fale of Thoroughbred Stock, We direct attention to the advt, elsewhere of the sale of Mr. Donald Jackson's thoroughbred stock at his farm near Woodville on Toesday, Peb. 25th. Mr. Jackson is known as a success-ful stock-raiser, and farmers will no doubt avail themselves of this excellent opportunity of se-curing first-class snimels.

Mr. Barron's combined parliamentary and government house bookey team, whose promised visit had aroused our Lindsay players to unheard of exertions in the way of practice, strived in town Friday morning last, being met at the station by Mr. A. F. D. Macgachen, president of the home club, and Mr. R. S. Martin, capitain. Mr. Hudspeth, M.P., accompanied the visitors, whom he entertained at luncheon after an hour's practice had been taken in the Lindsay fink, which the distinguished visitors procounced a credit to the town. The evening set in very blustery and stormy and fear were expressed that the sight-seers would be few in number, but at 8:30, when the match started, about 160 speciators were easerly awaiting the face off. The teams were as follows:—Ottawa: Goel, Mr. Rarros, M.P.; point, E. C. Grant; cover-point, P. D. Rose; forwards, Mr. Ward, M. P., Capt. MacMahos, Hon. A. Stanley and H. R. Hawkes, Lindsay:—Goel, M. Hudspeth; point, E. S. Martin, (capitain); cover-point, A. Knowleen; forwards, George M. Vance, G. R. Moran, W. J. Ritchie Mesers. Macquehen and Edwards were the umpires, and Mr. J. L. Dunsford, one of the club's strongest players, made an excellent referce, although suffering from an attack of "la grippe." When play began it was at once apparent that the Lindsay men were the better staters, and they played throughout with the greatest vim and dash, but the visitors were more experienced in the game and the result was more team work—this left the context very even between the two clubs. After about ten minutes play Rose took the first goal for Ottawa. Soon afterwards Martin from a good run equalized matters by sooring for Lindsay. Some even and exciting play followed, until during a raily in front of the Lindsay men, sawing the score two to two. In the score has the puck between the Ottawa flags, making the score two to two. In the scored has the Lindsay men seemed to tire a scored has the Lindsay men seemed to tire a scored soored the third goal for Ottawa. Soon afterwards Rose scored a fourth. Lindsay braced up and played harder than ever until, during a scrimmage near the Ottawa goal, the played a capital game for Lindsay. As the match the visitors were entertained to an excellent supper at the risk by the Lindsay out, and the visitors were entertained sident of the home club, and Mr. E. S. Martin, captain.
