-Two employees of the Ontario Paper Mill at Watertown met with a terrible death Saturday. They were lowering the flood gates at the flume when a long lever with which they were working elipped from their hands and swung around with great force, striking the men and inflicting injuries from which they some died. Their flumes were Sopher and McLaughlis.

-Two children of Wm. Ragiand of Amheretburg, Ont., a boy about three years of age and a girl about five—were playing upstairs in a room where their grandfather had cleft at night and had left a bottle of liniment, which he used for his shoulder. They got held of it, and in their play the little piri gave her brother a large dose of it. Two doctors worked with him for several house, but could not save the lad's life.

Three young soldiers near Warsaw returned from a debauch with blood on their clothes and the statement that they had beaten sometody they did not know. At the same time a sergeant in the regiment was found murdered, and the three soldiers were tried, convicted and shot within twenty-four hours. The next day another soldier surrendered as the murdamer.

Scotta and Emedate on Wednesday night of lest week. The train was near Emedate when after a turn in the road the engineer saw two men on the track and gave the usual warning, but too late, for one of them, Hane Johnson, a Swede, was usher ed into eternity by the train. The other man was so excited by the occurrence that he took a bee line down the track and did not return until the next day. The usual inquest, killed by secident on the railroad, was returned. Both men were intoxicated at the time of the accident. As no friends were to be heard from the body was laid to rest in a wooden box just as he was found, and interred in the cometery adjoining Randale.

The story of the saving of the crew of the Gloucester fishing schooler "Allos," dashed to pieces in the breakers under the citiff at Liagan Head, to most thrilling. In the gale of Monday the vessel's sails were blown away. Then she was driven with great violence into the breakers under the citiff, which is fifty feet high, and began to pound to pieces. The waters awept the deck and the crew were driven as far up the righting as they could get. Death apthe rigging as they could get. Death appeared inevitable.
