four months ago, sud has been engaged by his brother ever sizes threshing grain, is expected home soon. He gives a glowing account of how the wheat turns out there. Mr. McLeod will be home next week and will, it is likely, remove with his family here in March next.

Pann Cranness and Rentals, -Duscus Shew of the 7 n con., Ellou, has rested the McPherson farm of 175 sores at $350 per sumum. We wish Duscus much success in his undertaking...... Our go sheat farmers, Messes, Aroh. Shaw & Sone, we leven, are to give up possession of the McPherson farm next March and will move to the McDousid farm, which they have rented for a number of years at $300 per annum. They have also rented the Lyons farm of fifty acres. Shaw & Sone have now 325 acres under cultivation. We hope their effer's may be crowned with success.

Church Opening. -The new church will be dedicated on Sabbath, Jan. 4th, 1801. Rev. Prof. Mowat of Queen's college. Kingston, will officiate at the opening services. Mr. Mowat is a brother of the Hop. Oliver Mowat, premier of Ontario. Posters will be jesued in a few days annuming the opening and a grand social on Monday evening. 5th Jan.

HYMENEAL. One of those pleasing social events took place on the 10th Dec., at the residence of Mr. Thos. Moses, postmaster at Fingerhoserd, the occasion being the marriage of his poungest daughter, Miss Carrie Mosse, to Mr. Neil S. Mollougail, youngest son of Mr. John McDougail of Sonya. Miss E. Phillips of Port Perry acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. A. H. McDougail of Port Perry. The Rev. P. A. McLod, M. A., of Sonya, was officiating clorgyman. After the ceremony and usual congrabulations all repaired to the distinguished and inference and costly presents received by the bride. Space will not permit us to give a detailed list of all the presents, but suffice it to say that one need only to cast their are over them to have an ides of the very high esteem and respect in which Mre. McDougail was held by the community at large. The happy couple left by the evening train to spend the honeymoon with friends in Toronto. A CALL ACCEPTED. At a meeting of the members of the Baptist church less Thursday evening the pastor, Rev. P. Clifting Parker, who has received a call from the First avenue church, Toronto, tendered his resignation. A resolution was adopted sehing him o recons der the matter.

BURGLARE SEPTENCED.—Ed. Malvern, Ed. Barrett and George Bennett were tried at the county court last Thursday on a charge of having barglarized Mr. H. R. Paterson's jewellery store is Lakefield last Mey, forcing the use and carrying off about $1.500 worth of jewellery. The three mes were afterwarde arrested at Enterprise, near Napanee, with burglare tools in their possession, and were sent to the Central for a year. They were brought down from that institution for trial. Benset admitted his guilt, but tried to clear the other men by saying they were not with him. They were all convicted, however, and sentenced to seven years in the pemicutiary. The prisoners were actoused of at the sentence, and Malvern muttered a heavy outh.

DEATH OF MR. James Stratton.—Last Monday night Mr. James Stratton, collector of customs, father of Mr. J. R. Stratton, M. P.P., M. P.P., di'd anddenly from an apoplectic seizure. The deceased gentlemen had necupled a prominent position in public affairs for over a quarter of a contury. He was formerly a public school teacher and an inspector for the town and county. He conducted the Examiner for thirteen years, and did great service for the couse of reform. Largely through his efforts the sentence dements developed into a party which he had the pleasure of eseing grow into an overwhelming majority within West Peterborough, with his son as standard-hearer. He gave up the publication of the Examiner to his son, its present publisher, about fourteen years ago, and sceepted the office of collector of customs from the Mackensie administration. Mr. Stratton was an unaucceeful candidate by a very small minority for the representation of East Peterborough in 1874. He was a prominent—all the more effective because in every moral movement—all the more effective because he lived up to his convictions. The funeral Thursday afternoon was a very large one.

A CHURCH TROUBLE ENDED.—The synod commission appointed to consider the affairs of St. Andrews's Presbyterian church here, owing to a trouble between some members of the church and the pastor, met in the church again last Friday afternoon. Rev. Dr. Torrance of Guelph presided, and the other members of the commission present were: Rev. John Somerville, Owen Sound; Rev. Prof. McLaren, Rev. D. G. Macdonell, Toronto; Rev. W. M. McLean, Ballaville; Mr. James Duff of Barrie, and Mr. Joseph Gibson, Ingersoll. Rev. Ali z. Ball, the pastor, made a statement regarding his position, pointing out how the congregation had increased and prospered under his charge until a new council was built and freed from debt. He were, owing to fill-health, and as at a consultation at Toronto last week his medical advisors etrongly advised him to obtain absolute rest, he placed his resignation in their hands. A largely signed petition was prevented seking that $500 be given Mr. Ball in recognition of his acrices. An agreement was made regarding the navinest of the past responser. ing the payment of the paster's salary, and he was given $500 and the use of the manes until next summer, and his resignation was accepted, to take effect at the end of the year.
