EDITORIAL NOTES

IN MEMORIAM.

How many of the Old Guard which put down bribery and corruption with lots of money have found rest of late? To go through the roll from A to Z would be like counting the stars in the firmament; but let us make out an "in memoriam" list of those best known in this part of the Dominion:—

Macdonald, D. A.: Lieut Governor of Ontario; $10,000 a year.

Dorion, A. A.: Chief Justice of Quebec; $8,000 a year.

Fournier, T.: Supreme Court Bench; $7,000 a year.

Laird, D.: Lieut. Governor of the North-West Territories; $7,000 a year.

Ross, GW.: Collector of Halifax; $3,000 a year.

Mess. Thos. Ontario Bench; $5,000 a year.

Wood, E. B.: Chief Justice of Manitoba; $5,000 a year.

Bothwell, F. F. (irreverently called Skim-milk Bothwell): Welland Canal; $3,000 a year.

Stirton, D.: Put down bribery and corruption with lots of money in Wellington Guelph Postoffice; $3,000 a year.

Gow, Peter: Put down bribery and corruption with lots of, etc. Wellington Shrivalty; $4,000 a year (probably.)

Edgar, J. D.: First class Supernumerary British Columbia errand; $6,000 for four months' service.

Platt, Francis: Workingman's friend. P. O. Inspector; $2500 a year.

Badgley, William: Disqualified. Prepare supplies. Dominion Government, 1873; $2,000.

Nelson, Thomas: Put down bribery &c., in Perth. Paymaster North West Mounted Police Force; $2,000 a year and Expenses.

Fraser, Alex.: Put down &c., in Northumberland. Treasurer of Mr Kerr's election fund in 1874, whereabouts is now a child for corrupt purposes. Deputy Receiver General, Toronto; $2,000 a year.

McMahon, Hugh: Put down &c., in London. Clerk of Council at raising fund 1874 (—); $1,400

Britton, B. M.: Put down &c., in Kingston. Crown Counsel at Assizes, fund 1874 (—); $1,000

Carroll, John: Put down &c., in Peterboro'. Local Government Commissioner, last year $17,000

Delap, Nathan: Put down &c., in West Toronto. Rent of the Central Prison, work in 1874 (—); $100,000, of which 50,000 is a without tender.

O'Reilly, H. P.: Put down &c., in Ottawa District. Local Government Commissioner re S. E. Boundary Survey 1874; $10,000

McCraig, Hugh: Put down &c., in St. John's Ward, East on House; $1,500 a year.

Scott, W.: Brother of Secretary of State. Receiver of North West Territories; $3,000 a year.

Al Rykert, Jno.: Put down &c., in Lincoln. Customs Secretary to Commission; $2,000 a year.

Mowat, O. A.: Put down &c., all [illegible]

But we cannot stay to call over the roll. Every county, every township, every village has also some to their credit. Many have died in Lunacy Inspectorships; others coming from $1,000 to $2,000 a year, have vanished into the Customs House and the Inland Revenue Department; they have gone and only the dogs who know them now remember them.

The Globe will declare that there is nothing hideous in this list, as all names are about that is perfectly unique. They did that on the night of honour while putting down bribery and corruption, and it is therefore not unprobable that their names should be preserved for the admiration from time to time.

Correspondence of The Warder

Village properties have been changing hands of late.

Mr D. Plaunders is in receipt of the [illegible] of the Manor Family and Emsworth have been entertaining a very attentive family.

Mr. J. Wilkinson left on Tuesday morning for Toronto where he is employed by Peterborough on Thursday.

Mr. W. C. Matchett's sale of farm stock &c., commences at 12 o'clock on Monday, the 13th 7th concession.

Mr. J. A. McMurchy commenced his clearing sale on Tuesday last. The sale is being daily at 1 p.m. There is no reserve.

Our Confectionaries are all trying each to expect a couple of lectures on their side during the winter.

Three per cent. of the population of Omemee have enjoyed their shilling's worth since xmas and boy.

The horse and cabbie belonging to Mr Wm C Matchett, lot 19, 7th con. Emily, were struck by lightning on Wednesday morning, 1st instant, and burned to the ground with all the contents.

The Church Aid Society will resume their weekly meetings next Wednesday p.m. in the Brethren Hall. The hours are from one to five o'clock and a prompt and full attendance of the members is urged.

The introductory social at the residence of Mr E. Williamson on Thursday evening last, realized the handsome sum of $27. The entertainment was in every respect satisfactory. The choir sang quite charmingly under the direction of Miss Peplow, organist. Miss English also contributed. The proceeds are in aid of the new church furnishing fund.

The residence of Sturgeon street have asked no municipal favors. 1876.

The Bradburn House has attached one of the most convenient, spacious comfortable commercial rooms in the four counties.

The Fenton House has passed into the proprietorship of Mr. Bowman, the late enterprising manager of the summer resort at Stoney Lake.

Mr Hindman Barney is announced to deliver one of his popular "Talks to the thousand" on Wednesday evening next, 15th inst., under the auspices of the Omemee Division of Sons of Temperance. The lectures is very favorably spoken of, and will, no doubt, draw a large house.

Dr. Norris, Chairman, and Mr. Shaw, Headmaster of the High School, last week made a first-class selection of school requisites—maps, charts, philosophic, chemical and science apparatus and illustrative specimens at the Department, Toronto—among them three Centennial articles. Our schools have been highly favored.

The Cottingham block has passed into the hands of Mr. George Clarkson. It is to be enlarged. A third storey is to be added while additional roof and all the modern modern hotel and shop improvements and conveniences.

In accordance with the regulations, the examination of pupils for admission to the High School, will be held in the School House on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 19th and 20th of December, at 9 a.m.

There was a general observance of Thursday, (Thanksgiving Day) in the village. Services were held in the Episcopal Church. A very appropriate sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Burkell. A mission collection was taken up.

A much needed improvement has been secured through the energy of Mr. W. S. Cottingham, Churchwarden, in the extension of the sidewalk from King street to the church and vestry doors of Christ Church.

Omemee has not a few men of nerve, push and perseverance among the foremost is our faithful friend Mr. Samuel Lamb, whose shop is always stocked with the best the district can afford, and whose wagons and "tinsee" having outlived all opposition, make the streets lively generally.

The project of the Huron and Quebec Railway has lately met with some attention on the part of a number of the leading men of the township and village. Those who have been engaged in working it up have done so under the impression that by bringing the matter under the consideration of municipalities above the proposed line they would see the propriety of testifying their material interest in the project by voting bonuses towards it to an extent that would convince the Government that the road is one of essential importance. The Government requiring as a matter of Government policy that this should be done as evincing the necessity of the road before they will aid the project from provincial funds. The promoters are impressed with the conviction that there should be no difficulty in obtaining aid of that kind to an extent that would warrant the Government in aiding the scheme. So far the prospect has been good. They have about $100,000 voted, and they suppose this fall by-laws be submitted for the north part of the County of Hastings and the City of Ottawa and also the township of Emily, of the people think well of it. The scheme was originally to construct from Omemee by way of Peterboro' and Carleton Place to Ottawa and from Millbrook to Peterboro, and it was with reference to this scheme that their first by laws were carried, but the conclusion has been now arrived at to limit their efforts in the first place to the eastern section of the road, viz. from Omemee to Ottawa. If successful in this they contemplate the completion of the western section.

Thursday last being Thanksgiving Day, divine services was held in both the Presbyterian and Methodist churches, and were well attended.

Halloween was celebrated here in the usual style. The unhinging of gates, pulling down of fences, placing obstructions on the sidewalks, and various other witless acts of mischief, but no one seemed to be hurt, and all passed off more quietly than usual.

Messrs White & Rice have placed in their machine shop a gas-hammer at a cost of $500. We believe this is the only one in the county. They are now determined, energetic and skilful workmen and bound to do a flourishing business. All ye readers of The Warder give them a call and inspect their implements and we are satisfied you will buy.

The market is a little more lively this week than it has been for some time back.

We noticed in your last issue a communication from a person who signs himself "Private," and in reply we would like to make a few remarks on his very able communication. In the first place he says, "If your correspondent would confine his remarks to public matters instead of private affairs." As far as we are aware of we have confined our remarks to public affairs, and never meddled with any person's private business nor do we wish to do so, but we think it is always of interest to persons who were formerly residents of our village and also persons who have the welfare of the village at heart to see what improvements have been made in the village and vicinity. We speak from experience. And again he says, "Persons so commented upon very naturally feel a delicacy in having their names and business dragged out, and so uncommonly thrust upon its attention." and further down again he says "I am persuaded if your correspondent would study the opinion of the public rents of Woodville he would find many so very anxious to see their names in print that they would hardly object to any remark he might make concerning them." I would like to know what he means? There certainly a contradiction of terms! Would "Private" be so kind as to explain? I think when a person finds fault and makes statements and states them very dogmatically, he should also state them truthfully. He says I mentioned the plough given by our much esteemed and highly respected M.P. and asks why I did not mention that White & Rice and N. B. Campbell also gave ploughs. Well may I take the liberty of referring "Private" to The Warder of Oct. 19th, and he will find both those gentlemen mentioned there, and also some more of our highly respected citizens. If any party should feel offended it should be Mr. Cameron; but I have sufficient confidence in Mr. Cameron's good sense to think that he would not exhibit any violent outburst of anger, even if his plough passed over over in silence, and on the other hand I hardly think that he will rush into print since he mentioned it. I think he is just as modest as "Private," and I think if we were to consult Mr. Cameron himself he would have some reluctance about having it mentioned, but still I have no doubt but what he would be willing to sacrafice his feeling if by printing it, it would be interesting to the public generally and more especially to the readers of your valuable paper. In looking over his concluding remarks, perhaps we have discovered the true cause of all this, he wishes us to give up our quill to "One just as willing and moveable to do the duty of a reporter." Probably he means himself. We don't think he exhibited any great amount of talent in that little production of his, but as we are not going to give up the position at present, we would strongly advise him to join the staff of "Grip," (to serve under directions certainly), and perhaps in a couple of years he would be better fitted to be a correspondent for The Warder and more able to represent the classical village of Woodville. In conclusion, we would beg to say, if we have overstepped the mark, or given offence to any, "Private" included, we would ask forgiveness. We have striven faithfully to carry out our duties as correspondent, and if errors have been committed, our duties left unperformed, it was quite unintentional, and we are always willing to make amends.

LAKEFIELD.

On Saturday night last Archibald Johnston, hotel keeper, Selwin, was almost fatally stabbed by a man named Thomas Gregan, of Bridgnorth. Gregan had stolen a span of horses from Johnston's hotel, and after the horses had been taken from him he attempted to break open James Bell's store door. Johnston tried to prevent him, and had his head laid open in two places with a pocket-knife, a stab in the side, and one of his fingers almost cut off. There are but slight hopes of his recovery. Gregan has been arrested and committed for trial. Bail was refused.
