combination of elements essential to the success of such a venture, in the first place an uncommon fertility of invention is required to keep a comic paper abreast of the times, and this must be backed up by an artistic ability equal to the task of interpreting the happy thoughts evolved in a popular manner. Secondly there must be the solid basis of right principle upon which to build. Truth, honor, fairness and good taste are all as essential to the success of a comic journal as of a magazine of the highest class. All these features have from the first number distinguished Grip in a high degree. It stands to-day, alongside of the very best productions of its class in the world, and enjoys a fame far beyond the bounds of Canada. To Canadians it ought to be more an object of patriotic pride and certainly but little can be said for the patriotism of any Canadian, who pretends to culture, and can afford the price, whose name is not found on Grip's subscription list. The subscription price is almost ridiculously low, when the rates of similar and not equally able journals elsewhere are considered. It is only two dollars a year, although the paper contains sixteen pages filled with bright original humor of pen and pencil, and always gives without stint political cartoons passing events, which for point, power and humor are certainly unsurpassed in any humorous paper of the day. For ourselves we can say that Grip is the very best journal we open and enjoy on the arrival of our weekly exchanges, and we believe the same is true of nearly every editor in the country. Get it for 1800 without fail.

The fire and water committee have placed "winter jackets" upon a number of hydrants that have in the past proved particularly susceptible to the action of frost.

A meeting of the board of education will be held this evening at eight o'clock in the council chamber to consider the lighting of the collegiate institute and other matters. -Mr. Jas. Smith, supt. of the gas works, left for Montreal Christmas afterneon, having been suddenly called away by the sad and unexpect-ed intelligence of the death of his mother.

—The Young Men's Liberal Association will reorganize their debating club after New Year's, and spirited discussions may be looked for after everything has been put in running order. Many important questions are now agitating the public mind, and the orators of last year, as well as some new ones, have plenty of material to work upon.

—Saturday last was a brisk business day in town despite the bad roads, the streets being thronged with vehicles and the walks crowded with redestrians intent upon holiday purchases. One dry goods merchant touched the $1,000 limit, which was considered eminently satisfactory. ... Monday also brought a large number of buyers to town.

—Mr. Wm. Howe, who has the contract for the galvanized iron roof of the new post-office building, is making a good showing despite the fact that he was subjected to a considerable and unexpected delay in getting the quality of iron desired. The roof of the eastern wing was completed some time ago and a large portion of the roof of the main building is now completed..... The inside fittings are being pushed forward rapidly.

—Mr. Wm. Weese, our enterprising buyer, shipped to the Toronto market this week a number of fine horses for which good prices were paid. Included in the shipment were a handsome pair of "blocks," 'dappled grey in color, and weighing 2,900 h3—probably one of the best teams of the class that ever left town. The animals were the attraction of farmers and others on Kent-st. Saturday last. Mr. Weese is always on hand to buy good animals, as well as to pay good prices.

—The absence of sleighing and snow and the copious supply of rain and mud rendered this Christmas tide dull and unpleasant—quite unlike the ordinary jolly Canadian holiday. Foggy, cloudy days and dark rainy nights have been the order, with a wet moon and no promise of snow or frost. The holiday trade suffered in consequence, though on Saturday and Monday a large business was done. Still it was not up to expectations. Good sleighing would be greatly appreciated just now.

—As an instance of the mild weather it may be stated on Christmas day Mr. Sam Britton took a trip down the river in his cance. Yesterday he kindly offered to take a member of our staff for a sail in the "Poliy Ann."... Robins are singing in the baca yard of The Post premises... For contrast we quote from a letter just received from Dr. Lyrch at An Sable Forks, N. Y., in the Adirondacks. "We are having grand winter weather, the mercury for the last three mornings standing 16° F. below at 9 a. m. Sleighing is grand, the finest I ever saw, and the cold, bracing air seems to infuse fresh life."

—A pleasant surprise was given Mr. J. D.

Hife."

—A pleasant surprise was given Mr. J. D. Flavelle and Mr. Thos. Sadler, two the proprietors of the Lindsay flour and sawmills on Christmas eve, when they were the recipients of handsome presents at the hands of their employees. Mr. T. S. Williams on behalf of his fellow workmen presented Mr. Flavelie with a valuable diamond breast pin, and Mr. J. H. Hart on the same behalf handed to Mr. Sadler a handsome and costly dressing case. Both gentlemen spoke in the highest terms of the uniform kindness and liberality with which the employees have always been treated by the proprietors. Messrs. Flavelle and Sadler made suitable replies.

—An interesting de bate was held in the C.L.A.

prieto s. Measrs. Flavelle and Sadler made suitable replies.

—An interesting debate was held in the C.L.A rooms, Friday evening, Dec. 21st. Subject resolved, "That the Statesman is of more benefit to his country than the Warrior. The affirmative was supported by Jos. Mahar and Rich. Harry, and the negative by Jos. Kenny and Jos. Kennedy. The debate was decided by a jury consisting of five members, one chosen by each debater, and the fifth by the chairman, Mr. O'Brien. The affirmative made a geon stand, but by the time the supporter of the negative. Mr. Kennedy, had sat down things looked blue for their side. The debate, though listened to only by a fair audience, is said to have been one of the meet interesting ever held under the auspices of the society. Decision was given in favor of the negative. The chairman in summing up his arguments complimented Mr. Kennedy upon his eloquence, and those present admitted that his argument was one of the finest deliveries ever made in the hall.

—The Christmas tree entertainment in constituted that his argument was sent and the states.

made in the hill.

The Christmas tree entertainment in connection with the Lindsay east Sunday school, held in Bradburn's opera house on Christmas night, was in every sense a decided success. The singing of the boys and girls was just what Mr. Dewey sid it would be, "Such as would make every one's heart glad." Their tones were clear and musical and the words so distinct that anyone standing on the street could understand every word. Special notice should be given of the chanting of the Lord's prayer, the recitations he the boys and girls being on their cornets added a fire brilliant touch to the programme. The presents were numerous, every child receiving one, and Mr. Dewey a $40 cutter and Mrs. Dewey a beautiful table scarf and a fine handkerchie' case, plush and satin. A large number of fine presents were on the traces for friends in the audience.

Railway Notes. -Remember the railway concert to-night, -A letter from Mr. Stevenson to Mr. Ferguon states that the G. T. Co. have made a con tribution of $100 to the fund of the railway tribution of $100 to the fund of the railway library and reading room to be established at Lindsay. This is a handsome contribution and no doubt it will be cordially appreciated.

—Five powerful engines have been added to the equipment of the Midland division and are daily expected at Lindsay. They have been badly needed and will be of great assistance in hauling the increasing traffic. Steady work for as many more could be had; and no doubt they will come as soon as possible.

Church Motor -A watch-night service will be held in the Methodist church, Cambridgest., on Monday evening next at 10.30. -Apprepriate services were held in St. Pani's Christmas day. The choir was in strong force and acquittted themselves admirably. Rev Mr. Marsh preached an eloquent sermon.

—Rev. Neil Campbell, B.A., of Oliver's Ferry.
will preach at both services in St. Andrew's church next Sunday. Mr. Campbell visits Lindsay on the invitation of the supply committee of the congregation.

Of the congregation.

On Monday night (new year's eve) there will be a social gathering in the basement of the Methodist church. Refreshments will be served from 6 to 8 30, when a short program will be given. At the conclusion the usual watch-night service will take place, commencing at 10.30.

-Rev. J. F. Somerville, B.A., of Detroit conducted services in St. Andrew's last Sunday morning and evening, and preached discourses marked by their eloquence, breadth and power. Mr. Somerville, when a student at Queen's, on several occasious preached in St. Andrew's and he consequently was looked upon as an old friend. Mr. Somerville has a most promising future before him.

—The services in the Baptist church on Christ mas day were very largely attended and were of an impressive character. Eloqent sermons were delivered and listened to with deep attention. The musical portion of the service was rendered specially attractive by Miss Silver's fine rendition of the sacred solo, "It came upon the midnight clear," by Sir A. Sullivan. It was a captivating effort.

—The Christmas service in St. Mary's church were very largely attended, particularly at the 5.30 mass, when the large building, with its capacious galleries and extensive seating capacity, was crowded beyond the limits of comfort. Rev. Father Bretherton celebrated mass. The eight o'cleck service was also well attended, Vicar-Gen. Laurent being the celebrant. At the 10-30 grand high mass the church was again crowded, Rev. Father Bretherton singing the mass. Vicar-Gen, Laurent delivered an eloquent sermon.
