carried l'igott's telegram to him.

Mr. Shannon, who was about to take his departure, for Ireland, wrote to Pigott denying that he had promised him money.

The police induced Mr. Soames not to send Mr. Shannon's letter, and a clerk in Mr. Soames' effice, in order to de'ain Pigott in Madrid, wrote him a letter saying that Mr. Shannon was in Ireland, and that when he returned to London, the money he saked returned to London, the money he saked for would be sent to him by telegraph.

Besides Pigott's cheque book, a letter addressed to Mr. I. bouchers and a license to carry arms in Ireland were found on his to carry arms in Ireland were found on his body.

The letter addressed to Mr. Labouchere was closed and ready for mailing. In it Pigott says that the first batch of letters sold by him to the Times were genuine, but that in the second batch there were several forged letters, including two ascribed to Mr. Partiell, and one each to Mr. Davitt, Mr. O'Kelly and Mr. Egan. Pigott further says: -I am deeply sorry for all those I have injured, and am ready to place at their disposal all means in my power to remedy all that I have said that was false. Everything written under oath was true."

The license to carry a revolver was dated at Dublin. A cheque book of the Uleter bank was also found on the body. Pigott tried to negotiate a cheque at the Madrid bank, but in the absence of proof of bis identity the bank refused to cash it. A note book full of interesting notes was also found.

COMMUNICATIONS,

Electing Below the Best.

[To the Editor of Ten Post.]

SIR,—The Warder-man is always bragging about never hitting below the best; but he was very mean in attacking John A. Barren, M.P., for sending his children to the "Jesuit convent" in Lindeny, knowing this to be false, and mying never a word about Adam Hudspoth, M.P., who had the hardiheed, as the Warder-man would say, to "plery in his sheame" right in Same's face, New, if Hz. Burren was vrong what is to be said or done about Mr. Hudspoth! He sende several children to the convent for various purposes, though I will say to the credit that no man denounces Romanism and Popery in stronger words (except Sam, perhaps) than he does, that is in S. Emily or Maripoon, not in N. Emily or Ops. The Warder-man will now take Mr. Hudspoth in hand, and if need be have him kicked out of the Orange lodge, to use the term applied to Mr. Barron. He should in fact he kicked out three or four times.

ANTI-HUMBUG.

SIR.—Will you allow me a small space in your valuable paper to contradict a statement made in the Warder of the 22nd regarding Mr. John A. Barron, M.P. The editor of the Warder, er, as he chooses to term himself, "the champion of Protestantism," says that Mr. Barron was going to be turned out of the Course order. Were this Protestantism," says that Mr. Barron was going to be turned out of the Orange order. Now, this is false from beginning to end, which I know to be se, as I have the honor to be a member of the same lodge as Mr. Barron. There never was any difficulty whatever with Mr. Barron's membership, and there never was any charge preferred against him by any member of the lodge, nor have we any notion of 'kicking him out," as the Warder states, for we have always found Mr. Barron ready and willing to assist in all good works.

But nechang Mr. Hughas is thinking of twelve.

out." as the Warder states, for we have aways found Mr. Barron ready and willing to assist in all good works.

But perhaps Mr. Hughes is thinking of trying it himself, for to hear him talk you would think he represented the whole Orange society. His conduct in this matter, knowing as he does the falsity of the statement, is, I think, very unbecoming an Orangeman, and especially so in a master of an Orange lodge, it is not becoming in him to be continually slandering a brother Orangeman knowing his obligation as he does and the charge he gives every member that joins his lodge.

He was in a village not twenty miles from Lindsay about a year ago and said he would see his brother Orangemen in h—l before he would go to Port Hope. These and a great many other things I hear of Mr. Hughes leads me to believe it is political influence he is after, as it is not the language nor actions of one who has solely the love of the order at heart, which it is the duty of every true Orangeman to have. Thanking you for this space in your paper and heping the editor of the Warder will see the error of the course he is pursuing, which is neither more nor less than that of a bully.—Yours respectfully,

An Orangeman.

[The unfairness of the Warder in attacking

Mr. Barron and letting Mr. Hudspeth go scott free will occur to most Orangemen. We direct the attention of the writer of the above as a leading Orangeman to the remarkable extract from the Warder last week, printed in another column, placing Protestantism on the same level with Mohammedism and Buddhism and paganism. How does this irreligious or infidel doctrine harmonize with the ritual of the Orange order ?-ED. POST.]

Lindsay Board of Education. A regular meeting of the school board was seld on Tuesday evening last in the council chamber. The members present were Messrs. Dobson, O'Leary, Reeves, Macmurchy, Walters, Ferguson, R. Kennedy, J. Kennedy, McNeillie. Stewart and Smyth. Mr. Hudspeth being in awa Mr. Smyth was voted to the chair. The minutes of last meetings were read by the secre. tary and approved by the board. Mr. Brodrick,

-The Port Hope Guide says: "From advices through a private source we learn that Sheriff Waddell, an old resident of Port Hope and latterly of Cobourg, died at Denver, Colorado, on the 28th February. The sheriff was well known and highly respected throughout these united countles."

-Death has called away this week one of the early pioneers, Dennis Magnire, who came to this country in 1847 from the county Fermanagh, Ireland, and engaged in farming. He was of a genial disposition and was universally respected. His funeral took place on Wednesday to the R. C. cemetery, and was largely attended.

The Port Hope Times says: "Many of our old citisens will learn with regret of the death of Mr. George Smart, notice of which will be found in another column. Deep sympathy is feit for the family, and particularly for deceased's aged mother, who resides here, and also for his daughter, who is likewise a resident of Port Hope." The deceased was a well-known resident of Lindsay. He was at one time in business here and for some years was chief constable.

—Another old resident of Ope has been carried away by death. Mrs. William Best, relict of the late Alex. Best of the 7th con. of Ope, died on Saturday lest in her 6th year. Mrs. Best came to this county over thirty-five year ago. For the last ten years she had been quite feeble. Deceased was highly respected for her many good qualities. Three daughters and one son (Wm.
