ENTERTAINMENT.—A dramatic entertainment under the auspices of the temperance society of this place was given Christmas night under pleasing circumstances. Notwithstanding the bad state of the roads a more pleasing and successful entertainment has never been given in this vicinity. The choir could not be surpassed in the way in which they rendered their various selections of music. The programme consisted of readings, recitations and dialogues, and was in every way admirably rendered.

SCHOOL RE-OPENED.—The school opened here Monday last with a good attendance. We are much pleased to have our past teacher, Mr. Annis, engaged another term, as he is a successful and thorough teacher.

PETERBORO

DEATH FROM EXPOSURE.—Havelock, a station on the C. P. R east of this town, has a sensation. On the 21st of December, a Mrs. Hollebrook, wife of a local justice of the peace in Belmont township, disappeared from her home and no trace of her could be found till last Thursday afternoon when her body was found in a swamp about two miles from Havelock. The body, which showed no marks of violence, was fully and meanly clad. Rumours of foul play on the part of the husband having become current, Dr. H. H. Peterson was requested to examine the body, which on Friday investigated the circumstances attending the death of Mrs. Hollebrook. The dead woman was about 60 years of age, and the husband, who seems to have few friends, is in the neighborhood of 70 years of age. The evidence showed that the woman wandered away from home for some unknown reason and died from exposure. The jury returned the following verdict:

"That the said Mrs. Hollebrook came to her death in the township of Belmont, on or about the 21 days of December, 1889, from exposure to cold and want of the common necessaries of life, and by no violent ways of means whatever to the knowledge of the said jurors, and her husband, James Hollebrook, is guilty of extreme negligence in not providing her with sufficient clothing and nourishment."

PRESENTATION.—A representation of the congregation of St. Peter's cathedral waited on last evening upon Rev. Father Corey, who was about leaving for Hamilton, and presented him with a well filled purse. Mr. C. J. Leonard made the presentation with a few appropriate remarks, and Father Corey made a feeling reply.

OBITUARY.—The funeral of Dr. J. B. Hunter took place Monday from the residence of his father-in-law, Mr. Jas. Stratton, the body having arrived on Saturday from Ogden, Utah. The funeral was conducted by the Masons, of which order the deceased was a member. There were a large number of floral tributes, including one of beautiful design from the Ancient Order of United Workmen. At the cemetery Rev. Messrs. Sherry and Parker read the church services, and Rt. W. Bro. Sherrity, W. Bro. Brumbrett and W. Bro. E. Rank. On returning to the lodge-room a resolution, expressing sympathy with the bereaved family and relatives, was moved by Rt. W. Bro. E. H. D. Hall, seconded by Bro. Wm. Mousley, and carried.

GAMEBRIDGE.

A SAD OCCURRENCE.—What has proved to be a fatal occurrence took place on Monday night to Neil McEachern of the 8th con., Thorah. The unfortunate man was in Beaverton until late in the evening, where he drank considerable but was not unable to help himself. He started for home about eleven o'clock and it seems went to Gamebridge, accompanied by one McDougall. While the latter tied the horse in the shed, McEachern started for the back door of the tavern to rouse the landlord. That appears the last that was seen of him alive. Late on new year's morning his hat was found floating on the Talbot river, while his horse was still tied in the hotel shed, and his little dog sorrowfully running up and down the stream. Little doubt exists but that the unfortunate man, reaching the door of the house, which is immediately above the steep bank of the stream and unprotected, slipped down and met his death in the swiftly running river, but the real facts will in all probability ever remain a secret. McDougall states that he heard McEachern call and roused the landlord to discover the cause, but on looking around nothing could be seen and that indifferent individual went to bed. When the neighbors were informed on New Year's morning they secured the services of Mr. Barber, the boat-builder, who took grappling irons and recovered the body this morning. The coroner, Dr. Grant, held an inquest. [Express.

PRESENTATION.—On the occasion of his departure from this section, where he has for many years been a most successful teacher, Mr. Robt. Grandy was waited upon and presented with the following address, accompanied with the handsome articles named for himself and Mrs. Grandy:—

To Mr. Robert Grandy, teacher No 5, Manvers:

DEAR TEACHER,—We are sorry to learn that this year closes your term at our school, where you have most efficiently taught for six years. During this large period you have endeared yourself to all your pupils, and have won their affection and regard by your uniform kindness and by your zeal in imparting knowledge and in encouraging us to persevere in our studies. You have as well won the regard and esteem of the community and the confidence of our parents in your ability as a teacher and your conduct as a citizen. Your contemplated departure is greatly regretted by all, and in wishing you the compliments of the season we also wish you and Mrs. Grandy all success and happiness in your new home. On behalf of the pupils we desire to present to you this dressing case and to Mrs. Grandy the toilet case as slight tokens of our affection and regard.—Signed on behalf of the pupils.

ANNIE B. WILSON,
RUSIE V. MCRAE,
ADA E. HENLEY,
EMILY A. ATKINSON.

Mr. Grandy freely and heartily replied expressing his gratitude for the valuable dressing case, saying that few teachers left with such a costly present as this. Then thanking them on behalf of Mrs. Grandy he bade them good-bye and left for his new home. Mr. and Mrs. Grandy's departure is universally regretted and they take with them the good wishes of all.

TEMPERANCE SOCIETY.—With the last regular meeting of the Elm Grove temperance society, held Dec 27th, the following officers were duly elected for the ensuing quarter: President, Bro. E. R. Rogers, jr., secretary, Bro. Alex. Horn; Chap., Bro. W. Cruess; treasurer, Sister L. Horn; financier, Sister K. Batte; marshal, Bro. N. Weldon; guard, Bro. G. Cruess. The committee on "good of the order" have arrangements in hand for an open meeting, which will no doubt be held in the course of two or three weeks. A prominent feature of the program will be a debate with their friends, the members of the grange..... We are pleased to report temperance work progressing. New members are weekly being initiated into the temperance society, where good and instructive meetings are held. Pledge cards have also been introduced into the Sunday school. The pledge is against tobacco and profanity as well as intoxicating liquor. We will soon be ready for an act for total prohibition. We have been called temperance fanatics, but temperance has never yet been known to bring a man to poverty or clothe him in rags. It is nearly fifteen years since this temperance society was organized. We think it is the oldest in Victoria county.

MARIPOSA CHEESE FACTORY.—The number of pounds of milk delivered at the Mariposa cheese factory this season were 581,381, which made 57,320 lbs. of cheese, being a trifle more than ten pounds of milk required for one pound of cheese. The total amount of money realized from the sales was $6,473 20. The business has proved very satisfactory to the patrons this year, and at the meeting which was held about the first of the month a number of them testified that the cheese factory had returned larger profits than any other business on the farm. The officers for the year 1890 are: Richard Hill, president; David Reesor, secretary-treasurer; John S. Crouse, salesman; William Lupp, cheese maker; Allen Coady and Alex. McKay, auditors. A number of improvements will be made this winter, and with such a staff of experienced and capable officers we bespeak prosperity for the cheese factory for 1890.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—Mr. Wm. McCracken, general merchant of Sonya, is retiring from business. He has sold out to Mr. John Varcoe, jr. Mr. McCracken has done a large and profitable trade here for many years, and any one who will wish his successor in the business equal success, will wish him well. Mr. Varcoe is a man who is likely to prove very acceptable to the public, and will doubtless do a large trade.

LECTURE.—On Christmas night a lecture was given in the Presbyterian church, Sonya, by Mr. Malcheff, of the province of Macedonia in Turkey. Mr. Malcheff is by racial extraction a Bulgarian, which is one of the three races inhabiting Macedonia. The lecturer's description of the products, industries and manners and customs of the people, the tyrannical rule of the Turks, and the deplorable religious state was very interesting. There was a good audience and collection. Mr. Malcheff is taking this means of raising funds to educate himself for the ministry.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.—At the anniversary tea-meeting of the Methodist Sabbath school of the village of Bobcaygeon, on New Year's night, Mr. Samuel McClelland, the superintendent, was presented with a very beautiful and valuable gold-headed cane and an address, expressive of the value set upon his labors and the kindly feelings entertained towards him by the officers and teachers of the school. Miss Ward read the address and Master Wright presented the cane. It was evident that Mr. McClelland had not had the smallest hint as to what was coming, and though he said but few words in reponse, he said much in manner and evident emotion. The following is the address:—To Mr. Samuel McClelland:—DEAR BROTHER,—We, your associates in the Sunday school work of this church, being aware of your long-continued fidelity to your post of superintendent, take this opportunity the anniversary festival of the school—to express to you in written words, and by the presentation of this cane, our appreciation of your services. Your occupancy of the chief office of the school extends over a period of thirty years. It would not be easy to estimate the amount of time, or the amount of labor, or of anxious thought, you have bestowed upon this department of the church's industry. But your reward will come from Him who said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto me." Meanwhile we trust it will be grateful to your feelings to be assured in this was of our sense of obligation to you for the genial spirit in which you have led the school, and our brotherly love as co-workers in the vineyard of the Lord; and what we say for ourselves as teachers and officers we think we may say also for every scholar in the school. It is our wish that you should continue on in the relation you now sustain, as evidenced by your reelection for another year, and that when in the future—and may it be far distant—duty shall compel you to leave to other hands this work of faith and love, you should carry something in your "hand," as well as in your heart, to remind you of the days of your superintendency and of the affection of those who worked with you in this school of Christ. Signed on behalf of Sabbath school committee.

DESECRATION.—On Sabbath last the writer was surprised and grieved to see a sight in St. Paul's burying ground, Lifford, which stands in close proximity to barbertem. A large drove of cattle, besides some horses, were pasturing among and over the graves and in short destroying sacred property. Would those delinquent ones whose duty it is to attend to such property note this and act accordingly.

PERSONAL.—Miss Addie Staples of Bethany is attending the Lindsay collegiate institute.....Miss Minnie Magill, who taught last year at Burnt river, is re-engaged there for 1890. She spent her holidays here under the parental roof..... We received a cordial shake of the hand from Mr. H. Strike, Frank Lee and John Martin the other day. The young men are spending their holidays here, and are welcomed back by all.

FOUND DEAD.—Mrs. Patrick Geehan was found drowned in Storey Marsh on Tuesday afternoon last. Her basket and its usual contents, a black bottle partially filled, were found on the bridge as if set there while the owner sat down on a log near the creek to rest herself. How the unfortunate woman lost her life is not known, but the corroner did not deem it necessary to hold an inquest. The remains were sent to Pickering for the officials of that township to look after.—[Whitby Chronicle.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT.—Edward G. Morgan, aged 21 years, a resident of Oshawa, was drowned in the bay at Belleville on Saturday afternoon while skating with a companion. He was a student at the business college, and had just completed the course. His body was recovered and sent to Oshawa. The funeral took place Monday afternoon, and was largely attended. The stores closed as a mark of respect. He was the eldest son of Mr. E. B. Morgan, cattle dealer.

GREAT BARGAINS

—AT THE—

LINDSAY AUCTION MART AND VARIETY HALL.

I have just received a consignment of Wickerware Handiwork, comprising Baskets of various sizes and Card Tables. These are both novel and serviceable articles.

For real servicability nothing can approach a nice Sideboard, Bureau or Lounge, and for that matter we may as well add a Parlor Suite, as the prices of these will be found as low as the sum asked for practically useless though gaudy jimcracks. Call and inspect before you spend your money.

A THOMAS ORGAN almost new to be sold cheap; also a Countess Coal Stove, only used two seasons; $14 will take it. A new Raymond Sewing Machine at a bargain.
