Moxley & Merrill. Lindsay, January 23, 1904. L. Maguire. GOING OUT. OF BUSINESS.

and for the purpose of accomplishing that object with the least delay I will now offer my Stock of BOOTS AND SHOES which consist of nearly every leading line required in the trade, and include some of the best and finest lines, especially in Ladies Goods, that can be found AT COST.

There are a few lines of which sizes are broken that will be sold at Less than Cost! as I wish to get rid of this class immediately.

I would now say that the public have an opportunity of supplying themselves with good Goods at prices that cannot be approached in the regular way of trade. Any person can understand that Goods sold without any profit must be sold for CASH ONLY, and those are the terms. L. MAGUIRE. Lindsay, April 2nd, 1904.
