

Peterboro Business College. Peterboro' Business College. G. S. BEA. ALEX. BLANCHARD, Principals. Business College. R. Smyth & Son.

Preparing to Wind Up Business.

R. SMYTH & SON. Opposite the Market, have commenced a Special Sale of all their Stock of Dry Goods, Millinery, Ladies' Jackets and Mantles, Furs, Ready-Made Clothing, Carpets, Gentlemen's Furnishings, Etc.

In order to carry out their arrangements they will be obliged to proceed for immediate collection of all overdue notes and accounts.

R. SMYTH & SON, Opposite Market. Lindsay, Oct. 5, 1890.

New Advertisements.

FARM TO LET. South Hf. Lot 6, Con. 7, Kildon, 100 acres cleared; brick dwelling, good barns with stone stables, Apply to H. CAMERON, Woodville, Oct. 2, 1890.

FOR SALE. Two hundred acres, Lot 8, in 3rd Con., Huxley. One hundred acres cleared; good buildings; young orchard; excellent well and living spring; convenient to school, church and P. O. A mile and a quarter from railroad. Terms low. For more information apply to H. H. Huxley, P. O. Oct. 8, 1890.

WILLIAM DUFFUS. PRACTICAL ARCHITECT. Designer of all kinds of buildings in Modern and Medieval Styles of Architecture. Wood and Iron Bridges, etc.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY. 8 MORE ONE WAY PARTIES. To the Pacific Coast. will leave Toronto at 11 p.m. on Fridays, as under:

September 19, October 3, 17, 31, November 14, 28, December 12, 26, 1890. running through to Vancouver without change.

FAMILY APARTMENT EXCURSION. Passes will be supplied with cooking ranges, mattresses, pillows, curtains, sheets, pillow cases, carpets, tables, etc., and will be under the charge of a competent porter, who will make up the berth, keep the berth clean and tidy, and in other ways attend to the wants and comfort of our passengers.

THE HARTFORD FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY. I have much pleasure in acknowledging the five days after the receipt of the amount in full of my claim against the Hartford Insurance Company for loss on my stock of goods in the recent fire here.

S. CORNEIL, AGENT. McLennan & Co. Sign of the Mill Saw, SOUTH SIDE OF KENT-ST. LOWEST PRICES.

SHOT GUNS, RIFLES, POWDER, SHOT AND SHELL, CLOTHES WRINGERS, TABLE AND POCKET KNIVES, ENGLISH AND AMERICAN CARVERS, ALSO LOCKS, KNOBS AND HINGES.

McLennan & Co., SCRANTON FOR THE CELEBRATED SCRANTON COAL. Delivered at Lowest Rates. Lindsay, Aug. 7, 1890.

Real Estate and Insurance

J. H. SOUTHERAN. REAL ESTATE AND MONEY BROKER. FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE AGENT. AGENT FOR THE FIRE INSURANCE ASSOCIATION OF LONDON, ENGLAND.

MONEY TO LOAN on Mortgages at lowest current rates. MONEY TO LOAN on Approved Endorsed Notes at lowest rates. MORTGAGES BOUGHT AND SOLD. REAL ESTATE bought and sold on commission.

Properties for Rent. My Office is the proper place to rent your property and procure good tenants. At the present time I have a great number of applications for the above mentioned property.

Properties to Exchange. Farm in the Township of Fenelon to exchange for dwelling house in Lindsay.

Farms for Sale. $7,500—Farm in the Township of Ope, within one mile of Lindsay, 100 acres choice farm, 2 story brick dwelling, frame barn, 40 x 80 ft, with stone foundation and well equipped with other outbuildings. Terms $5,500 down, balance easy at 6 per cent.

$8,000—Farm in the Township of Ope, 100 acres, 2 story brick dwelling, 30 x 70 ft, stable, 30 x 30 ft.

$4,000—In Township of Ope, 200 acres, with privilege of buying adjoining 100 acres for $20 per acre if purchaser desires; two good dwelling houses with stone foundations, three barns, with stone foundation under large barn, 40 x 80 ft. An excellent farm, $5,000 down, balance to suit at 6 per cent.

NOTICE. As I intend making a regular business of REAL ESTATE, LOANING AND INSURANCE I invite everybody who may have business in any of the above lines to call and see me.

J. H. SOUTHERAN. OFFICE—2nd door west of the new Post Office, Kent-st., Lindsay. Lindsay, June 26th, 1890.

The Canadian Post.

LINDSAY, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1890. TOWN AND COUNTY. DASHES HERE AND THERE.

Fall Balls. Hysaetha, Narcissa, Crocus, Jonquilla, Lily of Valley, etc., at E. GREGORY'S—30-4.

Mantles and Mantle Cloths, away down, at the City Store, A. McCrimmon, Mgr. 17-4.

Brown's Magnetic Oil cures pain in the back and kidney troubles.—19-4.

Lovely Ties at the City Store, Men's Kid Gloves, any style and shade. A. McCrimmon, Mgr.—17-4.

Miss Mary Ahern. H. W. Fegan, Rich. Hinden, the Devine Sisters, Lentin Lewis, Mabel Pierce, Reo & Mack, Collier, Mayo & Hurd, in their newest and latest specialties, at the opera house, Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 11th and 13th. Plan at Porter's.—22-1.

A Full Range of Colored Hosiery Cloths at the City Store. A. McCrimmon, Mgr.—17-4.

A Good Fit is a shoe-thing at BRYAN & Co.'s Boot and Shoe Store, first door east of Daly house, Kent-st., Lindsay.—19-4.

Warm Underwear. Women's and Misses and Men's and Boy's Underwear in all the warmest makes. W. W. WARREN & FRANK. 21-2.

Prof. Lockhart, the peer of America's slack-wire performers, Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 11th and 13th. opera house. Prices 15c, 25c, and 50c. Seats now on sale at Porter's.—21-1.

Military and Mantle Making. Mrs. MITCHELL, having opened her millinery department and having a milliner from Toronto with the latest fashions in Hats and Bonnets, is prepared to show to the ladies the very latest styles in Millinery.

Prof. Lockhart, the peer of America's slack-wire performers, Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 11th and 13th. opera house. Prices 15c, 25c, and 50c. Seats now on sale at Porter's.—21-1.

The Question of the Day. Have you examined the address label on your paper? Paid Up? For This Post? That is the Duty of the Hour.

Supper and Presentation. Monday evening last a number of friends of Mr. Ed. Johnston, for some years past manager of the telephone agency here, entertained him at a complimentary supper at the Royal restaurant, previous to his departure for Toronto to take a position in the head office—a promotion justly merited, by the way.

Local Events. Fresh Oysters daily at A. B. Terry's.—21-3. Buy the Best. Terry's last-price Bread.—21-3. Try the City Store for New Dress Plaids. They commence at 10c. A. McCrimmon, Mgr.—17-4.

Local Events. The new Parlor Boot and Shoe Store takes the lead in style and low price. BRYAN & Co.—19-4. This is the season when the mighty hunter goes forth with a bloodhound and returning "drawth a long bow."

Local Events. Messrs. Moore & Jackson are having comfortable and commodious offices fitted up in Dobson's block, second floor, west north of Lindsay.

Local Events. Messrs. Donald Sinclair, J. A. Williamson and Robert Sylvester were absent this week attending the fall meeting of the Bowmanville and Peterboro rifle associations.

Local Events. Read the western press as to the merits of the Great American Specialty Co. The program at the opera house two nights only, October 11 and 13. Prices 15c, 25c and 50c. Seats now on sale at Porter's.—21-1.

Local Events. Messrs. P. Tully and F. Jordan shipped a carload of hogs to the Montreal market Monday. The same day Messrs. Scully and Jordan despatched a carload of butcher's cattle to Toronto, realizing fair prices.

Local Events. Mr. Edward Reel, who resides in the township of Moonmouth, was in town Thursday and displayed some samples of phosphates found on his farm in large deposits. Montreal analysts have pronounced them a valuable one.

Local Events. We have received a communication to late for this issue dealing with one of the original plans for the children's stand and farmer's bazaar, and what should be the awards of $100, as stated in THE POST.

Local Events. A hunting party comprising six Buffalo gentlemen passed the afternoon in surveying the Haliburton district, where they have enjoyed excellent sport for several seasons past. They had a very comical accident with them.

Local Events. Brokenhearted Joe Miller, who had his hand badly crushed last week while coupling cars in the yard here, was this morning in the hospital, suffering from a portion of the injured member. Drs. Coulter and Simpson performed the operation.

Local Events. The hunters' excursion Tuesday to Midland and other northern points was fairly well patronized. Most of our sports, however, do their hunting in the Haliburton district, where they very few from town took advantage of the low fare.

Local Events. A meeting of the general committee connected with the reception of the vice-regal party was held Friday evening last. It was found that the committee should meet again (Friday) at 8 o'clock.

Local Events. Mr. L. M. Bowman, who has been engaged off and on for some months in surveying a large block of the Sturgeon Point hotel property into building lots, has finished his task. Some exceptionally good lots are the result, and no doubt they will sell rapidly.

Local Events. In a test made in the presence of a large number of farmers at the door and left ground, the force pump manufactured by Mr. Chas. H. Rega, whose advt. will be found elsewhere, threw a stream twenty feet further than the one handled by his competitor.

Local Events. Mr. Robert Blain has been awarded the contract for the construction and alterations, his tender being the lowest—$2,100 for the whole work. Operations will commence at once, and will be with Mr. Blain's characteristic vim and thoroughness.

Local Events. Captain Lane of the Esturion was presented with a very handsome ring by his excellency Lord Stanley before the vice-regal party, early this morning at Lakeside. Needless to say Maurice prizes the gift very highly, and there need be no manner of doubt as to the importance of the occasion when it is seen flying from the mast-head.

Local Events. Mr. Frank Curtis, who resides a little south of the town, came near losing a valuable cow Sunday last. The animal while frisking about jumped upon some boards covering an open well and broke through. Fortunately the accident was noticed and half a dozen men speedily extricated the animal unharmed save for a few scratches.

Local Events. A number of our musically inclined citizens have formed themselves into an orchestra club, and do not will delight Lindsay audiences frequently during the season. Messrs. Lamont and Watson are the conductors; Morgan and Williamson, 2nd tenors; Hart and Hardy, 1st basses; McCrimmon and Robson, 2nd basses. The club will rehearse at Lakeside.

Local Events. Mr. Chas. J. Lakeside writes as follows to the Peterboro Review: "In your report of the vice-regal visit to Lakeside I mentioned that I am mentioned among the few favored ones who were presented to the governor-general. If this is the case I desire to correct the statement, as I do not wish to be credited with any honor, however slight, which was not accorded me."

Local Events. Mr. L. M. Bowman, surveyor, visited Bob-cayson Wednesday at the request of Warden McQuade for the purpose of inspecting the wooden bridge near the Foree house, which was reported to be in a dangerous condition. This was verified upon examination, the timbers being very badly decayed. Temporary repairs were ordered to be made, and the structure will likely be replaced by an iron bridge early in the spring.

Local Events. Joe shipments from the north have been large during the past few months, and the whole of the 80,000 lbs. stored last season at Peelson Falls has been cleared out. Mr. Frank Blackman, agent for the Silver Lake Ice Co. Co. of Buffalo, which carries on business in the ice shipping from Rondeau, where Mr. C. J. Pusey had stored a large quantity. Mr. C. J. Smith is shipping a northern consignment of ice to ice dealers along the border.

Local Events. Late Tuesday evening a deeply-intoxicated individual approached Constable Reeves in a somewhat roundabout manner, to inquire whether he had been arrested somewhere out of town. Though taken somewhat by surprise at this proposition, Constable Reeves pulled himself together and answered the first one to the best of his ability, and having done so, he turned to the second, and, as he supposed, to the third. A few minutes later a passer-by noticed smoke rising from the pocket of the man, who was approaching, they quickly and quietly removed the man from the street, and found the culprit was a man who had been over a vigorous fire built in a corner of the room. The fire had been kindled by the partial combustion of the same-wet, and the man had been drinking. In the excitement of the moment the fire-bellows were blown, but a few pails of water extinguished the flames.

Cambridge College. Beautiful double-width Cambridge Suits at 50c a yard, at the City Store. N-4.

Well Mixed. These Walking Shoes at BRYAN & Co.'s Boot and Shoe Store, first door east of Daly house, Kent-st., Lindsay.—19-4.

Wood and Coal. Best Dry Tamarac, Ash, Maple and Birch Wood, cut any length by my steam saw. Prices right. Orders at once. R. D. TROTTER.—22-4.

Opera House—Two Nights Only. Oct. 14 and 15. The Great American Specialty Company in their varied program. See them. Prices 15c, 25c, and 50c. Plan at Porter's.—21-1.

Cashmerettes and Serges. See the New Cashmerettes and French Serges at WARREN & FRANK.—21-2.

We Play Two Nights. A guarantee that the company have no equal. Opera house, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 11 and 13. Prices 15c, 25c and 50c. Seats now on sale at Porter's.—21-1.

Y. M. C. A. Troupe. Sunday afternoon meeting at 4:15 in the rooms. Young men invited.

Amusement Notes. Last Saturday evening a committee [was] appointed to conduct a half-hour meeting every Saturday evening in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, commencing at 8 o'clock. All young men are cordially invited to come next Saturday evening.

Amusement Notes. Grey Bros. Kite Minstrel, with challenge gold band and operatic orchestra, will appear in Lindsay shortly. Particulars next week.

Amusement Notes. The American Specialty Co. will appear in Bradburn's opera house next Tuesday and Wednesday. The western pair alludes to the entertainment in glowing terms.

Amusement Notes. The concert by the celebrated Swedish ladies attracted a good audience to the opera house Tuesday evening. The concert was of a very high order of merit. Miss Day's humorous recitations were applauded.

Amusement Notes. The railway men and numerous friends have learned with regret of the sudden death of James Driscoll after a brief illness from heart disease in his forty-fifth year. The deceased had been a brakeman for many years and was on the Port Hope-Toronto run, being thrown on the spot where his death took place. He was a Lindsay boy, and was steady, industrious and generally esteemed. The remains were brought to Lindsay and the funeral took place Thursday from the residence of his mother on Georgian-st. It was largely attended, particularly by railway men.

Amusement Notes. The new station is finished and if gas fixtures arrive in time the station officials will move into their new quarters for next Monday. The new station is a handsome and stylish building, and a credit to the town as well as to the railway. The increased accommodation will be greatly appreciated, and by none more than the staff of officials who have been cramped and had ventilation of the old place. The train men and through passengers will also appreciate the improvement, as there will no longer be a delay backing in and getting out again.

Amusement Notes. The local railway men propose to give their annual concert on Wednesday, Oct. 12. The proceeds to be devoted to decorating and furnish their reading-room in the new station building. A program is being arranged that will furnish a first-class concert. The following well-known and popular artists have been secured: Mrs. Thompson, soprano; Mr. E. W. Schuch, baritone; Mr. W. E. Ramsey, comic; Master George Fox, violin; Mrs. Thompson, the dearest soprano. This will be her only appearance in Lindsay this winter, and should alone secure a crowd of music-lovers. It is always most successful in every respect, and the public may feel assured that the concert will be of the highest merit and therefore worthy of most liberal support.

Amusement Notes. Mr. Andrews, a divinity student, assisted the incumbent and preached two excellent sermons in St. Paul's last Sunday.

Amusement Notes. Rev. Mr. Cosgrove of Port Hope, a new-arrival, will preach in the pulpit of St. Andrew's church during Rev. Mr. Johnston's absence.

Amusement Notes. In Cambridge-st. Methodist church on Sunday next the Rev. Dr. Williams will preach to the Christian Endeavor Society in the morning, and in the evening a special sermon to young women, advised with them.

Amusement Notes. Reboro Baptist church people will hold an "autumn leaf" entertainment Wednesday evening next. The beautiful forest that they will compose the decorations for the occasion. An excellent program is being prepared.

Amusement Notes. Rev. Geo. W. Dewey will preach morning and evening in St. Paul's church on Wednesday evening next, 15th inst., at 8 o'clock. The Rev. R. Bryan, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, Toronto, will preach, and special music will be rendered by the choir. Mr. Bryan is one of the most eloquent of the younger preachers in the church, and a fine discourse may be expected. A silver collection will be taken up.

Amusement Notes. The semi-annual business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of this society are held every Monday evening in the Sunday school room. All young people will be welcomed at these meetings by the members of the society.

Amusement Notes. Mr. Ed. Johnston left for Toronto Thursday morning.

Amusement Notes. Mr. Geo. S. Patrick was in town for a few days this week on official business.

Amusement Notes. Mr. C. Johnston, manager of M. M. Boyd & Co.'s lumber interests at the port of Whitby, was in town Tuesday.

Amusement Notes. Mr. C. D. Cliff and the other members of the family of Mr. R. Cliff, remove this week to Hycamore, Ill., west of Chicago.

Amusement Notes. Messrs. S. S. Ritchie and Hugh Silver left Monday morning for Toronto to inspect their large factory now nearing completion at Mimico.

Amusement Notes. Mr. M. Russell of Deadwood, Dakota, paid a hurried visit to town during the past week. He was looking well, and was heartily welcomed by old friends.

Amusement Notes. Mr. Geo. S. Thompson, manager for the Parry Sound Lumber Co., has been in town for the past few days, enjoying a rest before starting on his return to Parry Sound.

Amusement Notes. Mr. Chant of Port Hope, representing the Oddfellows Covenant Mutual Benefit Association of Gatesburg, Ill., is in town on business connected with the association.

Amusement Notes. Mr. W. E. Byres, the estimable president of the reform association, has just returned from the Methodist general conference at Montreal, in whose deliberations he took an influential part.

Amusement Notes. Mr. George Walters, for some years past Mr. Neill's clever assistant in the dental business, left Tuesday morning for Toronto, where he will take a course in the Ontario dental college.

Amusement Notes. Rev. Robert Johnston, pastor of the Presbyterian congregation, left Monday morning with his mother for Kincardine, his former home, where he will enjoy a couple of weeks' needed rest.

Amusement Notes. Mr. Alex. Keith, son of Mr. Jas. Keith, who married at the last college graduation exam, left for Kingston Monday morning last, where he will take up a course of studies at Queen's university.

Amusement Notes. Mr. W. H. Musgrave, the passenger agent for the Muskoka line of steamers, was in town for a few days this week on business connected with the line in shipping a northern consignment of Link in an old Lindsay bay, and met a host of friends.

Amusement Notes. Mr. W. Meninger, the general mail clerk on the Haliburton division, was returned to his duties after a well-earned two-week's holiday, a portion of which was spent at Chatham, where he enjoyed a number of very fine masthorns and bass.

Amusement Notes. The Post-Press Observer says: "A respectable man has been made in our town by the removal of Mr. E. S. Campbell and his associates and interesting family, who have taken up their abode in Lindsay. They have expressed the sentiments of the town and its surroundings when we very much regret the loss of their services. The intelligent and enterprising people of Lindsay have a great opportunity in a desirable acquisition to their town. As a prompt and reliable business man Mr. Campbell has few equals."

THE KINMOUNT FIRE. It is true, was not caused by a spark from an old and worn-out Stove, but that many fires do occur in this way Insurance men well know. As a precaution against possible loss from the above cause, and as a protection against the coming cold snap, householders should call at once and inspect my fine assortment of Coal and Wood Ranges, Base Burners, Cooking Stoves, Parlor Heaters and Box Stoves. For elegance and beauty, quality of metal and other good points, these Stoves surpass anything heretofore offered in Lindsay. Call and inspect our different lines before purchasing. - - We Make a Specialty of Jobbing. - - All orders executed promptly and at reasonable prices. JOSEPH MOXLEY, Sign of the Big Kettle, Opposite Benson House. Lindsay, Oct. 2nd, 1890-21.

Warner & Perry. We Believe in keeping a well-lighted and CHEERFUL Store, where the tired Shopper may rest and feel thoroughly at home in their surroundings. TRY IT. We Believe in making every effort to buy goods at RIGHT PRICES, well-knowing that goods well bought may very properly be said to be half sold. HAVE YOU HEARD THIS BEFORE? We Believe in selling goods at RIGHT PRICES, knowing that among the residents of Lindsay and country are to be found some pretty good judges of values. OURS STAND THE TEST. We believe, finally, in blowing our own Horn—no one else seems willing to do it for us. Besides, we don't anyone else could do it as well or effectually. SO HERE GOES!

BLAST ONE. We have the brightest and most cheerful Store to be found in the Town of Lindsay.

BLAST TWO. All goods in our Store have been well Bought.

BLAST THREE. All goods sold fairly and cheaper than competitors can afford to offer them.

This is all for this week, except to mention that our sale of the M. McLEAN & CO. fine bankrupt Stock of Dry Goods and Clothing in our old Store next the Post Office, is a big success. WARNER & PERRY, The Great Bankrupt Stock Dealers. Lindsay, October 1st, 1890-21.