visiting relatives in Manilla.... Messrs.
H. Glendenning and Hall, who were prospecting in Haliburton, have returned after spending a very pleasant two weeks' holi-days.

HARVESTING.—The harvest is all in the barns once more. The grain is yielding fairly well.

IMPORTED CLYDES.—Mr. S. Johnston, the thorough-bred stock importer, has just returned from Scotland, having brought with him five flue thoroughbored horses. One of them, three years of age, weighs 2 050 lbs. Mr. Johnston is not as leep when buying horses as he never purchases any but the best. FRUIT THIEVES CAUGHT. -Two boys un known in this place went out stealing pears. They picked on a fine pear tree of Mr. S. Wallia's. While in the tree the boys were happily congratulating themselves upon their luck and viewing one another in making describes in the describes in t selves upon their luck and viewing one another in making degrading remarks upon the owner of the fruit who was all this time hidden in close proximity to the tree. A Western Visitor.—Last week Mrs. G. Pearce, Manilla, and her sisters were made happy on seeing their brother. Mr. Buckingham, of whom they had not heard for thirteen years. Mr. Buckingham wisely went west to seek his fortune. He has been getting $1,200 per annum for the last eight years, "Go thou and do likewise." Harvest Dinner.—The harvest dinner held in connection with the Methodist S.S. on the 31st Aug. and 1st Sept., was a great success. From the very start the people fell into line and took willingly their part. Many fresh hands deserve our sincere thanks for their faithful work. The village ladies and young men helpers made the church look most beautiful. Many thanks to those who so cheerfully loaned their choicest flowers for the adornment of the church. The children's service on Sunday after drew an immense crowd. The sermon by Rev. D. C. McDowell of Sunderland was very appropriate and greatly enjoyed. The Rev. J. Curtis of Oakwood, et 6 30 p.m., gave a practical discourse not soon to be forgotten.... Monday afternoon the scholars acquitted themselves nobly. At four p.m., the hour for dinner, the old church was the place of attraction. Warm vegetables, reast fewl, chicken pie, hot coffee, blane-mange and jelly were in immense demand. At 8 o'clock we opened the evening entertainment with a well filled church. The singing by the church choir was heartily applanted and encored. We had addresses by these young men: the Rev. Mr. Pritchard of the Congregational church of this village, spoke on "The Perfect Man," and gave some choice advice to the boys. Rev. Mr. Bamforth of Oakwood took for his subject "Life! what is It?" and made an excellent impression. The last speaker was Rev. Mr. Spence of Little Britain, who dwelt on "Character," and made some capital points. From the many commendations respecting our dinner we conclude that the people were well satisfied, as the superintendent and cificers are with the sum of $65 clear for the Sunday school. sum of $65 clear for the Sunday school.

PUBLIC SCHOOL PICNIC.—A union picnic composed of Port Hoover, Fingerboard and Branifs schools, was held last Friday afternoon in Mr. Beecroft's maple grove. The day was everything that could be desired, and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. For many years Zion has been noted for its excellent entertainments and social gatherings, but the picnic of last Friday was the most pleasing and enjoyable affair that has taken place at Zion for some time past. The Rev. Mr. Currie of Sonya occupied the chair and an interesting program was rendered by the pupils of each school in a very creditable manner, followed with lively speeches by the Rev. Mesers. Bamforth, Spence, McGlivery and Dr. Vrooman. A vote of thanks was given to the chairman and speakers and the singing of God man and speakers and the singing of God save the queen brought the proceedings to a close. The teachers, Mesers. Burden of Port Hoover, Henderson of Fingerboard and Purvis of Braulis, may feel justiy proud of the success that attended their efforts, and the result but voices the sentiment of their respective sections as to the esteem and popularity in which they are held.

Our directors should invite Lord Aberdeen to visit us on the lst. Ocr. Why not? He would be quite likely to accept the invitation.
