A concert and lecture will be held by the Catholic Literary Association in Bradburn's opera house, Lindsay, Monday evening, Dec. 22. The lecturer of the evening will be Dr. D. A. The secturer of the evening will be Dr. D. A. O'Sullivan, Q.C., of Toronto, and the subject "Points in the Early History of Canada." The doctor is favorably known as an able and interesting speaker and as the writer of several brilliant papers on early Canadian history. Our readers should not fail to hear Dr. O'Sullivan speak on some of the most interesting points in our early history. A number of ladice and gentlemen are in practice on the musical part of the program.

The Ortilia Times says: -A large number of friends assembled at the residence of Mr. J. —Mr. John Parker, caretaker of the agricultural park, is known to be a good-humored and contented individual, especially fond of a fact hore, of which variety he generally has two or three in his stable for training purposes. For several weeks past, however, his equable temper, has been subjected to a very severe strain owing to the surrepittious results of some impecunious individual's visits to his corn bin, and though he sat up late of nights in company with a chorgun he was unable to form his acquaint-sees. Finally he or anged things about a hitte, and it happened that a bug filled with sawdust weekeft in place of one containing bran and chope. Next morning when Mr. Parker unlocked the door he found that the bag of sawdust had disoppeared, and his conscience amote him at the magnitude of the practical joke. Being of a forgiving dispesition, he will say nothing about the sawdust if the mistaken party returns the bag, which is a good one.

EVERY PERSON

Who feels the impulse of generosity at this approaching Christmas time will do well to consider for a moment, when you are planning your Gifts, that there are places where a warm Pair of Blankets or a Comforter will be more useful than a Manicure Set, and a neat Suit of Clothes or Overcoat will bring more comfort than a volume of bad Poetry. We recognize that a Dry Goods Stock does not contain many of these iim-cracks and gew-gaws, now commonly known as Holiday Goods, but if you want to send real gladness into a family please remember that there is nothing more useful or acceptable than will be found in every one of our departments. What we have is the best, with the regular price cut in two.
