Oprivary. It is our sad duty this week to account the death of Mr. Goo. Windram, son of Mr. C. Windram of this locality, who departed this life on the evening of the 2th inst, at the age of 21. The young man fell a victim to that fell disumption, and provious to his demiss had been about a month at the hospital in Formite, where he had been advised er treatment, but ashk so rapidly that it was found messnary to bring him home, where he wished to be sa the end near, which occurred five days later, His cut was prace. The funeral on the such inst, was largely attended by the many felonds and acquaintances of decease.

KINMOUNT.

Outstance, it is with feelings of deep regret that we chronicle the death of Mrs. J. P. Robinson of this piace, which pines on Sunday last from the after offer of la grippe. She took la grippe shout the latter part of January and was arous il again in a few days, but got a relapse and was confined to her room for a longer period the second time, but was again about for a few days, after which she okon appionals ill, so ill that medical aid was of no avail. She passed away on handar morning after suffering for about four works, all of which was borne with Christian pattenes. The funeral took place Tuesday and was attended by a very argo concentse of friends and acquaintenres, all of whom followed the remains to the ementary where they were interred, The immaining members of the family have the heartfalt aying the of the people of the village in their and because constite

RACING.—Mr. McRac entered Sparkling. Dismond for the Penetanguishene races neld last week. Not having been in any face before of course he was entered among the "greeners," and distinguished binacif by taking three heats out of five trotted—let, 2nd and 5 h. The los was very heavy. Of course l'arquhar drove him. On the conclusion of the race he was offered several centuries for the ownership of the little bleek, but declined them all. He knows nomething about hore flesh, you ber. On his return to H-averion he came across another youngater, rather liked its appearance, made an offer, barusined and at last became the owner of as likely a four year old as any we have sees. He has trick him and although another "greener," and not much to look at, cas do his distance in list, fie is a fellow gelding, sire unknown, out of an labred Royal George mare. Farquiner had a tad experience is returning home by the ice on Simose. When near Point Mare, and about a mile from land, Sparkling Damond, which he was driving, (the new ones being hirched on behind), broke through the ice. Farquiner tried his heat to extringle the animal from its damthe new case being birched on behind), broke through the ice. Farquhar tried his best to extricate the salmal from its dangerous position, but being alone could not do so. As the horse was enabled to just keep his head above water, F. took the yellow boy and made for the nearest farm house for help and procured the assistance of three joily farmer men. The four then made for the same position as when left. After great exertions the four accessed in restoring the animal once more to sound here.

HYMENEAL.—Another of our estimable young men has fallen a victim to cupid's darte and arrows in the person of Mr. Geo. Moynes of the 4th con. of Fenelon township, who came to the conclusion that it was not good for man to live alone. He selected for his better half and partner for life Miss Mary Brown, accoud daughter of Mr. Dougaid Brown of Maple Hill, Fenelon. The happy event trois place on Wednesday, 28th March, at the residence of the bride's father, under the most pleasing anaptees. The knot was tied by Rev. Mr. anapices. The Egot was tied by Rev. Vr. McDonald of Glenarm. There was quite a arke number of friends of the contracting parties present to witness the ceremony. The young couple left next morning for Toronto and other western points on their wedding tour, where they will spend their hoasymoon. The presents to the bride were costly and numerous. We extend the young couple hearty congratulations. Personal. — Miss Annie Spence of Toronto is visiting her many friends in this vicinity at present. . . . [Correspondence of The Post] OBITUARY, -- Assther family has been called upon to mount the loss of a dear wife and a kind and loving mother. Mrs. Alexander McIssis departed this life on March 12th, sfor an illness of about seven March 12th, sfor an illness of about seven weeks. She was taken ill with la grippe, which caused acuralgia of the heart, from which she passed away to rest after hearing it all with Christian fortitude. She longed to be at rest with Jesus, having been a devoted Christian for over thirty years. She was a member of the Congregational church, and was loved by all who knew her. She leved her family dearly. She was sever known to have an enemy. A husband, four sone and four daughters are left to mourn her loss. Rev. Mr. McMillan left to mourn her loss. Rev. Mr. McMillan of Wick officiated at the funeral, which trok place to the Scotch cometery, west of Manilla. It was largely attended. The hereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of the community.

By her living she brightened the earth.
Where the passed she left susshine and flowers:
The angels knew well of her worth,
And led her away to their bowers.

We will lighten her dwellings with bloom, And calm every feeling of sorrow.
For we know she has passed through the temb,
To the land of the golden to-merrow.
