INSURANCE COMPANY THE LONDON MUTUAL

FOR FARMERS The Royal Canadian offers the following advantages over the London Mutual: 1 If a building worth $1,200 is insured for say $1,000, the Royal Canadian is obliged to pay $1,000 if a loss occurs. In such a case the London Mutual is obliged to pay only two-thirds of the case value or $800.

the cash value, or $800. 2. If a horse worth $90 is killed in the fields by lightning, the Royai Canadian is obliged to pay $90. The London Mutual pays only $60. 3. For a cow worth $30 killed by lightning the Royal Canadian pays $30. The London Mutual pays only $20. For other animals the Royal Canadian pays the full value. The London Mutual pays not more than $5, no matter how valuable the animal may be.

4. In the Royal Canadian animals are insured against lightning while at pasture anywhere. In the London Mutual they are insured while pasturing on the premises of the insured

5. When articles are insured specifically, such as musical instruments, the Royal Canadian is obliged to pay the full amount insured up to the cash value of the article. The London Mutual pays only two-thirds of the cash value, no matter what the insurance may be. 6. When "ordinary contents" of out-buildings are insured by the Royal Canadian all implements are included. In the London Mutual only one reaper and one mower are included, no matter how good others may be. 7. When the outbuildings are not joined to each other the Royal Canadian insures under one sum the "ordinary contents" of all buildings not cut off by a distance greater than (0 ft., the same as if the contents were all under one roof. The London Mutual requires a separate sum on the contents of each building, if the distance is more than 12 ft. This is a very important difference in many cases.

MOWAT AND S. H. BLAKE THE PROTESTANT PREMIER'S ADDRESS.

Hon. S. H. Blake's Brilliant Review. anestions of the Day Die

Discussed — Mr. m—Timber Poli-Mowat's Protesta cies Compared—The Separate Schools Question — Mr. Meredith's Inconsis-

A great public meeting in the Toronto pavilion last Thursday night was addressd by Hon. Mr. Mowat, Hon. Mr. Hardy, Hon. S. H. Blake, and by the two reform candidates, ex-Ald. Tait and McDougall. It was a grand and enthusiastic reform demonstration. Hon. Mr. Mowat was suffering from a yery bad cold and was unable to speak for more than a few minutes. He gave an admirable address and we place it before our readers with the brilliant, entertaining and powerful speech of Hon. S. H. Blake, Hon. Mr. Hardy was suffering from hoarseness and was unable to speak at any length. The two candidates gave capital speeches. Their prospects are considered excellent, and it is confidently expected by electing two resormers Toronto will contribute one to the increased majority that is now believed to be in store for Mr. Mowat.

HON. MR. MOWAT'S ADDRESS. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen.

I am sorry that I am not able to speak to you long to-night or loud enough, I fear, to be heard in this pavilion; but at all events I have voice enough to express my gratitude for the kind things which you, Mr. Chairman, have said in introducing me, and for the kind way in which your observations were received, and the enthusiastic reception I have just received at your hands. (Applause.) That reception has been all the more gratifying because I perceived your kindness was shared by the ladies in the gallery as well as by the men on the floor below. (Renewed applause.) I am glad also to perceive that in this great assemblage there is a sprinkling of conservatives likewise, and I think I saw some of them joining in the kind wave in which you have all been receiving me tonight. (Loud applause.) You are largely composed of Protestants, but there is a large number of Roman Catholics here likewise, and I know that upon this occasion Protestants and Roman Catholics alike have been kind in their reception of me. I been kind in their reception of me. I est number," and that same flag that did know what this means. I know that you that work in the old country fifty years ago Protestants know that I, like yourselves, am a true Protestant. (Loud applause.) You know that those speak falsely who have ascribed to me infidelity to the church n which I was educated from my child. hood and to which I am more and more attached the longer I live. (Loud applause.) You all know that Protestantism is the very last thing that I would, from political or any other motive, do snything to injure. Renewed applause.) I know to what is due the kind reception which I have had from you Roman Catholics also. You know that it has been the maxim of my public life since I became premier of this province to be fair to Roman Catholics as well as to Protestants. (Cheers.) I have recognised the duty of being fair to men of all creeds as well as to men of my own creed, and I have announced the conviction more than once which I strongly en-

A FAIR-MINDED PROTESTANT PREMIER can be fair to Roman Catholics without unfaithfulness to his own church. (Renewed cheers.) And I must say further that I do not want to be premier any longer than I can discharge these duties with fairness towards all. (Great cheering.) Your kindness shows something more; it shows that in common with the great majority of the people of this province you recognise that the record of the Ontario government is a record with which the people ought to be and are satisfied. (Applause.) I am sorry to say that I am afraid I shall not be able to continue. I have a number of points that I should like to take this opportunity of dealing with, but I find that already my voice is giving out. Possibly as the evening goes on my throat may get into better condition. but I can do no more at present than rejoice in the conviction that while we are charged with hostility to the great principle of equal rights, which you all know and I know has always been the political doctrine of the reformers of Ontario, you know and representatives of that party, have always been faithful to that principle, and that we have supported whatever makes for civil sud religious liberty during the whole time that we have held office. In connection with these principles we have given you the best practicable laws hitherto, and we mean to continue giving you the best practicable laws for the future and the best practicable laws for the future and the best practicable administration of those laws, and thus, according to our opportunities and our powers, to promote by the best possible means and to the greatest possible extent the well-being of the whole community, Protestant and Catholic. It is upon these grounds that we now anneal to the these grounds that we now appeal to the people of the province, and upon these grounds that we sek them for a continuance of the confidence which for so many years they have extended to us. (Lond and prolonged cheering.)

MON. S. M. BLAKE'S ADDRESS.

I regret with you very deeply that we have not had an address from the attorney. general of this province and the commissioner for crown lands, but I am glad that, while they cannot speak to you with ips, their lives are before you, and they speak better than any words that I can utter. (Hear, hear and cheers.) Some people are words and nothing else-(hear, hear) -and there is an instance of it in the gailery. (Cheers and laughter.) Besides these mere words there has been an honest and true life spent in the service of this province, and that this evening will speak to you loudly, long and enemestly, I am confident. (Cheers.) I rejoice to see so many reformers here this evening. (Hear, hear.) I rejoice to see so many of you true to liberal principles—true to these lenders that have been so true to those principles. (Chesse.) I rejotes very should that so few, if any, of you have been soluced to the cave of Adullam—(cheers and laughter) —where rests the third party with one plank waiting for Providence or somebody else to give them another—(cenewed cheering)—thinking that upon this little raft they will float the Dominion into some haven of rest and bliss. (Loud cheers.) I am glad to see that few, if anv, of you have been seduced by the Rip Van Winkles that for forty years have been dwelling on the mountain and now descend as, Rip Van Winkle did of old, believing that they were presenting something new to the reform party, bringing down the banner of equal rights with childish glee as if there was anything new in the cry. (Cheers.)

Why, gentlemen, for two hundred years equal rights has been on the banner of the reform party. They have been the principles of the reform party, or the liberal party, or the whig party, or the grit party, and the reason you see no motto in this room to-night is that everybody knows the motto of the reform party. It may do for those who have just been wet nurses in room to-night is that everybody knows the motto of the reform party. It may do for those who have just been wet nurses in the first instance to adopt some watchword for the purpose of an election cry. But, gentlemen, going back with me for a moment you will find that equal rights, equal justice and equal laws to be obeyed by both king and peasant are what we are always contending for, and we have always been standing under the flag of absolute equality for all. (Hear, hear.) I ask you to go back two hundred years and you will find that we have had these words emblez ned on our flag. No nobler deeds have been done in the old land than under this banner. Even in those days a kirg not the reform party that struck the splendid blow whereby the fine what it was to be under the giorious in ag of the reform party, to go on with so-called equal rights or third partylem or anything else. I was born under that fing of liberalism, I was cradled under that fine, I have lived under it, and under it I interest to die. (Great cheering) And I intend to die. (Great cheering.) And I claim for each reformer here that at this which has given us these laws and given us absolute freedom from one end of this country to the other. (Cheers.) Now I propose this evening (and our friends that have preceded me have gone so fully into it I need only do it in a sketchy way) to that was delivered by my good friend Mr. Meredith. (Hear, hear.) I am glad to see I forgot, however, in connection with the last point, to say the liberal flag waves weil in Nova Scotia. (Tremendous applause.) And on the 5th of June I think it will be thrown to the breeze in this banner province of Untario. (Renewed applause.) they can give me and much more. Now, Mr. Meredith in his speech made an arraignment of Mr. Mowat's government, and I think we may take it as the strong-est statement that could be made against the government. We must always, gentle-men, have a little consideration for people when they make statements that are made with a view to getting themselves into some place and putting other people out of it. (Laughter.) You cannot expect them to be absolutely impartial. Self-interest will do a little in the way of preventing that, but still I am ready to take the statements of Mr. Meredith and deal with some of their points in a few words. Mr. Meredith quarrels with the way in which the crown lands department has been dealt with in the province. (Laughter.) HE QUARRELS WITH IT.

Renewed laughter.) I don't wonder. It does not suit them to deal with timber limits as we do in Ontario. (Loud laughter and applause.) They quarrel with it! should be sorry if they did not. (Laughter and applause.) Do we want to drag it down to the low level on which timber limits are managed at Ottawa? I trow not. (Laughter and applause.) And therefore it is I rejoice to flad that the tories don't like the way that reformers deal with timber limits. (Renewed applause.) I thought he might have been ashamed to mention timber limits. I thought there was not a tory born in this generation who would not have said, as the words came out of his mouth, "Let me not hear any more about timber limits." (Cheers and laughter.) Why, he said that he did not like the reform nerty's method of delice. laughter.) Why, he said that he did not like the reform party's method of dealing with timber limits. Did he think that it was owing to Mr. Mowat that we received 100,000 square miles of Ontario, with its great wealth of timber and minerals? (Applause.) Did he think, as he spoke to intelligent men and intelligent women, that it was conservatives who sought to rob us telligent men and intelligent women, that it was conservatives who sought to rob us of nearly half of this province; that it was reformers who stood in the gap and prevented that wrong being done (Cheers.) They don't like the way that reformers deal with timber limits. (Cheers and laughter.) Why, friends, you know that there were more than a hundred staunch tories that had in their pockets before Mr. Mowat came and dragged back our lands from conservative clutches—there were more than a hundred conservatives who had in their pockets promises of timber limits in that land to the extent of fifty square miles, in all 32,000 square miles. WEST VICTORIA.

DR. McKAY'S BRIGHT PROS-PECTS.

A Successful Series of Meetings.

Vote for McKay and Mowat and Vote Early.

Ald. Tait at Cakwood-A Grand Address The campaign in West Victoria continues with the brightest prospects for Dr. McKay. A very successful series of meetings have been held, and many have been attended and addressed by the reform candidate in person. Dr. McKsy on personal as well as political grounds is receiving the hearty and united support of the reform party, and he is attracting many new voters to his standard. The encouraging outlook has discouraged the opposition, who are now hard driven and desperate. They see that the tactics that prevailed by a close shaye four years ago cannot succe on this occasion, and that they are doomed to defeat. Dr. McKay's friends should relax no exertion but work with all energy the remaining few days to give him a hand-some three-figure majority.

The Nomination. The nomination proceedings Thursday at noon were of a merely formal character. Mr. Sheriff McLennan, returning officer, read the usual proclamation :-

Mr. Cruess was nominated by Mr. E. D. Orde of Lindsay.
Dr. McKay was nominated by Mr. F. C. Tavior, seconded by Mr. J. A. Williamson of Lindsay.

There was only a small attendance and no speech-making.

Ald. Tait at Oakwood. The public meeting at Oakwood last Friday evening was a grand success. The hall was crowded. Mr. W. Eyres occupied the chair. crowded. Mr. W. Eyres occupied the chair. Addresses were made by Mr. J. F. Cunnings and Mr. J. A. Barron, M. P. Mr. Barron was suffering from a bad cold and spoke only half an hour. No opposition speaker appeared, Ald. Tait of Toronto then gave a masterly address of over an hour and a half on the questions of the day. His speech pleased the audience and was heartily applauded. We regret our inability to give a lengthly report, owing to the pressure on our space. Cheers for the queen, Mowat, McKay and Tait closed the meeting.

Dr. McKay's Meeting at Grant's School House On Thursday evening Dr. McKay held s meeting here which augurs well for his election. The speakers were Dr. McKay, Wm Eyres, The speakers were Dr. McKay, Wm. Eyres, Wm. Cameron, H. B. Dean and G. H. Hopkins. No one appeared for Mr. Cru ss. Mr. John Campbell, jr., occupied the chair. Dr. McKay made a capital speech and was heartily cheered. Mr. Eyres and Mr. Cameron both made neat speeches and Mr. Hopkins and Mr. Dean dealt briefly with other political questions of the day. The meeting closed with rousing cheers for Dr. McKay.

The Dallymp'e Meeting-Cruess's Boss Puzzied. ing was held here on Tuesday evening in the conservative interests, Mr. Jarrett, reeve of Carden, in the chair. Mr. Graham opened of Carden, in the chair. Mr. Graham opened the meeting on behalf of Mr. Cruess, when Mr. G. H. Hopkins of Lindsay took the platform on behalf of Dr. McKay. He disposed of the farmer and independence cries and dealt effectively with the separate school question. Sam Hughes followed and wearied his audience for two hours and a quarter. Many of his misstatements were promotly exposed, particularly the question of poor school grants and the position of separate school supporters, but it was particularly amusing when Mr. Hughes could not tell what Mr. Meredita proposed as to the ballot in school elections and had to ask Mr. Hopkins for information.

Meeting at fingerboard. Mr. Cruess's meeting was held here on Friday night last by Mr. Sam Hughes, but as usual Mr. Cruess was not present. He seems to be ashamed of that company. Mr. Thos. Broad made a short speech and complained that the editor of The Post would not give him the name of an anonymous writer who had referred to him in The Post, although he admitted Mr. Barr offered to give him an opportunity of replying. He would not say how he was going to vote, except according to his conscience. He stated he would oppose Sir John Macdonald's government on the Jesuit question and that several conservatives had promised him to do the sam?, Mr. Hopkins followed on behalf of Dr. McKav and delivered a rattling speech, in which he showed up the hollow race and religious cries and completely demoished the tory stock of arguments on the separate school questions. ashamed of that company. Mr. Thos. Broad stock of arguments on the sevarate school question. The audience were delighted with Mr. Hopkin's speech and will be glad to hear him

Rowdy Sam Bottled up at Balsover by Mr. Hopkins. Rowdy Sam's meeting was held here on Wednesday night, Messrs Munre, McKee, Dr. Wood and Sam Hughes speaking in behalf of Mr. Cruess and Mr. G. H. Hopkins for Dr. Mc. Kay. Dr. Wood and Sam Hughes took great care to speak after Mr. Hopkins. The people are beginning to wonder why Mr. Cruess does not appear on the platform with Rowdy Sam. Mr. Hopkins stated he had attended the Cruess meetings for three weeks and Mr. Cruess had dene nothing for the farmers and never went near them except at election time. Mr. Hopkins make a capital speech and delighted the audience as he scored point after point and made the separate school question so lively for them that Rowdy Sam wanningly complained that Mr. Hupkins was trying to make political capital out of it so completely had Mr. Hopkins turned the tables on him. Dr. Wood made a gentlemanly speech but mainly on Dominion politics. Sam Hughes followed with his usual stock speech, abounding with rowly abuse of everybody, so that he is known as "Rowdy Sam." His reference to Mr. Folliott was particularly disgusting and will lose Mr. Cruess many votes. Wood and Sam Hughes speaking in behalf of

Dr. McKay's Meetings.

Mr. J. A. Barron, M. P. addressed crowded public meetings at Hartley, Sebright and Dalrymple during the during the past week in the rymple during the during the past week in the interests of Dr. McKay. Mr. Barron delivered able and convincing addresses and satisfactorily discussed the questions of the day.

A successful meeting at Eden was held by Mr. Robt. Adam, Mr. W. Cameron and others, for Dr. McKay. Able addresses were given. A good vote will be rolled up at this place for Dr. McKay:

A spiendid McKay meeting at Fingerboardwas held Tuesday evening, Mr. Fred Shaver in the chair. Mr. J. A. Bucknell of Lind-ay opened the neeting with a neat address. D.R. Anderson followed with a brief but telling review of several public questions. Mr. Ellis of Ops appeared for the opposition and a young teacher named Fenton. Mr. Thos. Stewart then gave an admirable and convincing review of the leading questions with capital effect. Mr. Stewart was listened to with the closest attention and was heartly applauded.

Stewart was listened to with the closest attention and was heartly applauded.

At Brown's School House Wednesday evening an enthusiastic meeting was addressed by Mr. J. F. Cunnings, Dr. McKay, Mr. W. Eyres and Mr. Thos. Stewart. There was no opposition. Ma. Smith Clark occupied the chair. A full vote may be expected at Brown's.

Capital meetings were held at Ramsay's (Mr. Purvis in the chair) and at Black's (Mr. Eyres in the chair) and addresses delivered by Mr. Thos. Stewart and Mr. J. F. Cunnings, and by Mr. Stewart, Mr. Eyres and Mr. Bowes.

Other successful meetings have been held with the moet satisfactory results.

Mr. Hughes claims that the platform issued by him, headed, "Electors, on which platform will you stand," is approved of by Mr. Cruess and Mr. Meredith. At the Manilla meeting three weeks ago Mr. Cruess and the had not read it, and for the last three weeks you cannot get him on the platform with Sam Hughes. As regards Mr. Meredith's approval, Mr. G. H. Hopkins has at meeting after meeting offered Mr. Hughes $25 if he would produce one with Meredith's approval endorsed; but Sam refuses and anys the electors will take his word. Will there? Delamere Withdraws from the Field

FENELON FALLS, May 29. The nomination for East Victoria took place here to-day, Mr. Jas. Junkin being returning officer and Mr. R. H. Hepkins clerk.

Mr. Jehn Fell was nominated in the conservative interest and Mr. J. B. Campbell as the ministerial candidate, Mr. J. H. Delamere was nominated but withdrew from the field. A large number of electors being present the candidates delivered addresses. Mr. Delamere, though he supported the Meredith policy generally, could not support the present Meredith candidate. He charged the opposition in the Ontario house with sad neglect of duty and also the late member for East Victoria (Mr. Fell) with the same. He said Mr. Fell should have found fault with the parliament building expenditure on the floor of the house instead of Mr. Campbell made one of his characteristic speeches with good effect. The meeting was largely in Mr. Campbell's favor.

Mr. Campbell's Meetings. Mr. Campbell has had a splendid series of neetings in the northern parts of the ricing, and will be in the southern portions the next few days. See advt. elsewhere. He is going to sweep the north country; they are going for him to a man. Let the full vote in the south come out and give Campbell a good majority.

DROWNED WHILE FISHING.—About seven o'clock Wednesday morning Alfred York, his son George, John and James Sullivan and Henry York, who all live a few miles from Uxpridge, were fishing for suckers at Pefforlaw, when George York, aged seventeen, met his death by drowning. He waded into a sort of whiri-pool for the purpose of driving out the fish and for the purpose of driving out the fish and got beyond his depth. His body was recovered in about half an hour, and every effort made to resuscitate him, but with

A SACRED SONGSTER.—There was a very large congregation on Sabbath in the Methodist church at Mr. Curts' evening service. It was announced that Miss Waltz, the famous soprano singer from Toronto, who carried the hearts of our people here by storm on the 21th, would likely favor the congregation with a solo. She was good enough to sing four, "Gates ajar," "Boulan land," "I sing of my Redeemer" and "One sweetly solemn thought." It needs no reassurance to say the people present were deligated.

A Fine Address.—Ald. Tait's speech here last Friday is highly spoken of by all who heard it. Even conservatives admired its tone and admits its able and fair presentation of the questions at stake, The reformers are immensly pleased with it. Mr. Tait has greatly increased his popularity in Mariposa. Mr. Barron's speech was also liked by the people.

OBITS.—The grim messenger death visited our village twice during the past week, and called away two of our leading citizens. The first was Mr. John Godfrey, who was in apparent health till Tuesday noon, when he was seized with a violent pain in the region of the heart. A doctor was summoned and pronounced it neuragia of the heart, which carried off is vic'im after about ten hours of extreme suffering. The second was Mr. William B. Read, who has been ailing about three months, but was freed from his suffering by death on last Wednerday night. As both of the gentlemen were Masons the Masonic order attended their funerals, together with a large concourse of friends and relatives, all of whom sympathized deeply with the surviving members of the families in their sad bereavement.

FIREMEN'S CONCERT.-A grand concert was held in connection with our fire com-pany on last Monday evening, in the town hall. An excellent programme, consisting of recitations, choruses, duetts, music by the orchestra, and last but not the least, a play entitled "The Little Rebel," which almost brought the house down, was carried out in good style. Altogether a most pleasant evening was spent. Proceeds amounted to about $50.

Township electors, do you want the ballot? Why should it be forced on you, and each section put to an expense of $12 to hold an election. That is about what it costs at each poling place now. Mowat's policy is to give it as everybody who wants it, but not to force either vubits or separate schools to adopt it against thair wishes.
