-A Ringetonian dealing in farm loans had three farms thrown upon his hands last week by the owners, who despaired of paying the principal and interest another year and setting a living se well.

-Mr. Stewart McCoy of Saintfield has recently sold two horses from his stables; one, a 3-year old Clydesdale, went to Mr. McGregor of Winniper, while his fine roads: ratallion tholden Chief was bought by Mr. St. John of Sunderland.

-A farmer in Seymour lost bis reckon ing lately and started to town with a griet on Sunday. He probably did not take a new-paper, as parties who do not are apt to get antray. You should always remember to pay for them in advance, and then you will be sure to be successful in your undertakings.

-Mr. R. P. Potte of Belleville, a wholesale liquor dealer, confined to his room since Friday week, died on Wednesday of last week. Some weeks ago he injured his foot trying on a new boot. Since then the foot one dealership trouble and developed into collection country death developed into cellutitin, causing desth. The deceased was all rears of age.

-Mary Emery, wife of William Emery a farmer of Marmora township, who was abot near his home in September last, has been arrested on the charge of siding and shetting in the orine. The arrest resulted from an investigation by William Griller, provincial detective, who was ten days in the locality working up the case.

-Albert, Herman and George Llord. brothers, who were convicted at the Belleville apring seal are lest year of rape upon fourteen year old girl named Mary Denton and have been in gaol ever since awaiting a high court decision, were last week sentenced by Chief Justice Armour. George and Herman were given seven years in the penitentiary, and Albert, who had only senisted in the commission of the orime, was sentenced to one day in gaol.

life March 21st, 1890

The gentle form now sleeps, -Calm and quiet his sweet repose, While you so sadly weep. We know you miss your darling boy. The household joy and pride;

It seems as though you cannot yet Imagine why he died. But God, who doeth all things right, Hes called your loved one home.

And now he dwells an angel bright,

Forever round the throne. Gone before him you have another, With a bright crowa upon her brow: Ah, weep not, sad and lonely parents,

For Eddie is an angel now. His sweet voice is hushed on earth, Bow to thy Father's will: Thy lovely boy, so full of mirth, In heaven is lovelier still.

Then why, oh loved ones, should you weep, Though lonely be your home, Cannot your Heavenly Father keep Your darling till you come. Though very ead may be your heart, Your drooping spirits raise, You yet may meet where none shall part Through endless years of praise. Then parents, dear, He doeth well, From whom attlictions come: Go now to Him. your troubles tell. And say. "Thy will be done."
