— At the conclusion of the Peterboro-Lindsay challenge cup match on Monday of last week, challenge cup match on Monday of lest week, which the Lindsay men won by it shots, various reasons were advanced by some of the Utonabee curiers for their defeat, and the opinion was expressed that while Lindsay could "get there" in a four rink contest, with one rink they would be absolutely nowhere. A challenge was given and accepted quietly, as it was not considered likely that the new would hold good. On Thursday that the new would hold good. On Thursday the Lindsay challenger received a message to the effect that the L'indsay rink would be expected down next day (Friday), and the news disconcerted him not a little, as he had not mentioned the matter to the other curiers at all. However, when this Flavelle was made acquainted with how matters stood he favored wing, and set to work to pick up a good rink. Friday morning ushered in a regular hizzard, but when the cleven o'clook express pulled in the Lindsay men were waiting upon the platform, and stepped on board accompanied by a number of friends whe were going down to witness the match. Play began shortly after 1 38, and right from the start it was evident that it was putsy to be a megnificust game; the less were a less se at any time during the winter, and fine draw shots were a feature of the game. The Lindsay rink was a strong one, being the same that shaped in Winnipas with the exception of the feur strips who had played in the challenge cup series. The game was to be 5 each if pacible, or stop play at five o'clesk in order that the Lindsay men might catch their reals, and when the hour entire the rinks and source;
