Why Not Pay Up the Small Accounts. A local merchant passed a very sensible remark on Wednesday. Said he; "It those who the stores would go and pay it that alone would cause the hard times to disappear. There are plenty of wealthy men walking around who owe small amounts here and there and who have carried the money around in their pockets all winter, yet they do not seep in and give it to us. If small bills coming to me were paid I could get along nicely." There is no line of business that suffers so much from negligence to pay small bills as the country newspaper publisher. He often goes around with nothing in his pocket but a post-office key, while hundreds of men have a deliar or two each of his mossy which they could do without and never miss it..... This is from an exchange, but it will convey a bint to many subscribers of THE POST. Gwe a dollar or two or a few dollars at any of Collegiate Institute Notes. It is proposed to hold a concert in the school about the easter holidays for the benefit of the literary society. If the scheme is carried out it should be heartily supported by our citizens, as it is to help pay for the papers in the reading-The cricket club has organized a junior club in the first and second forms. The committee will try to have four elevens in the field this year, namely the first and second elevens of the school and the first and second form elevens. This is an excellent move on the part of the committee, because if cricket is to developed in the school it should be played in the lower forms.

The usual weekly meeting of the L. S. was held Friday last at 4 p.m. The program consisted of an opening chorus by the boys' gles club, which was followed by one of the most interesting debates held in the institute since its opening. The subject was: "Resolved, that the pood qualities of Mariborough exceeded his hed." The affirmative was upheld by Messrs. H. Michail and J. Kennedy; negative by L. O'Connor and R. Herry. The debate was listened to with the deepest interest throughout, as was evidenced by the frequent bursts of applanes. The decision was by hallot, every one in the audience of about two hundred voting, and the result of the count showed that the champions for the affirmative had "mowed their epponents under" by a large majority, much in the same manner as did Mariborough the French at Ricaheim.

OFFICE OF THE CANADIAN POST, }
LINDSAY, March 20, 1906. }
Toronto Live Stock Market. Last week's receipts at the western stock yards were 839 cattle, 257 sheep and lambs and iseluding about 125 sheep and lambs, 200 hogs and 50 calves. Last week's prices were well maintained, there being an active demand. The quality of the offerings was quite up to the average, and the market was cleared pretty of the cattle came in Tuesday that had been bou the in the country for export purposes.

They will be ak uped to Halifax and from there to Liverpool.

Cattle-Local butchers were buying freely and were quite prepared to give pretty good prices for the stock they wanted. The market at Montreal was better, and there was buying for that place, seven or eight loads going through. This did not leave any too much for the local demand to absorb, and values were firm at last week's figures. Picked lots solid at his port b, with good loads going at 3½c to 4c.

Medium stock was quoted at 3½c to 3½c, and inferior at 2½c to 3c per B. Representative sales

Sheep and lambe are still in active request, and under rather light receipts prices are firmer. Sheep may be quoted from $6.50 to $7.25 each, or 15c per 1b, and lambe at 6c to 65c per 1b, Very few spring lambe have come in yet, and they are selling readily at a round $6 er.ch. Some of the sales were:

Caivee—Receipts were rather larger, but all good stock sell readily, sithough inferior animals are not much in demand. One dealer hought 41 caives to day at privee ranging from $2 to $9 each Medium to good caives may be quoted at $5 to $7, and choice at $8 to $12.

Milk cows—Although offerings are light the demand is limited and prices are therefore easy, the quotations being from $25 to $40 each. One milker sole at $27.

Hogs—Prices for hogs advanced Tuesday almest 25 to per cwt. and there was an active demand for all that came in. Mixed lots are quoted from $1 25 to $4.75 per cwt. Among the transactions were:

It Would be a Grievous Error

Were any housekeeper or head of a family to imagine that Groceries are the same everywherethat about the same quality goods are sold by every merchant in town. No siree; that would be a sad mistake to fall into.

The Fact of the Matter Is,

That a large saving may be effected in buying the Groceries for a family once the above truth is recognized; everything counts, and if a few dollars can be saved upon the yearly grocery bill it encourages the housekeeper and spurs on the good man to renewed efforts to attain a competency for his family.

To Save These Few Dollars,

Or mayhap more, according to the extent of your purchases, it will be necessary to visit the store of ARCH. CAMPBELL, KENT-ST., LINDSAY;

A few trials only and he will have your trade—that is, if you're a reasonable being and can be convinced. Every line that should be handled by a representative Family Grocer is contained in his store—many of them selling away below present market prices, owing to having been bought when values were depressed. For instance, let Sugars drop ever so little, Campbell at once wires an order and in a week a couple of carloads of the low-priced article arrives, which is dealt out in liberal quantities to please customers; and so it is in every department.

Just now large quantities of Fresh Goods are being placed to fill the gaps made since Christmas. Besides the usual standard lines, we have received a number of small lines that will be much appreciated by housekeepers.
