THE LIBERAL LEADERSHIP.

A great deal is being said in certain liberal papers about the leadership of the liberal party. An impression has gone abroad in some way that Mr. Laurier, who is in every respect an admirable political leader, may not be as successful in Ontario as a leader from this province. There may unhappily be in Ontario a prejudice to be played upon just as in Quebec the Tories who now clamor for "equal rights" did not scruple to excite prejudice against Mr. Joly because of his Protestantism. The people of this province should look at matters from a higher standpoint. We are satisfied that so far as reformers are concerned there is no feeling of this kind against Mr. Laurier; but in considering practical questions in connection with the next campaign the pros and cons of the leadership may receive consideration. It is not to be forgotten that Mr. Laurier accepted his present position with the greatest reluctance when the ill-health of Mr. Blake made the selection of another leader necessary. Mr. Blake's health has been in a very large measure restored, and if there is to be any change in the leadership it is quite obvious that it can be made only in one direction. Happily the relations of Mr. Blake and Mr. Laurier are of such a cordial and even affectionate character that there is no danger of any difficulty arising in connection with a delicate question of this kind. Mr. Laurier would have no hesitation in laying down the reins for Mr. Blake, but we take it, for Mr. Blake's sake, that would accord with the circumstances under which Mr. Laurier was induced to accept the leadership. It would not accord with Mr. Blake's personal wishes, for his earnest desire is to continue to give his country his services as a private member. He has no other ambition to gratify. It is satisfactory to know that whether Mr. Laurier remains in his present onerous position or whether he elects to retire to his old place of first lieutenant he will receive from Mr. Blake, or will accord to him, the heartiest and most generous support.

Since the foregoing was in type the following letter by Mr. Blake to the editor of the Globe has been printed: MAMON ROCHE, PORTER ST. P. O. June 26th, 1890. Sir—My attention having been called to the fact that your recent article has given circulation to the idea of resuming the leadership of the liberal party, I beg to say that there is not a more desirous to resume than I am to resume or to resign that post. My only wish is that the confidence and affection of liberal and conservative alike should be directed to the place which I occupy in the liberal party, and I have, etc.

"LOW TARIFF OR ANNEXTION"

This is the rather startling head-line of a leading article in the Hamilton Times, a paper that delights in calling a spade a spade and that could not be induced to call it "an agricultural implement." The Times is ridiculing an article in the Toronto World discussing the leadership of the liberal party, and after expressing its unswerving devotion to free trade goes on in this startlingly candid way: "We want free trade, not only with the United States, but with Great Britain and the rest of the world. We believe it to be not only desirable, but attainable and practicable. We are more anxious for the thing itself than about the means by which it shall be obtained. If annexation offers the shortest road to free trade, we have no sentimental attachment to the mother country to hinder us from obtaining the maximum of bonum for our own country. If Canadians will do their duty toward themselves, they can have free trade without annexation, and without renunciation of British connection. The N. P. has done more to promote annexationist sentiment than any other agency since the downfall of the family compact. It has made Canadian taxes high and Canadian people poor. It has driven our sons and daughters across the border. It has made our public debt much greater per head than that of the United States. It has so fixed Canada, that unless a radical change is soon made in our system of taxation, it will simply be a question whether Canadians annex themselves to the United States as individuals, or take their country with them. For, when the United States tariff is paid off, and the United States debt is reduced according to the necessities of the revenue, Canada cannot hold her population under a high tariff. Seeing the danger ahead, it behooves Canadians to get ready for it. To keep on increasing our debt and our taxation, for the sole purpose of enriching a few monopolists at the expense of the great body of wealth producers, may be the Toronto World's idea of patriotism. But Canada cannot become strong and independent under such a policy. If annexation is to be averted, the Canadian tariff must be reduced."

There is a great deal of plain, hard, common sense in what the Times says, and the electors who think should ponder over the situation as thus depicted. But it must be kept in mind that the problem to be solved is not a simple one, but one most complicated and vexatious.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Gen. Middleton has resigned at last, and now all the papers are advising him to go to farin parts. Those who shared in the fur spoils should be compelled to resign and pay up as well.

Col. Rhodes, minister of agriculture in the Mercer cabinet, has been found by the recount to be in the minority by five votes, and Mr. Johnson, the conservative, gets the seat for Meagan. Col. Rhodes has retired to private life.

It must send a cold thrill through the imperial federalists to read that England is importing tea from Norway. The Salisbury government should put a stiff duty on Norway tea and encourage the importation of the loyal Canadian article. Such an evidence of unselfish interest in the development of our resources would warm up the genuine Canadian heart to unbounded enthusiasm.

Mr. John Cameron, late general manager of the Globe, was entertained at a complimentary banquet at the reform club Saturday evening by leading reformers. Joined by many conservatives, Mayor Clarke presided. Many happy speeches were made bearing testimony to the esteem in which Mr. Cameron is held and wishing him all success. Mr. Cameron returns to London and the Advertiser, a paper which he established many years ago.

The columns of the Warbler last week contained another effusion from Dr. Clarke on the late election. It is not signed "Swipes," but strives to get into respect able company as "Observers" opinions. Why are not these letters signed "Swipes" it is because that notorious non de plume would stamp the production with disgrace and the doctor ought not to be ashamed of the well-known title. But is it not pitiful to notice the same spiteful spirit seeking occasion for gratification? In our "News of the Week" column will be found a very interesting description of the troubles that threaten the existence of the Salisbury ministry. The present combination, it is clear, cannot live much longer. The London Chronicle predicts the early reconstruction of the cabinet. It thinks Mr. W. H. Smith, leader in the commons, will be raised to the peerage; that Sir John Gorst will probably replace Mr. Balfour as chief secretary for Ireland; that Lord Hartington is likely to become prime minister; that Lord Salisbury will be secretary for foreign affairs; that Sir Henry James will be home secretary; and that perhaps Lord Randolph Churchill will receive a portfolio.

of his fellow graduates, except Mr. Hahn. To be in this relation to a university which now turns out about one hundred graduates a year in arts seems to be a very unusual and which must be taken into account.

Toronto has had a "summer carnival" the first four days of this week. It was a considerable success and attracted great crowds. Toronto should get up an August circus preliminary to the fall exhibition, and then run two or three winter ice skating festivals. It will give a select inner circle of the Toronto citizens a little more scope for display and enjoyment at the public expense, and increase the feeling that is becoming quite strong in the country town and cities regarding Toronto's greed and selfishness.

The Fort Hope Times nominates Mr. J. R. Stratton, the talented young representative of West Peterboro, for the vacant position of provincial secretary. The Times says: "Mr. Mowat should give the newspaper man a chance. He owes much to the press, and up to the present time he has been rather sparingly in recognizing his obligations to that potent power. Mr. Stratton's appointment would be esteemed a suitable acknowledgment, besides a just appreciation of merit and capacity for the proper discharge of the duties of the department. Mr. Stratton has all the necessary ability and 'go,' and we hope to see him elevated to the rank of a cabinet minister by a government of which he has been a very useful and energetic supporter." Mr. Stratton is one of the coming men, and it is quite likely that ere long he will reach a cabinet position. He could recognize the advertising department and place it on a better basis.

Because we have torn off the Watchman's "equal rights-independence" mask and shown it up as a straight tory organ, doing work for its party in the thin disguise it has been trying to wear, the junior organ tries to make it appear that we have some sort of fellow-feeling with the senior tory organ. That is a supremely ridiculous view. We do not believe that the Watchman has any sympathy with the ruffianism of the Warbler; but it is willing for party exigencies to pocket its self-respect and lend a helping hand to the local tory machine, "run" by the Warbler man. This from one professing such "independence" is not calculated to inspire respect. It would be bad enough in a party paper. But allowance must be made for the pressure and excitement of the closing weeks of the campaign. We are sorry to see the Watchman not only welcoming old "Swipes" back again to the columns of the senior tory organ, but urging him to repeat his attacks on local reformers and wishing him more power to his elbow. We did not suppose any newspaper in Canada with claims to a shred of respectability could be capable of extending a word of welcome and congratulation to a writer of the "Swipes" stamp.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The Lindsay Junior Tory Organ's Defense.

[To the Editor of THE POST.] Sir,—Our junior tory friend has a somewhat novel way to answer argument, that is, by trying to prove two wrongs make one right. Now, we will suppose all those dreadful things he says of the Mowat administration are just as bad as the Watchman appears to think they are. Would that be any excuse for an independent journal such as the Watchman professes to be to defend political jobbery, found wherever it may be. Of course your intelligent readers know that those stale charges against the Mowat government have been answered as often as put forward; it is quite out of place to refer to them here, only to remark: Why don't those fellows bring these things up on the floor of parliament, formulate their charges, and if they can prove anything corrupt then it will be quite proper to equal as our friend did last week. But to return: Our friend in the issue of June 12th, referring to the Boboysago, Ponty and Lindsay railway said: "We do not suppose any newspaper in Canada with claims to a shred of respectability could be capable of extending a word of welcome and congratulation to a writer of the "Swipes" stamp. Upon the trade question the liberal party have spoken with no uncertain sound; their policy is and will be before the electors; and we would be greatly pleased to know where our "independent" friend stands in this matter. A. L. MITCHELL, Lindsay, July 1, 1890.

ANOTHER GLADSTONIAN VICTORY.

A Liberal Victory Foretold by Rejection. The parliamentary election at Barrow-in-Farres Wednesday, the outcome of which has been looked forward to with much interest and considerable anxiety by all parties, resulted in a victory for the Gladstonian candidate. The vacancy was caused by the resignation of W. S. Cairns, a liberal-nationalist, who wished to test the feeling of his constituency regarding the housing clauses of the local taxation bill relating to the compensation of publicans and who resigned just before the clauses referred to were dropped by the government. The vote was as follows: DUNCAN (Gladstonian).....1024
WATKINS (Conservative).....1022
CAIRNS (Liberal-nationalist).....1020
In 1886 Cairns was elected by vote of 3213 against 1832 for Ainsworth (home rule).

Among those whose support Mr. Cairns suddenly expected were self-complacent grounders, if upon no other was Sir Wilfrid Lawson, and to that gentleman Mr. Cairns on Tuesday addressed a cordial message which he wrote the following week of the eleventh chapter of the second book of Samuel: "And he wrote in the letter saying, set ye Uriah in the fore front of the brevier books and retire ye from him that he may be nation and die." THE DECADES OF OXFORD COUNTY.

The Woodstock Standard-Review publishes some interesting figures from official sources showing the relative condition of wealth and population in the municipalities of Oxford during the past ten years. The Standard-Review says: These statistics are valuable for many reasons. Oxford is one of the most rapidly growing municipalities of Ontario. If, therefore, its progress is not satisfactory, it may safely be presumed that the same is true, and with greater force, of the rest of the country.

An analysis of these figures reveals some suggestive facts. We find that the assessed value of the townships has dropped $1,001,500 in ten years and although it has increased $1,201,000, in the whole county it has increased $200,000.

The population of townships has decreased 200,000, and villages it has increased 3,700; in the county it has increased only 2,700.

The assessment of Woodstock has increased $1,201,000, the population 3,424.

If Woodstock has had failure to grow in population during the last ten years the county would have been less in population than it was ten years ago by 635.

Woodstock has had an increase of population of one-sixth of the population.

Each individual in the county is entitled, according to the assessed value, to $310. While those living in the townships are entitled to $285, those in the towns are only entitled to $270.

Woodstock has retained a closer ratio between her assessment and population than any of the other municipalities.

The increase in population is far below what the assessed increase, and the increase in assessed value is hardly worth mentioning.

Now, let every one sit down and study the figures and consider their import. Oxford has been called by some authorities and is widely known as "the garden of Canada." Anyone who will now drive through it will declare it to look a paradise of beauty; and there is no more frugal, industrious and happy population on any similar area in the world. On the surface all the conditions of prosperity seem to be found in this favored county: a fertile soil adapted to every phase of farming; an almost ideal population, chiefly Scotch, a goodly proportion of English, German and Irish, and a valuable element from the New England States. A country settled by such people could scarcely remain stationary. Then it has good roads and railway facilities, intersected as it is in half an hour by branches of three great systems; and it is the home of one of the greatest of all Canadian industries—cheese making—which has done more than any other cause to keep our farmers from going back, as they have in other districts. Still, in spite of all these favorable conditions, the county has made no progress in ten years—or even more. It has remained stationary both in population and wealth, taken as a whole; while most parts of it have actually been retrogressive. And here it should be borne in mind that the assessed value is scarcely a fair guide. It is certain that farm lands have decreased in this period from 20 to 40 per cent. The assessors have not taken account of this; but seem to have kept along at about the old figures.

It is not our purpose to-day to analyze the causes that have led to the facts which these figures reveal. It cannot be said that Oxford is an old district incapable of more growth. Even here there is still a good deal of unoccupied land; while every part is capable of sustaining a much larger population than at present. The growth of Woodstock is due chiefly to special causes—the centring of railways and industries here. The other towns and villages, with a few exceptions, have been stationary. The hopes held out in all directions some years ago have proved illusory. The reality is no progress. Why is this? We direct the attention of those journals which declare, without reference to proof, that the country is prosperous, to the facts about Oxford. The more they are studied the less probable appears to our citizens. Can anyone explain them away or extract comfort from them?
