LINDSAY, FRIDAY, DEC. 13, 1890. CIRCULATION 4,500. EQUAL RIGHTS IN STANSTEAD.

It is passing strange that the "Equal Rights" people who were so active and energetic in Lambton against the reform candidate...

EAST DURHAM TORIES IN COUNCIL. The Tories of East Durham met in convention at Millbrook Monday afternoon for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the local legislature in place of Mr. Craig of San Francisco...

EDITORIAL NOTES. Sir John Macdonald has completely recovered from his late indisposition, and is attending to public business.

Mr. Meredith evidently intends to remain opposition leader, as he is to deliver an address Monday evening in London on provincial affairs.

Mr. Parnell was to have addressed a public meeting at Nottingham, Tuesday, but was prevented by indisposition. The story of his "mysterious disappearance" started by a London Tory paper had no foundation.

Jefferson Davis, ex-president of the Southern confederacy, died at New Orleans last Friday. He remained "unreconstructed" to the last; a defender of the "lost cause," and of the right of a state to secede.

Parsons, Now in the State... A few of these cheap Plushes at Mr. a yard...

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness.
