THE HARTFORD INSURANCE COMPANY

I have much pleasure in acknowledging, five days after the fire, the receipt of the amount in full of my claim against the Hartford Incurance Company for loss on my stock of goods in the recent live here. The promptness of the settlement relieves me of all anxiety about my incurance, and enables me to give my whole attention and energy to setting my business running in full blact again, which I hope to be able to do in a few days. Rismount, Oct. 1st, 1800.

My claim against the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, arising through the recent fire in Kinmount, hee been enteractorily adjusted and gold within five days after the fire. I found the Empertor of the company to be gentlementy and fair in adjusting my loss. The agent, Mr. Cornell, had my insurance in such shape that there was not the slightest hitch or trouble whatever. The men inside were badly bruised and shakes up: George Clarke of Peterburo, foreman of the gang, had his side injured; Wm. Godfrey of Linday had a leg broken; and an Italian was also injured. The publisher of the Port Perry Standard mys: "We must confess that we are sadly dissted with the way our subscribers have ided to the call we made upon them last responded to the call we made upon them last week to pay up. We are in such a position that we must have money this month, and we again kindly ask those who are in arrears to remit their indebtedness at once. We endeavor to give a dollar's worth of news in a year's issue of the Standard, and a hard earned dollar it is, so we are asking no favor when we insist on subscriptions being paid."... The culpable negligence of subscribers is not confined to the Standard's list. A good many of The Post subscribers are equally negligent. Will have to hand 'em over to some lawyer to collect.

Sulky Ploughing Contest in Bidon-Vic-tory for Smith's No. 4 Sulky Plough. Test trial of Sulley Ploughs on farm of William Diron, Eag., Portage Road, Eldon. We, the undersigned farmers of this section have much pleasure in giving our united opinion that in the plough contest held this day on the farm of Mr. William Dixon, between the No. 4 Sulky Plough, made by Wm. Smith, Beaverton, and the No. 7 Sulky Plough made by Sylvester Bros. Lindsey, we unitedly give the preference to Smith's No. 4, for better work, and by far the most handy of the two in the field. —Mr. T. W. Evans of Top Gallant Farm, Yelverton, was in Montreal this week placing two fine specimens of trotting-bred stock safely on boarn ship for Scotland. One was the speedy geiding Little Fred, recently owned by Mr. F. Leith of Garden Hill. Little Fred was the winner of the "named race" at the Central fair at Lindsay last month, and has also won first honore at Port Hope, Millbrook and other points and although only a green 'un yet bide fair to become very speedy. His companion in transit is the four year old stallion Ontario Sprague, by Westorn Sprague, (22-9), recently owned by Mr. Robert Taylor of Biackstock. This animal is a dark bay, with black points, 16 hands high, is nicely galted and should make a creditable performer if developed. Mr. Evans is strongly of the opinion that animals of this stamp will make marked impressions in the "land o' cakes" as to Canada's capacity for breeding the ideal trotter or roadster.

The rider was thrown with such force that his skull was broken and the mare relied over him. The boy breathed but for a few minutes. His name was James Andrews, aged about 16 years, and was the son of a widow who lives in Kingston. The mare had to be shot.

-Mr. A. C. Garden of Barrie, who officiated as starter in the speeding events at the Central f.ir. was in town for a couple of days this week.

Mr. Garden made enquires as to the financial success of the fair, and also as to the likelihood of the agricultural society extending its borders and by this means acquiring sufficient land to make a regulation half-mile track. He states that if this were done it would certainly prove a boon to the breeding interests of this section and at the same time strengthen the hands of the association.
