Ayer's Medicine.

Dress the Hair

With Ayer's Hair Vigor. Its cleanliness, beneficial effects on the scalp, and lasting perfune commend it for universal toilet use. It keeps the hair soft and silken, preserves its color, prevents it from falling, and, if the hair has become weak or thin, promotes a new growth.

"To restore the original color of my hair, which had turned prematurely gray, I used Aver's Hair Vigor with entire success. I cheerfully testify to the

of this preparation." Mrs. P. H. David-son, Alexandria, Ist. or, Alexandria, 1st.

"I was afflicted some three years with scalp disease. My hair was falling out and what remained turned gray. I was induced to try Ayer's Hair Vigor, and in a few weeks the disease in my scalp disappeared and my hair resumed its original color." (Rev.) S. S. Sims, Pastor U. B. Church, St. Bornice, Ind.

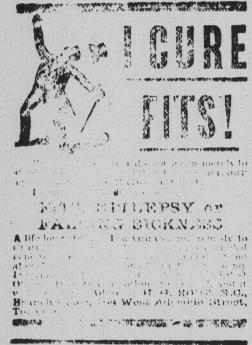

Pastor U. B. Church, St. Dernice, Ind.

"A few years ago I suffered the entire loss of my hair from the effects of tetter. I hoped that after a time nature would repair the loss, but I waited in vain. Many remedies were suggested, none, wever, with such proof of merit as Ayer's Hair Vigor, and I began to use it. The result was all I could have desired. A growth of hair soon came out all over my head, and grow to be as soft and heavy as I over had, and of a natural color, and firmly set."—J. H. Pratt, Spotford, Texas.

-A story is going the rounds in Kingitou, says a correspondent of the Montreal Gazette, which if true is decidedly startling. It is in effect as follows:-A party ling. It is in effect as follows:—A party was held at a private residence on Monday night to which were invited about forty people. Among them were a young man and a young lady, both highly connected, but not previously acquainted. They were introduced to each other and were together but a very short time before the young man became passionately infatuated with the young lady, and, strange as it may seem, the young lady on her part, expressed intense admiration for the young man. The outcome of it was that one hour after the introduction, the young man proposed marriage and was accepted, and a youth outcome of it was that one hour after the introduction, the young man proposed marriage and was accepted, and a youth despatched for a clergyman came back with the intelligence that none was to be found. Nothing daunted, however, the love-sick couple decided to get married at all cost, and a student of Queen's university, who happened to be present, having younteered his services, they were accepted and the marriage ceremony performed, the couple repairing to the nearest hotel after the wedding. Next morning they left on their wedding. Next morning they left on their wedding tour. The affair is trying to be hushed up and particulars are meager, but the correspondent has every reason to believe that the foregoing is true.

The woman in the affair is Mrs. Jes-Grills of the 3rd con. of Sydney, and the mother of a family of three bright-eyed, flowen haired little children. The most remarkable part of the scandal is that the man who has robbed the husband of the affections of his wife is a coal black negro named James Halliday, employed by Mr. Grill. It seems simost incredible, but recent developments only lend "color" to the scandal, which is now common street gossip. Mrs. Grills and the negro have been on intimate terms for months past, and numerous remarks were passed by the neighbors of Mrs. Grills' apparent attachment to the negro farm hand. On several occasions of late the couple have been found together under suspicious circumstances. When these rumors finally reached the caus of the husband a week ago last Friday he accused Haiday of unoue intimacy with his wife. The negro indignant. macy with his wife. The negro indignantly repudiated the charge, when his employer ordered him off the farm. The wife also became indignant, at d said if the hired man left she would so the next morning. She came to Belleville and secured longings with a family named Phillips on Coleman st. She said she had just come from the states, and gave a fictitious name. Wednesday night the negro purchased a ticker at the G.T.R. depot for her to Albany, N.Y., and he followed at noon Thursday. The husband is distracted with prief at the folly of his wife. Halliday is a handsome man for a negro, He has a dark, curly mon-tache and flashing black eyes. He is of medium size, single and not more than twenty six years old.

The demand, which is now about confined to the limit of local needs, was consequently more easily satisfied and the market generally Chicago for Canadian pork packers, and it | not so active as last week. The receipts to day tained for choice cattle, and, as was stated of previous markets this month, shipping prices were given for a few choice lots. The majority of the cattle offering, however, were inferior of the cattle offering, however, were inferior cattle, though probably not below the average run for this time of year. The state of the market here was not improved by reports of the Montreal market, where it is said there is no demand for western cattle. A local dealer who returned from Montreal this morning, where he has taken two loads of cattle, reports that he lost $70 on them. The demand for sheep and lambs was not good. Prices were lower than lost week. There was a fairly active demand last week. There was a fairly active demand for hogs of all kinds, but owing to the large re-ceipts of dressed hogs in the city at present the market was not as strong as it has been for

MR. MOWAT ON MR. ROSS.

The Premier's Elequent Tribute to the Minister of Education. [From Hon. Mr. Mowat's address at Wood

Mr. Ross, our elequent and popular minister of education, has been much attacked of late by the opposition journals. He has been singled out from amongst my colleagues for special virulence, and is even charged in opposition journals with habitual mendacity as well as incapacity. These false charges have been answered by the reform journals, and Mr. Ross has from time to time conclusively vindicated his policy and truthfulness in ablespeeches which have been published and read throughout the province. Mr. Ross has been before the public most of his life as a public school teacher, an inspector of pub' licachools, an inspector of model schools and a member of parliament. He has for many years been at the same time an appreciated Sabbath school teacher and an honored elder of the Presbyterian church, and he has been repeatedly chosen as a re-presentative elder of the Presbyterian and he has been repeatedly chosen as a representative elder of the Presbyterian church in the general assembly for the Dominion. Many in Oxford know him personally. Some of you have known him for many years. You know that in private life he has been always known as an upright and consistent man, and he has filled with ability and general acceptance every position to which he has been called.
It was by reason of his experience and success as an educationiet, his general ability and his personal character that he was selected for the office of minister of education; and it is only since then that anything has ever been ead to depreciate his abilities or question his uprightness; and now only for political purposes by unscrupulous political or ponents. I claim that he has had marked success since he became minister, in respect of the legal enactments and departmental regulations which from time to time he-has recommended, the instructions which he has from time to time lesued, and the general administration of the affairs of his department. The secret of the outrageous attacks against him is to be found in the conviction.

of his assailants, that unless public opinion can be violently misled in regard to him, his management of his department, his personal character and his popular qualities will be a tower of strength to the government which they are madly anxious to break down. In this bad policy I venture to predict that they will not be successful.

How to Got Rid of a Cold. It may not be as widely known as it deserves to be (writes a correspondent of the British Medical Journal) that twenty grains of sailcylic acid, given in liq. smmon. acet. three or four times a day will so far control a common cold that the aching of the brow, eyelids, etc., and during movements of the eye, will cease in a few hours, while the accessing and running from the none will also abate and will disappear in a few days, and more fortunate still the cold will pass off and not finish up, as it is customers, with a cough.

HERE AND THERE. The sewing girls is never what she seems, Nearly all colds are slight, at first; but their tendency is to so lower the system that the sufferer becomes a ready victim to any prevalent disease. The use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, in the beginning of a cold, would guard against this danger.—80-1.
