A GAS WELL.—A gas well which is the curiosity of the neighborhood is on the farm of Mr. Wm. McFarlane, 3rd con., near E.don Station. For six weeks the gas burned with a brilliant white flama and now all that is necessary is to hold a match to the stream and it will ignite. It is claimed that gas in unlimited quantities lies under this neighborhood and we know that during a boring at Mr. P. R. McEachern's, Eldon Station, last summer the pressure of gas became so strong as to blow the heavy drilling tools out of the well and seriously injured one individual. ARGYLE.

BUSINESS NOTES, Mr. Cunningham has given up business here and Mr. J. C. Mc-Cully has rented the stand which Mr.Cunningham has lately occupied. Mr. McCully is not a blacksmith himself, but he has engaged a blacksmith to take charge of the shop and Mr. McCully intends to go into the egg trade in the spring. The gentle-man who has charge of the shop here comes highly recommended as a general blacksmith and also as a first class horse-shoer, having been for the past year in the em-ployment of the stret car co. in Toronto, where he got a recommendation as a horse-shoer, and he also has a silver medal for horse-shoeing in Yorkshire, England.

[Correspondence of The Post.]

OBITUARY.—It is with sorrow and sympathy that we chronicle the death of Mrs. Andrew Hannah, daughter of Mr. Wm. Murphy. Deceased was only married on Christmas day, and abortly after moved with her now bereaved husband to their new home in Lotus. On Monday, not feeling very well, she came to consult the family physician, C. H. Brerreton of Bethany, and from there drove to her father's at Franklin, where she continued to grow worse until Thursday evening, when she passed away. Her remains were followed to their last resting place, St. John's cemetery, on Saturday by a large number of sorrowing friends and neighbors. The bereaved husband and family have the heartfelt sympathy of the community.

OLD TIME CHARIVARI.—The other evening our usually quiet neighborhood was turned into one of wildest excitement. It seemed as if war was declared and as if the enemy had suddenly come upon us and we were to be taken in real earnest. The first sounds that reached our ears was a chime of bells, accompanied by startling reports of cannon (or something smaller probably), cheers, hurrahs, followed by tremendous shocks as of an explosion. Nobody could guess what such a tumult meant excepting those who reside in the neighborhood, and we regret to say the boys were justified in the plan they took. The young men gathered around a house in which dwelt a young man and woman whose intimacy conveyed the idea that they were married, but were not. The night was one not to be forgotten very soon. The racket was heard for miles around and lasted for several hours, "for the cow-bell crash broke the sweet repose of the weary farmer's sleep." seemed as if war was declared and as if

OBITUARY.—We regret to chronicle the death of Mr. Benjamin Johnston of a long and painful illness, which he bore with Christian fortitude, at the early age of 31 years. Mr. Johnston leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss. The bereaved widow has the heartfelt sympathy of the whole neighborhood. The funeral was largely attended.

AN OLD SETTLER GONE.—It is our melancholy duty to have to record the death of another of Manvers' closest settlers in the person of Mr. Geo. McLane, whose demise took place on the 2nd inst. at the ripe old age of ninety years. Mr. McLane was a native of the county of Cavan, Ireland, and was born in the townland of Bally Machugh, where he lived and taught school until the year 1845, when he emigrated to this country. Arriving at Mono Mills he taught school there for some time; he then removed to Manvers and taught the Janetville school for some years and then farmed a few acres of land until his death. Mr. McLane joined the Masonic craft at an early age, being made a Mason sometime about the year 1820, consequently he considered himself the oldest Mason living in the Dominion. He also belonged to the Orange fraternity, of which he was a consistent member. He leaves a wife and daughter to mourn his loss. The funeral was largely attended.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

THE PROVINCIAL TREASURER'S PINANCIAL

Hon. A. M. Ross, provincial tree delivered his annual financial stat last Thursday to a crowded house. Mr. Ross stated that the receipts of the province for the year just closed were $3,587,-421. They were made up of: Subsidy and specific grant, $1,196,872; interest on capital held and on investments, $33,443; Crowa lands, $1,436,454; Algoma taxes, $2,282; law stamps, $81,044; licenses, $238,-886; education department, $3,317,374; pub. lic institutions, $102,897; casual revenue, $34,714; other sources, $33,273: "other sources," including Asylum land sales and new parliament building fund, $63,219.

From Grown lands the amount estimat ed was $1,399,600, and the receipts $1,436, 454, an excess of $36,854, the largest since confederation. In theitem of law stamps the estimate, $66,000, was exceeded by $15,044, and for licenses the amount estimated was $195,000, and the amount received was 2233,886, an increase of $38,886. These are the principal items in which increases were noted, but many of the treasurer's estimates fell short. The total ordinary receipts estimated were $3,403,233, and the amount received was $3,489,044, an excess

The expenditure estimated for the civil government last year was $198,745, and this was exceeded by $1,940. The estimate for legislation, $122,050, was exceeded by $4,980, owing chiefly to an increase in stationery, printing and binding. The adminstration of justice, which was estimatminstration of justice, which was estimated at $376,476, over ran $7,575. The vast amount expended was owing to litigation with the Dominion government on the Indian Title case. It cost the government $112,694 to fight this case and he thought the Dominion government should reimburse the government for this.

The total expenditure estimated was $3,-125,804, and the actual expenditure was $3,007,037, thus the expenditure less than voted was $118,767.

The total ordinary receipts were $3,489.

THE JESUITS BILL. In the house of commons on Wednesday

Mr. BARRON enquired of the govern-

1, Has the bill, 51-53 Victoria, cap. 13, intituled: "An act respecting the settlement of the Jesuite' estate." yet been before the government for their consideration? 2. Have they reported thereon to his excel 2. Have they reported thereon to allowing lency the governor-general?

3. If so, did they report in favor of allowing or disallowing the bill?

4. Has the government communicated the purport of the report to the government of Quebec? If so, when?

5. When does the time, in ordinary course, expire up to which disallowance of the bill might take place?

Sir John Thompson-In answer to th first branch of the question, I have to say that the act referred to has been before the government for their consideration. The answer to the second is that the minister of justice reported on that act to his excellency the governor-general on the 16th of January last. The third answer is the minister of justice reported that the act in question, together with 112 other acts passed at the same session of the Quebec legislature, should be left to its operation. The report was approved on January 19th, 1889, and the result was at once communicated to the government of Quebec. The acts of the legislature of Quebec for 1888 were received by the secretary of state on the 8 h of August last. of justice reported on that act to his excel-

the 8 h of August last. EVADING MR. BARRON'S QUESTION. Mr. Barron's last question on the Jesuit's estate act was "When does the time in ordinary course expire up to which disallowance of the bill might take place." Instead of replying to this question so the general public might understand the the general public might understand the answer, Sir John Thompson stated that "The acts of the province of Quebec were received on the 8th of August last." His object clearly was to avoid informing the public that the time did not expire until the 8th of August, 1889 There are a few who are not a are that a year has to elapse after the receipt by the Dominion government of provincial bills during which time disallowance may be pronounced, yet those few Sir John Thompson evidently feared to enlighten as to the facts.
