URSA. RATERTAINMENT.—On Wednesday evening last an entertainment was held in this school house. The meeting was well attended, although the day had been far from fine. Mr. Tindail kindly lent his organ, and with Miss Tindail as organist and the Goolerham choir several sacred pieces were sung and enjoped by the audience. Several duets were given by Miss Tindail on the mouth organ. Dialogues, recitations, studing and speeches followed in quick succession, until the question of what time those from a distance would reach home was asked, and the performance closed with the national anthem. GENEROUS CONTRIBUTIONS. - The committee of the new Methodist church has just taken up a thou-and dollar note, priscipal and interest $1,000. This granifying result, without borrowing on the part of the board, has been secured only by the most generous liberality upon the part of the members of the congregation. Up to the present of the in ca on the subscriptions and about $550 by public collections and entertainments. This is exclusive of what has been expended on the commodious sheds attached to the church. The church was only opened about fifteen months ago. The atove figures leave the stust coard in comparatively easy circumstances. The congression may well be congratulated upon the favorable showing indicated..... The worthy pastor, Rev. A. Martin, is also to be cordially congratulated, for these granfying results are largely due to his self denying energy and real and his personal popularity. Ries coss in these hard times is remarkable and shows there is money in the county yet, though it is mighty hard work to get it.—

MATRIMONIAL.—It appears that a regular matrimonial wave passed over this section recently. We learn that no less than three of our hopeful fell victims in one day to to the matrimonial storm. Mr. Andrew J. McKay of Maripose, after mature deliberation and consideration, came to the conclusion that he had remained long enough in a state of single hierardness. conclusion that he had remained long enough in a state of single biresedness, so he selected for his life partner Miss Maggie Jamisson, the amiable and eldest daugnter of our respected friend, Mr. Aiex. Jamisson of Fenelon. The happy event took place at the residence of the bride's father on Wednesday, 26th Feb., under most pleasing auspices. The indispoluble know was tied firm and aure by the soluble knot was tied firm and sure by the Rev. D. McDonaid of G. starm, in his usual ski ful manuer. The Rov. gentleman, we understand, is quite an expert at tring such knots as those. There was quite a number of the contracting parties friends present to witness the event. The presents to the bride were both costly and numerous. After partaking of a sumptuous repart prepared for the occasion, the happy couple left for Lorneville Junction in time for the six o'clock train for Toronto and Guelph, where they spent their honeymoon. Several showers of rice were thrown on the young couple as they boarded the train at the mation. We wish them many years of happiness, health, wealth, prosperity and all joy a married life can bring them...Nex. is Mr. John Nicolson, formerly of this vicinity, but lately of northern Dakota. Some time ago John returned home from Dakota and paid his old friends to this section a vicic and then started east to Peterboro county. It was predicted at the time of John's return that Jack came back to Canada for a wife, for he could not be content d in uncle Sam's domains without somebody to comfort and cheer him. Dogs Workying Cattle.—It often happens that dogs worry strep, but seldom do we hear of dogs a temption to worry a flock of cattle. One night recently a neighbor thought he heard does worring Major Bros. sheep, and gave the starm. When the men arrived on the erene they found three large dogs in Major's baruyard, and they had the cattle all herded up in one corner, attacking them viciously. This is the cheekiest performance doce have undertaken in this vicinity, and the miserable curs should all be shot or tied up. -Picker-SAD BROWNING ACCIDENT AT USHAWA.

-Mire Audes Finnisau of Betteville, while on a visit to her brother Mr. M. W. Fin. began of O-haws, met with an untimely death by drowning. It appears that the unfortunate lady left her bro her's home on Friday evening last at 7 o'clock for church, and her non appearance later on that night couned her friends great uneasi-ness. A search was instituted at once, and was continued until a late hour Saturday evening, but without success. Sunda morning the body was discovered covered with snow and ice in a creek running through the western part of the town, where the poor lady wandered. The night was extremely dark, and she is supposed to have tripped and failen, and was thus rendered unable to rise or call for help.

FULL OF PLUCK.—Mr. J. A. Barron, M. P., is an equal rights man and is chuck full of piuck. On Saturday night he recurred to als home at Liudsay from Ottawa ad was enraged to hear that a miscreant had attempted an assault upon his little girl a few nights ago. Mr. Barron set out Sunday morning with Chief Constable Beli to frighten the man out of Lindsay; but on seeing him Mr. Barron became so violently maddened that he piled upon the miscreant with a stout cane he was carrying and gave him a ter this besting before Chief Beil could interfere, an account of it is given in our Lindsay items. Mr. Barron is a lawver and knows what it is to prove ie a lawver and knows what it is to prove the crime of midnight assaulter, so he thought it best to take charge of the punishment himself. A SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—Friday last Mr. John Bickie, a well-known farmer of Smith township, met with a serious accident. Whilst pulling down straw from a loft in his barn he dropped through the flooring of poles, which separated where he stood, and tell on a fanning mill standing beneath. He lay insensible for a long time, but finally roused sufficiently to walk to the house, though so stunned and dazed by the fall that he was unable to tell how the accident occurred. He presented a shocking appearance. A piece of his scalp nine inches long was torn from his head and hung down over his ear, leaving a gaping wound from which the blood was pouring. Several of his ribs were broken. Dr. Fraser was colled in and attended to Mr. Bickle's injuries, from which he is now lying in a precarious condition. Infammation has also attacked one of his lungs, and altogether Mr. Bickle will have a hard time in pulling through.—[Exam-PETERBORO. a hard time in pulling through.-[Exam-

FIRE IN ENNISHORE -Oa Monday, about noon, the stone residence of M. Crough, jun., lot 1, con. 5, was burned down. No doubt the fire originated in the ceiling of the upper floor, the upper part of the house being in flames when first discovered. Although assistance promptly arrived the fire had made such headway that scarcely anything was saved. Most of Mr. Crough's household effects, some wearing apparrel and a considerable sum of money were destroyed. The loss will be about $1,400; insured in the Grange Mutual Co. for $400 on house and $200 on the kitchen. Part of the latter was saved. - [Examiner. SALEM-OPS.

[Correspondence of The Post.] CHURCH NOTES, -During the past five weeks special services have been conducted here by the paster, Rev. G. W. Dawey, and a grand work has been accomplished for God. Throughout the meetings have been characterized by the power and presence of the Master, and almost the entire neighborhood have been brought to a saving knowledge of the truth. The meetings are being continued throughout this week. ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION. - On Fri-SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Mr. Poter Rusnell, day evening, the 7th inst., the young per ple of the church here asthered at the home of Mr. Joseph Bradley, of whose intended departure from this vicinity they had learned a few days previous, and spent a pleasant time together. The occasion was the presentation of the following address, accompanied by a beautiful teacher's bible and a hymn book to Mr. Bradley, whose departure is universally regretted owing to his sterling worth both as a citizen and departure is universally regretted owing to his sterling worth both as a citizen and church worker:—Mr. Joseph Bradley:—Dear Brother.—It is with feelings of deep regret that we have recently learned of your intended departure from our mides. During the short space of three yeass during which you have been a resident of this community, you have come in contact. You have always proven yourself to be a true friend and most oblighing neighbor, always ready to lend a helping hand However, it is in your connection with the Methodist church here that your departure will be most keenly felt. You have been identified with every movement and undertaking that had as its object the upbuilding of the cause of God; and in your labors as class-leader, assistant superintendent and teacher in the Sunday school, you have, by your punctuality, per-istent efforce and unwavering zeal, brought honor to your Master and set an example of Christian f-rittude worthy of our imitation. While we regret your departure from our midst we trust that it is all for the best, that the Allwise One, who rules our comings and goings, doeth all things well, and that greater fields of usefulness may open up before you. As aslight token of our extern and regard for you we ask doeth all things well, and that greater fields of neefulness may open up before you. As alight token of our e-teem and regard for you we ask you to accept this bible and hymn-book, trusting that in the years to come when present connections will have been forgotten it may serve to remind you of the many warm-hearted friends you have left behind at Salem. In taking leave of you we earnestly pray that God's richest bleesings may rest on all your efforts; whether in things spiritual or in things temporal, that the Holy Spirit may ever guide your ways, and that we may all meet at last where parting is no more,—Signed:
