R. NEILL

The Shoe King,

Having purchased the well-assorted Stock of the late L. Maguire some days previous to his decease at a low rate on the dollar, is now prepared to offer decided bargains to all comers in the old stand.

The Stock must be disposed off quickly, as possession of the premises must be given up in couple of months, and it will not pay to move elsewhere; consequently we have decided to inaugurate a Boom in the BOOT AND SHOE LINE that will be felt from one end of Victoria County to the other—aye, even further.

Warner & Perry.

WE ARE NOT ONLY HOLDING OUR OWN,

BUT OUT-STRIPPING OUR COMPETITORS

Any one seeing the number of cases in front of our store on Tuesday and Wednesday would think we had GONE MAD; but nothing of the kind has occurred. It was simply cases filled with a Toronto Bankrupt Stock of General Dry Goods: HOSIERY, GLOVES AND READY-MADE DRY GOODS, Etc., Etc., bought at less than 50 cts. on the dollar being received.

Although we have given Big Bargains in the past we feel confident that in this last purchase we have secured the finest line of goods and lowest prices yet offered.
