The supply Tuesday was of fair dimensions, consisting of 33 loads of live stock, including about 125 sheep and lambs, 300 hogs and 50 cal calves. The general market was firmer Tuesday than for some time past, and prices were rather higher. Outside buying and the approach of Easter helped matters, and with the exception of a little rough stock, everything was easily elegated up.

cleared up.

Cattle—On choice stock probably better prices were being obtained Tuesday than at any time this year, and medium to good animals were also selling rather better. The demand was active,

DEPARTED Last Monday Mr. P. A.

Fergusen and two sone, together with John Nicolson and wife and three Hendersons of Minden started on their trip for North Pakota. We wish them all a speedy and prosperous journey. This company is a sample of our Canadians, and it is needless to ask why the Am ricans like our Canadian boys so well. Why are our Joung men not seeking homes under the Union Jack? This influx of our population will continue until we have better trade relations, which if not speedily brought shout means sure ruin to our famous country.... |See additional Glenarm correspondence on sixth page.

Social. They had a grand of all at the beautiful residence of Mr. P. Thompson recently, It was in aid of the Presbyterian church fund and netted upwards of $30.

PRESENTATION.—There was an immense gathering recently at the residence of our exfeeve and ex-warden O'Leary. The people of Mara presented Mr. O'Leary with a fine address and a cash present of nearly $200. Mr. O'Leary richly deserved this kind and thoughtful act, for he did many thinys for this municipality gratis when reeve. What township can beat this? We did not forget Mr. Philip McRae either when he religied the position of reeve some six years ago, for we gave him a magnificent go'd watch Mr. Geo Bruen, who lately retired from the council after twelve years faithful services, was presented with a gold-headed cane. Such kindness as this will always bring good men to the front to manage out township affairs.

THE BERWELL MURDER.

HE ARRIVAL OF MRS. BURCHELL'S PATHER. New York, March 22,—Among the pas-sengers on the steamship Germanic to-day was David Stevenson, father of Mrs. Bur-chell, whose husband is under arrest for murdering Frederick C. Benwell at Prince-ton, Ont. Mr. Stevenson, who is district traffic manager of the London and Northwestern Railway Company, was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. West Jones and C. W. C. Hatton, late high sheriff of and C. W. C. Hutton, late high sheriff of London. Mr. Stevenson was met at the dock by C. A. Barratone, general agent of the London & Northwestern Reilway Co. in the United States and Canada. When saked what he would do towards the defence of his son-in-law, Mr. Stevenson said he came to this country solely to look after the interests of his daughter. Now that his daughter was free, he did not see why he should remain long in this country. However, if his daughter had to remain until the trial of Burchell came off, He would see that her interests were properly looked after. He intended taking her back to England as soon as he could. cil chamber on Saturday last, March 15th. The members present were: J. F. Dix, president; Messrs. R. Willock, R. Hannah, Wm. Lownsbrough, E. H. Hopkins, W. M. Robson, Wm. Adams, T. H. McQuade. After minutes of last meeting had been read and approved it was moved by Wm. Lownsbrough, and seconded by W. M. Robson, that a committee comprising the president and E. H. Hopkins be and is hereby appointed to try and sell the lot known as the Grace lot, in the south ward, or make some arrangements for disposing of the said property; offers received to be laid before a meeting of members of this society.—Carried. Moved by W. M. Robson, seconded by Robert Willock, that the secretary be instructed to write to other towns supposed to have parks with rules and regulations, with a view to securing a dramaht of them as a guide to our intended rules.—Carried. Moved by R. Hannah, seconded by W. M. Robson, that the president, vice-president, R. Hannah, E. H. Hopkins, W. M. Robson, the secretary and his worship Mayor Smith be a committee to draft rules and regulations for the guidance of this agricultural society's park.—Carried. Moved by Wm. Lownsbrough, seconded by R. Hannah, that the motion fixing the time for the helding of the fair be rescinded and that the fair be held on the following dates: 30th day of September and 1st and 2nd days of October.—Carried. The meeting then adjourned. properly looked after. He intended taking her back to England as soon as he could. Mr. Szevenson said his daughter was deceived by Burchell with regard to the farm at Woodstock, and that she knew no more about it than did either Benwell or Pelly. Mr. Stevenson added that he was opposed to the marriage of his acuphter to Burchell. He had looked up the latter's record as a young man at college, and was record as a young man at college, and was greatly shocked when his daughter ran away with him. Mr. Sievenson will leave o morrow for Canada THE PICKTEALL MYSTERY.

As the interest in Burchell declines it inreases in the Pickthall mystery. Saturday an instrument was registered in the registry office here by which Pickthali gave a deed of all his property to his wife. It has been made known that the first word heard from Pickthall was a telegram from Tucfrom Pickthall was a telegram from Tucson, Arizons, saying that he had become stranded, and asking for money. Strangely enough the answer wired back to him was that the money would be forthcoming on certain conditions, namely, that he would sign the deed. Pickthall responded with a long letter, the nature of which is known only to his wife, who received it, and she claims that it throws no light whatever on the cause of his disappearance. At all events the deed has been returned properly signed and scaled. It was made at Tucson, Arizons, on the 12th of March, and was Arizona, on the 12th of March, and was registered in the Woodstock registry office on the 21st. The consideration on which he on the 21st. The consideration on which he deeded the property was the receipt of the sum of $5,000. It is understood that Mrs. Pickthan will at once take advantage of the privilege she now has, and dispose of the property to satisfy all claims. Mr. H. J. Finkle, solicitor for the Pickthall estate, says that no letter accompanied the deed, and that the friends of the missing man are as much in the dark as ever as to man are as much in the dark as ever as to selling rather better. The demand was active, and prices in some cases were to better than last week's figures. The quality of the cattle offering was rather better than usual, there being some choice Easter animals in. However, the most of the Easter cattle will be offered next Friday and the following Tuesday. Easter fairs are being held in several parts of the province this week. Besides the local demand, outside buying was active. Several loads were purchased by Ottawa buyers, and over half adozen were bought on Montreal account. As high as 50 was paid to-day for one or two very choice lots, and for choice Easter or feeding cattle 12 and 13c per h was received. Good loads were going at 4c to 13c, medium cattle were quoted at 33c to 33c and inferior stock at 3c to 34c per lb. A few odd head of the most inferior stock were held over. Representative sales were: the cause of his disappearance.

It is a strange fact that Burchell displays more interest in the Pickthail mystery than he does in his own case. He constantly inquires about it, and when he receives any papers it is the first thing he looks for. TOWN JOTTINGS.

The great English amateur squatic event of the year, the 47th Oxford Cambridge boat race, came off on Wednesday over the Thames course from Putney to Mortlaze. The water was somewhat rough, which proved a slight advantage to the winners. The Oxfords won by a length after a very close and exciting race. This makes the 24th win for the dark blues. The distance was four miles and two furlongs.

In reply to O'Connor's challenge to row the winner of the Kemp-Matterson race that is to take place on a pril 25th, both men have signified their willingness to accommodate him.....
There is likely, however, to be considerable haggling over the date, as O'Connor wants the race to be rowed not later than May 31st, and has mentioned the 24th, being the Queen's birthday, as being a good day. It Would be a Grievous Error

Were any housekeeper or head of a family to imagine that Groceries are the same everywherethat about the same quality goods are sold by every merchant in town. No siree; that would be a sad mistake to fall into.

The Fact of the Matter Is,

That a large saving may be effected in buying the Groceries for a family once the above truth is recognized; everything counts, and if a few dollars can be saved upon the yearly grocery bill it encourages the housekeeper and spurs on the good man to renewed efforts to attain a competency for his family.

To Save These Few Dollars,

Or mayhap more, according to the extent of your purchases, it will be necessary to visit the store of ARCH. CAMPBELL, KENT-ST., LINDSAY;

A few trials only and he will have your trade—that is, if you're a reasonable being and can be convinced. Every line that should be handled by a representative Family Grocer is contained in his store—many of them selling away below present market prices, owing to having been bought when values were depressed. For instance, let Sugars drop ever so little, Campbell at once wires an order and in a week a couple of carloads of the low-priced article arrives, which is dealt out in liberal quantities to please customers; and so it is in every department.

Just now large quantities of Fresh Goods are being placed to fill the gaps made since Christmas. Besides the usual standard lines, we have received a number of small lines that will be much appreciated by housekeepers.
