Anderson, Nugent & Co. ONE OF INDIA'S RAJAHS. Has been known to pay the fabulous sum of £15,000 for a Bedroom Suite ordered from an English manufacturer; but then Rajahs and Town Councils are noted for their extravagance and other things, and their conduct usually is not such as should be copied by the public. A NIGHT'S SOUND REST. Can be enjoyed just as readily in a less pretentious bed than the above must have been. Likely enough it was inlaid with precious stones and enclosed by curtains of cloth-of-gold or other rare textile; the pillows probably were formed of the airiest swans'-down, and the Linen such as eastern maidens spend a lifetime weaving. We are confident our BEDROOM SETTS, while they might not suit the fastidious taste of an effete Rajah, will please the most of people both as to quality and price. We sell the best SPRINGS manufactured, and our SEAWEED MATTRESSES are veritable slumber cozzers. While we refer particularly this week to Bedroom Setts, our PARLOR SUITES appeal eloquently for a brief mention. We have them in HAIRCLOTH, PLUSH, etc., and elegant they are, for a fact. Call at our Warerooms and inspect the different lines we offer. We take a distinct pleasure in displaying them to ladies—no matter whether they purchase or not—for the reason that they are capable of appreciating the beautiful in whatever form it appears. ANDERSON, NUGENT & CO'Y, FURNITURE DEALERS, KENT-ST., NEAR THE MARKET. Lindsay, Oct. 23, 1890.—24. Spratt & Killen. POTATOES. WE WANT POTATOES. We will pay the Highest Price for any Quantity of GOOD SIZED, SOUND POTATOES for Delivery at any Station on the Midland Division G. T. R. SPRATT & KILLEN. P. S.—Would like to have samples of Alsike and Red Clover. Arch. Campbell. TWELVE MONTHS AGO. We were obliged to announce a Push-out Sale of Crockery and Glassware, owing to being considerably overstocked, and again we find ourselves in the same position and no help for it, and in consequence of this CROCKERY and GLASSWARE MUST BE MOVED OUT To Make Room for Fresh Purchases now on the Road. It may be that you are in need of a New DINNER SETT, an Elegant and Dainty TEA SERVICE, or a TOILET SETT; if you are here's your opportunity to get what you require for little money, and at the same time something durable. HANGING LAMPS. These lines are bound to sell readily at the prices set upon them—in fact, every one that leaves the store means a money loss to us. They are handsome in appearance and will adorn any home; besides, they constitute a real comfort. BOHEMIAN GLASSWARE. It's surprising what beautiful shapes and colors glass is made to assume now-a-days, and one of the prettiest lines is known as Bohemian. Still, we propose to dispose of these almost at your own prices. Call and see these goods. ARCH. CAMPBELL, Family Grocer, Kent-st. Lindsay, Oct. 23, 1890.
