On Sunday Mrs. James Baird was at church apparently in as good health as usual, but the following day she was seized with inflammation, and although everything was done for her that could be she expired on Tuesday. ONTARIO COUNTY. AMPUTATED HIS OWN TOE.—An old gentleman named W. Willoughby, Mount Albert, who is in his dotage, performed a cool piece of surgery upon his own foot recently. One of his toes had been troubing him a good deal, so he took a razor and deliberately cut it off at the first joint. He was not satisfied with its appearance and was about to take another elice off when he was disturbed by the lady he resides with, who immediately summoned a doctor, and putting him under chloroform amputated the toe at the second joint and the old gentleman appears to be doing the old gentleman appears to be doing very favorably.—[Uxbridge Times.

INFORMATION WANTED RESPECTING W.
A. TAYLOR.—A correspondent of the Winnipeg Free Press, Mr. W. H. Nevins, writes from Portage la Prairie, describing the unfortunate condition of one William Alfred Taylor, who is at Mr. Nevins' hopelessly insane and in a bad way generally. It appears that this W. A. Taylor was a former resident of this vicinity, belonging to the neighborhood of Minden, where a few years ago he acted as foreman for a lumber firm. He is possessed of considerable means, being worth about $70,000. It seems he has no relatives in the Northwest and very little is known of him in Manitoba. Perhaps some of our readers will be able to throw some light on the relations or connections of Mr. Taylor.—[Echo.

LAIDLAW BLOCK.—It is understood that Mr. J. E. Smith, the well-known hotel-keeper. of Cannington, has purchased the Laidlaw block, save the two stores owned by Malcolm and Dr. Gillespie. The price paid was $5,100. We understand it is Mr. Smith's intention to thoroughly renovate the hotel part of the block and fit it up in first-class style. It will then be one of the beat hotels in the county.

Donson's Woolen Mill.—The tender of Mrs. Adam Dobson, jr., for the woolen mills has been accepted by the creditors of the estate of A. Dobson & Son, and the place has been sold to her. The establishment will be managed by her husband, who is now putting things in shape to begin work. CANNINGTON.

NIGHT ROBBERS AT WORK.—Wednesday night of last week two men apparently well skilled in their vocation put up their horses in a stable on a boundary lot belonging to Mr. Thomas Telford, giving the animals their fill of oats and hay which they found in the loft. After examining a barn on an adjoining lot, belonging to Mr. J. Toomey, and finding nothing of any consequence, they visited Mr. Robert Donoghue's barn, on the Emily boundary, from which they took twelve bags of wheat which Mr. Donoghue had prepared for marketing. Again on Saturday night some parties—believed to be the same ones—visited the barn of Mrs. B. Sullivan, but some of the family hearing the wagon interrupted the family hearing the wagon interrupted the marauders, and the fellows made off without obtaining any booty.—[Examiner.

ORILLIA. A RARE PET.—On the farm of Mr. R. C. Hipwell, lot 10, con. 12, Medonte, in the head apring of what is known as the "Purbrock" creek, is to be seen a very rare pet, "Jimmie" by name. About four years ago a very diminuitye speckied, or brook trout, a very diminuitye speckied, a very diminuitye speckied, a very diminuitye speckied, a very diminuitye speckied, a very diminuit a very diminutive speckled, or brook trout, was placed in this spring by Mr. Hip well's young daughter. It has now grown to a good sized fish weighing about a pound. On being called by name it at once comes out from its hiding place and takes its food in winter, fresh beef, and in summer, worms, from the hand of little Miss Hipwell. "Jimmis" likes to have his back and sides rutbed by his protectress, but is apt to repulse the advances of strangers, as can be certified to by a gentleman of high musical talent in our town, from whose digits 'Jimmis' drew blood on his attempting to pet him.—[Times.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF THE GRIPPE.—A deep gloom was cast over our town last Sunday eve by the news of the sudden and unexpected death of Caroline M. Jackson, wife of Mr. Herman Davis. The deceased had been a sufferer from la grippe and on Saturday was attacked with a violent headache, for which she had taken two morphine pills. The dose was evidently too strong for her constitution and for twenty-four hours she slept under its influence, and on Sunday eve quietly passed away. The friends have the sympathy of the community in their sudden bereavement. The funeral on Tuesday was largely attended.

UBITUARY.—It is with the deepest feelings of regret that we chronicle the audden and unexpected death of Mrs. Elizabeth Robinson, beloved partner of Mr. George Robinson, who peacefully fell asleep on Saturday morning, Feb. lat, in the 46th year of her age. Deceased was a healthy and robust woman with a particularly cheerful disposition. She had been a member of the Methodist church for many years previous to her death. He place was seldom vacant in the class, prayer meeting or public worship; and on the second Sabbath before her death ahe gave her testimony in the class-meeting to a living, personal faith in Jesus Christ as her Saviour. She had been ailing for a short time, but recovered again, when influenza set in, producing lung disease, from which she succumbed in a few days. She leaves a husband and eight children (one of whom is in Manitobe) to mourn her departure. The funeral on the following Monday was a very large one. Rev. J. C. Bell of Bethany conducted the solemn obsequies. All that is mortal was laid to rest in Graham's burying-ground, near Bethany. The family have the sympathy of their friends and neighbors in their deep affliction.
