LEADERS WHO WIN. The Hamilton Times takes a superficial view and disregards most powerful factors in deciding the last two Dominion elections...

The Rev. Dr. Rose of Toronto, one of the venerated fathers of the Methodist church, was "coiled home" on Wednesday last week. He was a pioneer missionary and worker and had for years taken a leading and influential part in the Methodist church...

It appears there has not been regular observance of certain sections of the public health act on the part of several local doctors, and for their benefit and the benefit of the public Dr. Coitler publishes the sections, and gives notice that strict observance will be required.

It is considered most likely that Mr. Ballantyne of South Perth will be nominated for the speakership of the next Ontario assembly. The practice in this country is for each new house to elect a new speaker, and over the deliberations of the local house of last year Hon. R. M. Wells, Col. Clarke and Dr. Baxter have presided.

The Bradford Expositor remarks that the Lindsay Post, "one of the most ably edited of the Ontario weeklies, and also a staunch reform journal, throws a dash of ice-cold water on Mr. Wiman's proposal to make a sort of procession through Ontario next year. It says:

"We will not be prepared to witness a display of energy and eloquence to deny the fact that it is among the possibilities that some day from the new France may come a patriotic laborer in imperishable bronze for a statue in honor of Wiman's gallant services to the people of Canada."

Our Bradford contemporary continues: "The Expositor has felt that way ever since Mr. Wiman's trip was reported. The people of Canada are, we believe, heavily indebted to Mr. Wiman for the interest he has been putting forth to advance their national interests, but any such campaign as that proposed would not be kindly received. It certainly would not promote the interests of the liberal party or of any of the numerous unrestricted reciprocity. On the other hand, Mr. Wiman and the liberate are in complete accord, but he holds other views of the political character of the 'liberal' party, and they are therefore not prepared to accept him as their special champion."

A Great Work. In this day of rush and haste much is only half done or might better have never been done at all—and nowhere is this more true than in the case of literary efforts of various kinds. For several years past there have been spasmodic attempts to apply the long felt want of a good map of the Dominion, but the general demand has not been fully met until now, in the production of "The Dominion's New Commercial Map and Directory of Canada."

republic. But that would be an unfair way to put the case, for it is known that money countries employed elected Mr. Blake. "Free trade" is an impossibility for Canada, and Mr. Blake was simply honest and straightforward in stating at Malvern what he would state to-morrow if he were addressing the electors, that the necessities and obligations of the country—incurred through the recklessness and extravagance of the Macdonald ministry—are so pressing and heavy that the question—the watchword of the day—must be tariff reform and reciprocity; an economy and prudence in administration and expenditure that will permit tariff reduction, that will render monopolies impossible, and that will secure reciprocity in the largest possible measure. All this cannot be done in a day, and if the country does not want this general policy they can take their choice and renew the term of the Macdonald administration. They can continue their support of extravagance, corruption, Rykterism and reckless expenditure, they can maintain monopolies and declare still more strongly against reciprocity. If they do they will have to pay at some not distant day heavy penalties for their indifference and want of public spirit.

EDITORIAL NOTES. The Masonic grand lodge at Kingston unanimously elected John Ross Robertson of Toronto grand master. Mr. Robertson has for many years been an active and enthusiastic member. Hon. J. M. Gibson of Hamilton was elected deputy grand master.

It is a very decided protest against Sir Adolphe Caron remaining at the head of the "war department" has been sent to Ottawa largely signed by militia officers. It looks as if Sir Adolphe might be "hurled" from office, if the weather is not too hot to render the observation pertinent.

The town council have decided not to advance the number of tavern licenses from eleven to fourteen. Rev. Mr. Johnson made an able and eloquent address to the council against the increase; and Captain Crandell deemed it proper to make unwelcome comments and insinuations regarding the minister's action. Captain Crandell's conduct on this occasion deserves severe condemnation.

The Rev. Dr. Rose of Toronto, one of the venerated fathers of the Methodist church, was "coiled home" on Wednesday last week. He was a pioneer missionary and worker and had for years taken a leading and influential part in the Methodist church, holding responsible positions, the duties of which he discharged with great fidelity. One of the family of four surviving is Mr. Justice Rose, who is the worthy son of a worthy father.

It appears there has not been regular observance of certain sections of the public health act on the part of several local doctors, and for their benefit and the benefit of the public Dr. Coitler publishes the sections, and gives notice that strict observance will be required. Some doctors neglect to have houses plastered as required by law because their patients object. Those doctors who are careful to observe the law are placed at a disadvantage. The medical health officer should see that the law is observed by all.

It is considered most likely that Mr. Ballantyne of South Perth will be nominated for the speakership of the next Ontario assembly. The practice in this country is for each new house to elect a new speaker, and over the deliberations of the local house of last year Hon. R. M. Wells, Col. Clarke and Dr. Baxter have presided. Mr. Ballantyne is an old member, and he has the experience, training and ability to discharge efficiently the responsible duties of the position. He has in addition a personal dignity and courtly bearing that will render him a worthy presiding officer, and a kindly manner and genial disposition that we predict will make his speakership a success. Mr. Ballantyne's presence will appear to advantage in the speaker's chair, and his clear voice will be appreciated all over the house. This selection will be eminently satisfactory to the house and country, and we hope to see Mr. Ballantyne the next speaker.

LINDSAY TOWN COUNCIL. The Lindsay Town Council met on Monday evening last at the usual hour in the Town Hall. THE PROPOSED TOWN CLOCK. Dep.-revere Fisher, chairman, read the report of the special committee appointed to consider the wisdom of purchasing the clock at present a silent fixture in the tower of the Baptist church. The report stated that a skilled workman from Toronto had examined the clock and pronounced it an excellent one, but in need of some repair. The sum of $100 would place it in thorough order, when it would be worth about $400. REPORT OF THE POLICE COMMITTEE. Coun. Brown, chairman, read the report, which recommended that the assistant constable be asked to send in his resignation, owing to his having been absent from duty for several hours on the morning of July 13th. Brown said he thought the committee was acting a little too hastily in recommending that the resignation be accepted, and he thought it would be better to let the constable have some consideration might be shown; however, he left it to the council to say what should be done. —Dep.-revere Lemson said the proposed resignation was entirely correct; even in Toronto a constable was not allowed to resign. —Coun. Crandell seconded Dep.-revere Lemson's motion. —The report was adopted.

ROBBINS CIRCUS TO VISIT LINDSAY. The celebrated and popular Robbins' circus is now working its way westward from Montreal and will exhibit in Lindsay on Friday, August 2nd. The circus is a double museum, a double spectacular production, a monster Roman and modern hippodrome, an arid and a deep-sea aquarium. The exhibition and performance in Montreal the last Saturday night were the vision of a spectator at a circus, still some of the items on the program are worthy of the name of a circus. The double trapeze act by M. Clopas Gonzales and Senorita Elva Senorita hanging from the bar by her feet, with the aid of two rings, held her brother in mid-air for so long a time that it excited surprise when she again resumed her ordinary position on the trapeze, her brother in the meantime performing many difficult feats. There was no support but a pole some fourteen feet in length, bringing from the top of a tent, introduced several features of a circus, still some of the items on the program are worthy of the name of a circus.
