Mutual Life Assurance Co. "The best on earth" smacks strong; but Mr. M. holds that the record of his company warrants its use.

—The store in Bigelow's block lately occupied by R. emyth & Son, will be occupied in a week or ten days by Mr. M. J. Carter. The premises are now undergoing a thorough renovation at the hands of carpenters, painters and payerhangers.

-Mr. R. Spratt left Tuesday for Montreal with three carloads of potatoes, Reaboro supplying one carload and Bethany another. Good prices were paid all round. If this sort of thing continues Mr. Spratt will be known as the "Lindsay Potato King."

One day last week little Georgie Lennon, the two-year old son of Mr. J. H. Lennon, had the misfortune to fall from a high chair and break some of the small bones of his arm. The accident was a painful one for the little fellow, but with good treatment "white-head" will soon be himself again.

—Farmers and others desirous of selling or exchanging farms or other real estate should communicate with Messra Sootheran & Smith of this town, real estate dealers, who will at once forward them blank forms to be filled in, describing the property in detail. A personal visit is not all necessary to start the ball rolling.

—Mr. R. H. Peel of Holland, Man., commission dealer, who last week purchased the well known stallion "Ivanhoe" from Mr. G. W. Curtis, has succeeded in picking up two carloads of horses during the past two weeks (principally brood mares) for which he paid an all-round high figure He will ship next Tuesday from Pontypool, on the C.P.R.

pool, on the C.P.R.

—In response to a largely signed requisition Mayor Smyth has called a public meeting of citizens, to be held in the town hall this evening (Friday) at 7.30, in order that the electric light question may be discussed in all its bearings. There should be a large attendance, as the subject is a most important one and has been before the people for some time.

—A force of carpenters are now wielding saw, hammer and plane in the Daly house, and have already transformed the interior so completely that the portly form of the good-looking proprietor, Mr. Joe Daly, is about the only object that is familiar. The license regulations demand that the bar shall front upon the street, and this and other changes are now being effected that will much improve the interior.

—Wednesday evening the Masonie fraternity

"basket social" in their rooms, Keenan's block. At eight o'clock the rooms were comfortably filled with the members and their friends, and the lunch baskets carefully stowed away for active use later on. The musical part of the program, which was very fine, was contributed by Mieses Leary and Dingle and Messrs. Walters, Lumont and Prof. Cooper, while Mr. S. Hughes contributed an appropriate recitation. The feature of the evening was an address by W. Bro. Miller of Omemee on the social and intellectual features of Masonry. Bre. Miller is an eloquent speaker, and the address proved a rare treat and was much enjoyed by all those present. Altogether a very pleasant evening was spent.

was spent.

-Now that the turbulent Scugog has become partially clear of ice both above and below the town, the trapping of the odoriferous myskrat is being prosecuted by our hardy amateur pelthunters with varying success. To those having a hankering for the sport but have not yet tried it, we may assert upon what seems to be good authority that a big outfit of traps is not essential, and we quote a case in point. On Friday last two young men started out for a couple of days sport with but four traps and captured 16 the first day and 18 the next. In explaining this remarkable stroke of busines to a couple of dubious friends one of the twain averred that the rats had become so disgusted with the way they had been libelled by the weather prophets of last fall's regime that when one of a family got caught in the trap the other members fought for next chance. Hitherto these young men have borne a reputation for veracity, but at present they are in the same boat with the prophets.

—It is reported that while some workmen orne a reputation for veracity, out at present they are in the same boat with the prophets.

—It is reported that while some workmen were excavating the foundation for one of the handsome stone boundary monuments that are now being put down by Engineer Bowman to define the limits of our rapidly growing town for a few years to come, a metal plate was uncovered upon which was roughly engraved in an unknown tongue, though in English characters, the following inscription: ...ify. ouw.antat.ipt.open.po.fte.ao.rco.ffeey.oum.ustbu.yita.tos.mpb.elleg.rooe.ryke.hts.ree.tlin.des.y. It proved a great puzzle for a few days and was finally photographed by a well known smateur artist, who succeeded in finding the key to the cypher and translated it as followe: If you want a tip-top cup of tea or coffee you must buy it at Campbell's grocery, Kent-st. Lindsay.....Some incredulity may reasonably be expected regarding portions of this item, but the truth of the inscription is a prominent fact which Campbell's many customers will vonch for.

of this entertainment is to add more books to the library. Those attending this reception will hving a book and present it to the association. The book (or books, for more than one may be given) need not necessarily be new. Works of standard authors, biographies, religious reading, such as Moody's, finney's, Miss Havergal's and others, will be most appreciated. Further particulars will appear next week. -Mrs. W. R. death, on Friday last, of Edward, only son of death, on Friday last, of Edward, only son of Mr. P. J. Clunan, in his fifteenth year. Deceased was an intelligent, bright, good-natured youth and a great favorite with the students at the collegiate institute, where he had attended for some time with much credit, and as a mark of respect the flag of the institute remained at half-mast during Saturday and Sunday. The funeral took place Sunday to the Roman Catholic cemetery and was very largely attended. The boys of the separate school, former associates of deceased, attended in a body at the church while the selemn offices for the dead were being recited. Wipespread sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Clunan in their deep affliction.

—Last Tuesday evening Mr. D. J. McIntyre gave a talk in the Y. M. C. A. rooms to an audience of young men, on the law of promissory notes. This subject is one with which no one can become too familiar, and the young men present certainly derived a great deal of profit from Mr. McIntyre's talk. A good musical program followed... The membership is gradually increasing, and many new members are expected right away, as the association is putting forth considerable affort to increase the membership.

-In last week's issue appears the result of the sixth match played for the Peterborough-Lindsay challenge cup, Lindsay winning by 35 shots and tying scores, making it necessary to play a seventh four-rink match to decide which town should be the summer resort of the handsome trophy, which was gretly admired while on exhibition in the window of McLennan Bros. herdware store. The rivalry between the two clubs has been keen though good natured, and when it was arranged Monday to play next day Lindsay curiers braced themselves for a stiff game—and they had it. Skip Flavelle and J. A. McMillan, ir., who went to Peterboro, were held down and defeated all round by three shots; but in Lindsay Skips J. W. Wallace and W. McLennan played "like heroes," and at the finish led by 17 shots. Following are the scores:
