ALL accounts against the town are requested to be handed in to the clerk before Monday.

BALANCE OF Xmas card stock at Variety Hall must be cleared out, cards at half price.

Monsieur Mousquetaire. Useful Xmas gift. Mousquetaire kid gloves for ladies in tan color and black six button length.

Tea and general groceries sold at bottom prices at J. Duck's.

Scenery. We have seen two new backgrounds in Fowler & Oliver's gallery.

Installed. Rev. Father Lynch, of Peterboro, was duly installed parish priest of Lindsay on Sunday evening last by Bishop James.

Thanker. Mr. J. R. Easton has our thanks for Grip's Almanac, for 1893, which is neatly got up and has some entertaining reading.

The Fairbairn Family after an absence of some years are making Lindsay another visit.

Mr. Wm. Hascock, of Little Britain, has recently purchased from Messrs. Jamieson & Son, Hamilton, a cow of the Friesian breed.

The Ontario Herald would make it appear we intended doing an injustice to Ontario in stating that Messrs. McNeely and Walters, of this town, had the contract for the Midland bridge to be built here.

Always on the move. Capt. Bottom, of Stoburn, appears as though he must always be on the move with something.

Our contemporary, it appears, was under a slight mistake last week in stating Rev. Mr. Jones was also organizing a temperance association in our midst.

A DANGEROUS PRACTICE. Household-ers who find it necessary to shovel the snow off their roofs should exercise a certain amount of care in so doing.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS. From appearance, the custom of giving Christmas gifts will be more largely indulged in this year than formerly.

TEMPERANCE SUNDAY. The executive of the Ontario Branch of the Dominion Alliance have set apart Sunday, Dec. 17th, as "Temperance Sunday."

LIQUEURED GAS AND ELECTRICITY. Two of the safest and most perfect destroyers of gas burners for extracting teeth lately introduced in Lindsay by Mr. Gross, dentist, and used at his office with unparalleled success.

SHOWS OF THE TIMES. When you see men, women and children rushing to the fur department of R. Smyth's great dry goods, millinery and clothing house, know ye that the assortment is large and the prices low.

CAPT. CRUDDALL has decided to remain with us for some time at least having rented the Scully block in Fronting Street, and intends opening it as a hotel and boarding house.

A WEEK or two ago people were complaining of want of snow. Now the tables are turned and traffic is considerably impeded by the great depth and lightness of the snow in some places making them almost impassable.

IMPROVEMENTS are still going on at Broadbent & Co's store, next door to the Jewett house. Now it is plate glass and the four large windows are being fitted up specially for the dry goods and mantle display, and when completed will be two of the most handsome stores in the town.

THE NEW BRIDGE. Messrs. McNeely and Walters are pushing preliminary arrangements and work preparatory to building the new railway bridge here as soon as the weather will permit.

THE RAILWAY. During the past week the Midland Railway has had a hard time of it in trying to run trains with any degree of regularity.

CONNECTION. In our school board report last week we stated that Miss McGroove had made application for a "renewal" of her permit to teach in the East Ward.
