Mariposa fall show at Oakwood on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week had the great advantage of two splendid October days, and consequently the attendance was very large and everything passed off under the most pleasant circumstances.

The Mariposa fall show at Oakwood on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week had the great advantage of two splendid October days, and consequently the attendance was very large and everything passed off under the most pleasant circumstances.

There was an excellent and interesting display of poultry. Poultry is always an attractive feature, and it would be an advantage if a list of exhibitors could be provided.

The 'Infinite department' in the township hall were maintained at their usual high standards of excellence. In the dairy and domestic products and in fruits the exhibits were good and numerous.

Outside, Mauder & Robertson of Little Britain made a very creditable display of various goods. The display was well arranged and the commodities were of high quality.

Altogether Mariposa has good reasons to be proud of its annual show. But the thing all to go on and do better next year. We are indebted to the courtesy of the secretary for the following:
