"Tim and Pat, miss, ye see was acquainte
Before they came over the sea,
When Pat was a-courtin' Norah,
And I im was a-courtin' me.
She did not know much, the poor Norah.
Nov, for that matter, neither did Pat;
He had no the instinct of some one,
But no one had then told him that;
But he soon found it out for himself.
For life at bests but a spanWhen I was a widely woman,
And he was a widely mas. REGISTER.

"I helped him to take care of Norsh And when he compared her with me, He may, as he whispered one evening. What a woman one woman could be. She went out like the snaft of a candle; Then the sickness seized upon Tim, And we watched by his beside togethe I was such a comfort to him. I was not alone in my weeping. Our tears in the same channel ran For I was a widdy woman.

"We both had out troubles, mayourneen,
Though neither, perhaps, was to blame;
And we both knew by this what we wanted,
And we were willing to pay for thesame.
We knew whas it was to be married,
And before the long year had flown
We had made up our minds it was better
Not to live any longer alone:
We wasted no time shilly-shally,
Like you, miss, and Maeter Dan—
For I was a widdy woman,
And he was a widdy man,"

A Montreal paper says:—"A suit is to be instituted in a few days by a elergyman of the Presbyterian Church, in connection with the Church of Scot land, to reclaim from the Presbyterian Church in Canada the Temporalities Fund, now amounting to over half a million dollars. The suit will be taken on behalf of the Kirk in this country, and will test the constitutionality. and will test the constitutionality of the Provincial Act sanctioning the Presbyterian Union."

Free Trade is invisibly losing ground in Germany. This has been most apparent during several recent debates in the German Parliament. Public opinion is steadily veering round towards the arguments advanced by Count Frankenberg, in which he claimed that Germany could not continue to uphold Free Trade while her manufacturers were practically shut out from linssin. America and France. He added that From 71 of the Silesian furnaces, 34 have been T by Canada as a market for lumber and various descriptions of manufactured goods. Referring to Mr. Young's address, the Otago "Guardian" says:

"The projected railway across British America, the progress and prospects of which Mr. Young detailed, is fraught with the deepest interest to these Pacific Colonies. At the terminus of that line there will be a second San Francisco, while the route across the con-

It is cosmopolitan is its nature no country is exempt from its visitations, no family free from its visitations, no family free from its attacks.

There is a balm in Gilead; it comes in the shape of the Peruvian Syrup. For years it has been scattering its blessings abroad. There is probably no disease which experience has so amply proved to be remediable by the Peruvian Syrup as dyspepsia. The most inveterate forms of this disease have been completely curred by this medicine, as ampletestimony of many of our first citizens prove. Sold by all druggists.
