TO TALK ABOUT.

Well. Let us talk about for a few Minutes.

The subject is not al burning one usually at this time of year: it is a cold or wet one, but that is not as thrown, but that is not as it should be.

Dry and warm is what Walters last summer, sails for Europ we propose to make it for you, and another fact we can add to it is, we will an object to make it for bottler and there are good hopes of her early recovery.

On add to it is, we will another fact we are not there are good hopes of her early recovery.

On spilebury of To To will be at the Pension of the contract of the proposition of make it a profitable and cheap transaction in your case if you will let us.
We have too many BOOTS and SIIOES of all kinds.
We wish to turn them into Cash. And for that reason the advantage is all in the advantage is all in the many friends of Mr John Arnold, just north of the town, will be pleased to learn instance in the mount of the two, will be pleased to learn instance in the mount of the now able to be about after a very severe illness of some three weeks.

The gippe has laid its hands on the officials at the current nouse. Shortiff Melenhan and Mr. Win Orace being the sufferers. They have receivered and are on duty again.

Mr J. R. Menellile, the popular and officient assistant county of learning his duties at the January session of the county council. He is now on the way to recovery. Vol. Deacon acted as sessional clerk.

Mr. John Hailey, the worthy reason of few. go, they have always been down trodden and oppress—cd servants to the human race; but now more than ever. That being the case, we regret to have to record the death of Mr. bring along your money and the BOOTS, SHOES, had been in wood health up to the moment of his death. His family and friends were greatly SITPPERS RUBBERS, shocked by the sad event. Mr Bestly has for many years been a merchant of Omemes and well-known in this county. The Empire of Monday says: "Mr. Heatry was one of the most widely respected clusters of Toronto. In his roth rest, and one of the most widely respected clusters of Toronto. In his roth rest, he was solve and exact in his business habits, perhaps, as many most in the usings of life. He was wonderfully well pre-

Os Wedseeley morning, February 5th, Mr. A. O'Loughlin, of Dundas & Flavelle Bros., Lindsey, was married to Miss Katie Lynch, daughter of the late P. P. Lynch, eq., of Bulleville. The coremony was performed in St. Michael's church, Belleville, by the Right Rev. Mar. Farreilly, and the bride and groom were activated by Mr. T. O'Loughtin and Miss Helenn-Lynch. After the wedding breakfast the happy oduple set out for Toronto, that recort of so many young searchers after a more bilestul life. We extend our warmost greating to the newly-married couple. They have many friends in Lindsey who will join us in hoping that their married life may prove one long honeymoon.

Weather permitting the much talked of match—Lindsay against the vice-regal partiametch—Lindsay against the vice-regal partiamentary team—will come off to night at the rink, play beginning at 8.00. The Lindsay seven will be composed of the following: J. L. Duneford, captain; J. A. Berron, M. P., Geo, Kompt, G. E. Moren, W. J. Ritchie, Arthur Knewlags, E. S. Martin, spare man, George Vance. The vice regal parliamentary team will be a selected seven from among the members of that club: Hon. Senator Power, Mr. J. A. Barron, M. P., Mr. H. A. Ward, M. P., Mr. S. A. Fisher, M. P., Mr. Creighton, (senate), and Mr. St.
D. LoMoine, (senate). Captain MacMahon, A. D. C., Hon. Arthur Stanley, (son of the governor-general). Mr. Hawkes and Mr. Wingfield of the Grenadier guards. An interesting and exciting match may be expected. To an of-looker, at first sight, the game appears to resemble the well-known game of shinney, but to those playing the game and understanding it, the distinction between it and shinney is soon noticeable. As a boy we remember "shinney on your own side" was the virtue of that game, but in hockey the side from which play is made appears to be of no importance; while such rules as off-side, etc., are in-exorable. Lafting or shoving the puck is substituted for hitting, and to raise the stick shove the kace is supposed to be disallowed. Flot-ball playerst ake to the game kindly for it appears to be governed by much the same rules as hockey. Our towns-people should be present to enjoy the treat, to encourage the home team and to appland good play from wherever is comes.

The Winnipeg rink, comprising J. D. Flavelle, W. McLennan, E. Bradburn and Wm. Simpson, left last evening (Thursday). Mr. T. C. Matchett, C. P. R. sgent, procured them the lowest rates and made every arrangement possible for their comfort. At Peterboro they picked up a spare man in the person of Mr. William Dundas.

Peterboro and Lindsay were booked to play four rinks each Wednesday to decide the ownership of the Peterboro and Lindsay challenge cup, but a message was received by Secretary McLennan in the morning stating that the lee was too soft for the match. The Lindsay ice was somewhat "tough," but matches had been played when it was in poorer condition—hence room was left for the uncharitable hazard made by some of the younger members that the news of Skip Flavelle's intending departure for Winnipeg had something to do with the matter, Lindsay got together two rinks for the curling bouspiel arranged by the Uxbridge club to celebrate the opening of their fine new rink. Invitations were sent to Peterboro, Lindsay, Markham, Scarboro, "touffville, Whitby, Port Perry, Port Hope and Cobourg, and about half of these promised to send rinks. The trophy for the winning rink was announced to be a handsome silver tankard, provided by the home club. The following players made up the Lindsay rinks:

No. 1.
T. Sadler,
J. A. Buckneil,
F. Knowlson,
J. McMillan, skip. During Wednesday afternoon a telephone mes-eage was received to the effect that in the first draw Wallace, pitted against Peterborn, was defeated by 13 to 28; McMillan drew Stoutiville, whom he poliched off to the tune of 23 to 10.
