A Liberal Discount Allowed on Yearly Advertisements

One Dollar Per Annum.

Book and Job Printing, in the latest styles, at At Less than Toronto Prices!

Phoinces Directory.

MEDICAL THOMAS W. POOLE, M. D.

CORONER, LINDSAY. March 16: 1870.

PHYSICYAN SURGER, E.c., at Medical Hall, rom 6 a.m., to 12; and 2 to 5 p.m. Hest-hore Lindson Street. E. A. BERRIMAN, M.D.

PHYRICIAN, Surger and Accouch Wellington Street Lindson. Office realthence—in the Blue Cottage back of Mathediat Church. E. HENSON M. D. CHADUATE of Hellevenn Hospital, Medical College, New York, and also of Fletoria college, Canada, Physician, Surpera and Ac-concheur. Office, One door north of Barn-ton's Hotel, Wm. St., Lindsny.

DR. GEO. A.INORRIS. a RADVATE of the University of Victoria Allege, laventme of the constant and the constant of Victoria, Date

LINGATA

CAMERON & DORMER.
RARHSTERS, and Attorneys at Law, Solicitors in Chancery, Notarios Public, &c., Hoctor Cameron, M.A., I (too. Dormer, R.A. DENNISTOUN & HUDSPETH. BARRISTERS, Attorneys, Schicitors, & No farius Public, Rear Ontario Bank, Lindsay J. F. Dennistorn; | A. Huisepren

P. S. MARTIN.
ATTORNEY: AT. LAW, Solicitor in Sancery, Notary Public, Conveyancer, &c. tolicitor for the Ontario Itank. Office, over Folor's Hardware Store, Kent St., Linday.

KMITH & SMITH. BARRISTERS, Attorneys-at-Law. S ottors in themsely, Convey more Motor dea Lindsey. Office, over health store. log Bunker Buith. | Bern Buith

WELLER & HATTON. BARRISTRIES, Attorneys, Solteitors, &c. Office, corner (teorge & Simeoe Stz., Feterboro. L. G. HATMON. C. A. WELLER.

MINCELLANBOUM MISS PEARE. ORGANIST to St. Pauls Church. Lind eay, has the honor to announce that she re-ceives multisfor increaction on the Plane-Forte, Organ and Meldicon. Residence, Op-posite Bell's Hotel, Wm. St. Lindsay.

AGENT for the Commercial Union Assurance Commany, Lamor Murriage Li-enses, Combaigner for taking Affidavits, WORKMAN'S firsts block, (opposite Means, Foles's limiture Store, (Co. Ront & York Stor, Lindsay, New Louse & Furst little. The travoling community will find every accommendation. The law supplies with the best wines, liquore, &c. Lauge short & good stabiling. An Alicultive Hostler always in attendance. are in attendance.

BRYAN GUNIGAL'S NEW Livery Stable, York St. Lindsay,— Horses and Carriages for hirsen the most reasonable terms.

JOHN JOHNSTON,
THE chicat established failer in Lindsay (thep on east gith of Wm. St.) Is prepare to execute all orders. All work warranted to give mathematical at resemble prices.

BELL'S HOTEL William Street, Lindsay, re-opened for the recoption of Guests.

As the proprietors have

Spared No Expense

to relite the defining method dove establishment, and have secured the services of frut-class servants, the traveling community may depend on receiving

WM. BURT, . PROPRIETOR

ctoria

Warder,

Commercial Advertiser.

Published Rvery Wednesday by Joseph Cooper.)

"OPINION IS THE GREAT PILLAR THAT UPHOLDS THE UNIVERSE."

TERMS-One Bollar a Year in Advance.

Vol. XIV-Number 18.]

LINDSAY, ONT., CANADA, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 8, 1870.

Port Hope, Lindsay & Beaver-ton Railway.

PORT HOPE & PETERBORO RAILWAY. TIME TABLE.

ON and after Monday, Nov. 22, 1869, Train

TRAINS MOTING SOUTH,--WAIL

PETEROROUGH SECTION.

Poterborov arrivo A. T. WILLIAMS, Supt.

Dentistry

J. NEELANDS.

Licentiate of Bental Surgery. EXTRACTS teeth, positively without painby the use of pure Sitrons Oxide (laughing gas) greatly improved, delightful to take anti-periodic same. Starty 200 persons have to enit in my office during the past year with the most satisfactory results.

ARTIFICIAL TEETH Exceedingly pretty, very natural looking and useful in mastication, inferted at from $1.00 to $2.00 per tooth. Whole Upper Sets from $14 to $20.00. No charge for extracting teeth where others are to be inserted. TEETH FILLED.

ARTIFICIAL PALATES

inserted where they have been destroyed by disease or are the result of congenital defect. The public are respectfully invited to call and any information connected with the tech and any information connected with the teet will be fuely given.
OFFICE—Over Thirkell & Perrin's Drug Store, Lindsdy.
December 1st, 1868.

$500,000 TO LOAN

$500,000 and upwards, on improved farms, in the older settled pertians of the county of Victoria. he interest charged is eight per cent, and is not required in advance, thereby giving the horeower the use of the money for the full term of the lean. Horeowers must bear in mind that when they may back by instalments of principal and instead annually, they do not have the use of the money for the term of years they borrow and thereby pay doubted to rate of interest. his makes the islan of borrowing for a term of rearn and only paying the interest annually was the most known be fur the borrower. The principal can be repaid at any time in whate criti part on fay and a furnished critically. March, 18th.

MONEY TO LOAN,

At 8 Per Cent, SMITH & SMITH

OR REAL ESTATE AT EIGHT PER Cent Apply to

K. D. ORDE.

Office in McDonald's Brick Block, Kent
Street Lindear.

MONEY TO LOAN! ON EASY TERMS Lindsay, May 10th 1860.

Appleto AT SPER CENT,

MATERIAL A. O'LEARY

their Queen,
They could accept no favors from the wear rs of the green.

"What do we live for?
Is labor so lowly,
loil so ignoble, we shrink from i
Think of it—labor
Is Got—like and holy;
Ite that is idle is living in vain.

What do we live for? Creation is grouning,
fler desolute places are yet to be built;
The voice of the years
Swella deeper the mouning,
As time rolls on the dark tide of guilt.

What do we live for? The question is sounding in the silence, and loud in the din, And to each heart-ear With warm pulses bounding, ers come througing, without and withi What do we live for?

Wall do we her for r. We live to be waging, unccasing, with in-dwelling sin; We live to fight on, In conflict engaging dations without, and passions with

What do we live for? To sow by all waters,
Fruit-hearing scods of deeds for all ye
To work in the ranks
With earth's sons and daughters
Thankfully striving with doubtings and

We live not to rust out,
Slothfully standing aloof from the strife;
A the seant times better,
More noble to wear out,
Battered and burned in the hot forge of his Literature.

The Indian Mother's Revenge.

Two men relied themselves out of their blankets and proceeded to replenish the fire, that had burned down during the night. These men were Paul Gordon and Carl Hausman, trappers; and the river that rolled at their feet was Clarke's, a branch of the Columbia.

Paul, what makes you look so dull this morning? With that look on your face you resemble the Blackfoot squaw I saw yesterday morning, said Carl, after they had lighted their pipes and seated themselves by the now roaring fire, to have a comfortable smoke.

Paul Gordon started and clenched his companion's arm eagerly, while his face was deadly pale.

'You saw a Blackfoot squaw yesterday! What was she doing in this region! What was she had? Tell me quick! he exclaimed, totally ignoring his friend's question.

The Wearing of the Green.

Och, likely dear, and did you hear the new that's going remet?

The green thus is forbid to wave upon Canadian secund.

Wherever a Venhan shows himself, a volunter is seen—

They've no liking up in Canada for wearer of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och, I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of the green.

Och I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of Grey Eagle had a sister, who was the different properties of the green.

Och I met groat General Q'Nailt, and I bowed the carries of Grey Eagle had a sister, who was the fife and light of his little

Their Queer,
They could accept no favors from the wear resort the green.

So now returned from war's alarms, I'm safe at home once more;

at home once more; So now, returned from war's alarms, I'm safe at home once more;
And one thing I can tell you, you may safely bed, autore.
That nought shall e'er persuade me, through all the coming years.
To fice the Suider rifles of Canadian Volunteers!
They've a nasty way of shooting, have those Mississaudi men;
And if your flarney knows himself he'll ne'er face them again.
They may keep their dhirty country, their Union Jack and Queen.
The I. R. A. is played out, and the wearers of the reen!

L. ROUR.

"What do we live for?

narrative.
'I fancied that I loved Star Eyes; and she, what would she naturally do but respect her brother's friend?—and we all know that respect is akin to love. Whenever I was not on hunting expeditions with the brother, I was scated at the sister's side, or wandering hand in hand with the sweet, guileless child beneath the cool shade of the forest trees, and pourcool shade of the lorest trees, and pouring into her all too willing ears my tales of false deception with all the impassioned fervor of my hature. All this Grey Eagle knew; but he loved his white friend, and nothing would have pleased him more than a wedded union of myhim more than a wedded union of myself and his darling Star Eyes. But I had no thoughts of marrying the guildes Indian muiden. Far from it. If such had been my intentions, and I had carried them out, all would have been well, and to-day I might have been a happy man; but the evil spirit within me urged me on to do the dastardly deed that has ambitted my whole life, and has also broken the hearts of others.

'Yes, I will say it—and Carl, do not hearts in horror—I repaid broken the hearts of others.

'Yes, I will say it—and Carl, do not turn your face away in horror—I repaid the tried friendship of Grey Eagle by be traying his innocent trusting sister; and when the hour of exposure came I fled from the hour I had wronged and took refuge with the whites, who sheltered me from the vengeance that should have overtaken me then and there, for Star Eyes aied that night. My companions were half bandits themselves, and my crime was looked upon as a good jake only. From that hour I have been a wanderer on the face of the earth. For years Grey Hagle followed like an avenging spirit on my trail. He has followed me from the Culumbia River to the Gulf of Mexico; from the muddy Missouri to the shores of the Pacific Ocean; but somehow I always kept out of his reach until about three years ago.'

'I was trapping alone in the midst of the Black Hills. Somehow I could not bear the right of a human face. They all seemed to say, 'You are a villain; you are the one that committed the deed;' and so I made up my mind to try one Sinter alone. It was a dreary time. The snow lay two feet thick all over the hills, and I apprehended no danger. I had been there about two months, and one hitter cold morning as I sat by my camp fire cooking my breakfast, a footfall fell upon my ear, and on looking up I saw standing before me, not ten feet distant, Grey Eagle.

'Had a bombshell fallen at my feet I could not have been more astonished. I sprang up instantly and gamed upon him.

Carl Hausman elevated his eyebrows in surprise.

'You needn't get so excited about it. Keep cool and I will try and answer your questions. I saw a Blackfoot 'squaw in the woods west of here yesterday morning. I do not know what she was doing. She appeared to be walking about for the benefit of her health, or to keep warm, I do not know which. She was like—let me see—she was homely, ald and wrinkied, and she walked stooping.

'Was she tail ?'

'She would have been if she had stood creet.'

Paul's face grew still paler. Carl became alarmed.

'Was the in the name of wonder is the matter?' he asked. Paul innored the question.

Did the have a soar on the left cheath one that extended dear across it?'

'I think she had.'

Paul Gordon released his hold on his companion's arm and tenk upon the ground, covering his face with his hands. It is the same. I am doome! I doome!

Will you tell me what alls you or are you creasy? asked Ora! as he haid his land on the other's abouttor.

The touch mounce! him, and he sat up
'Gut what has all this to do with the fact on the stand on the other's abouttor.

'But what has all this to do with the fact on the class of the count arm and the sat up
'Gut what has all this to do with the fact on the class of the count arm and the sat up
'Gut what has all this to do with the fact on the class of the sat up
'Gut what has all this to do with the fact on the class of the count arm and the sat up
'Gut what has all this to do with the fact on the class of the count arm and the sat up
'Grey Eagle.

'Had a bombshell fallen at my feet I could not have been more astonished. I prant up instantly and grazed upon him. It this face looked haggard and wore, as though the had undergone much anxiety and antivery and suffering hat his eyes blazed like those of a demon. He stoodsfill for a moment in the demon. He stoodsfill for a head of a demon. He stoodsfill for a head of a demon. He stoodsfill for a head undergone much anxiety and antivery had then drawing his hatches for a head undergone much nce. We will tramp across the country to Kooskook, where we will embark and float down the river into the broad Columpel the gloom that rested upon his com-panion's face than for any other purpose.

The sun was high in the heavens when they started on their long forest journey, and his rays stone down on the distant and he rays stone down on the distrit mountains, on the sparkling waves of the white surface of snow that glistened and scintillated in a thousand flushes of golden river the men were leaving behand, on the light. It was a wild, weird picture, this forest scene, where the whole surface of the earth was, as Tennyson expresses it, 'dumb with snow.'

It was late at night when they halted;

All mat cold, wintery day she had followed through the drifting snow upon the trail of him she hated: and now while

Paul Gordon awoke. He saw the set Paul Gordon awore. He saw the set face of the Indian woman, the glaring cycs, the slittering steel uplifted, and even in that brief moment he attempted to stay the blow. It was too late. The steel descended and was buried in his breast; and as the dark blood spurted up-

Carl knelt down, and prayed to God'to have mercy on his friend's soul.

Some years after the events before narated occurred, Carl Hausman, while wandering near the head of the Columbia River, came upon a lonely mound, across which lay the body of an Indian, woman. She had just died; and despite the mantle of death, he recognised the avenging mother. The grave on which she rested was that of Star Eyes.

The Greeks are said to be the most sensible people in the world; as they wear one style of dress all the year round and the fashion navers.

" Battle of Chickabiddy." The New York Commercial Advertiser

Pigion Hill affaiar :

it, for then they were going to the battle-field. That brilliant burst of speed to which we have alluded, did not begin un when the rattle of musketry commenced, two hundred stout Irish legs felt 'shaky.' Gaily the festive O'Neill raised his bon-net as the ballets whizzed overhead, and bia: Come, I'aul, bestir yourself. You know we have got to move rapidly.'

And Carl bustled about, more to dispel the gloom that rested upon his companion's face than for any other purpose. The sun was high in the heavens when ran like greased lightning. For a mo-ment a feeling of enthusiasm stirre, their bloom and drove it in a feeble current to their bleached cheeks. Phelim O'Grady looked at Micky McGaw, and Micky McGaw looked at Terence O'Toodle.

His eyes closed, his head foll back, and Carl knew that Paul Gordon's spirit was "Well, well, I'll look about, and if I don't find anybody that suits me better than you, I'll come back."

Would you know whether the tendency She had just died; and despite the mantle of death, he recognised the avenging mother. The grave on which she rested was that of Star Eyes.

Westen, the pedestrian, is to walk one hundred miles in twenty kours in New York on Wednesday,

The Greeks are said to be the most sensible people in the world; as they God and man tell us there can be no virtue, and consequently no happiness? Has it attempted to abate your admiration and reverence for what is great and good, and to diminish in you the love of your country and your fellow creatures? Has it addressed itself to your vanity, your selfishness, or any other of your evil proposities? Has it defiled the imagination with what is loathesome, or shocked the heart with what is monstrous? Has it disturbed the sense of right and wrong which the creator has implanted in the human soul? If so—if you are conscious of all or any of these effects—or if, having escaped from all, you have felt that such were the effects it was intended to produce, throw the book into the fire, whatgeon Hill, no kind of Fenian demonstration was allowed to be made; but an undertaker with his assistant came from St. Albans with a coffin, and in a very short time the body was exhumed and carried away to St. Albans, [Whole Number 692.

The Bible.

those of this blessed book. It is so com-

"Weston was not the only one who performed a great walking feet yesterday. The way that Gen. O'Neill and his brave army walked over to Canada—and then walked back again, hegets the hope that pedestrianism may rise to the dignity of a national institution spite of the contamely hitherto heaped upon it. Before such magnificent speed as the Irish gallants made what are Weston's one him again the single speed as the Irish gallants made what are Weston's one him the household, and the wife as mistress of the talle; tells him how to rule, and bleesing I had more enough to get home with a first manage. It entails honor on parents and enjoins obedience on children. It prescribes and limits the sway
I' are said to have moved. We can believe it, for then they were going to the buttle. Weston was not the only one who of the sovereign, the rule of the ruler, and the authority of the master; comnight and day until we reach Portland, where you can embark in some good ship bound for New York. You have enough to enable you to spend the rest of your life in peace.

'Yes, I have plenty.'

'Then let us commence operations at once. We will tramp across the country. to trust, and promises a father to the former and a husband to the latter. It teaches a man how to set his house in order, and how to make his will It affords a dowry for the wife, and entails the right of the first-born, and shows how the younger branches shall be left. It defends the right of all, and reveals vengeance to the defrauder and oppressor. It is the first book, the best book, and the oldest book in the world. It contains the choicest matter, gives the best instruction, and affords the great st pleasure and satisfaction that ever was McGaw looked at Terence O'Toodle. There was an awful pause. "May the divided yez!" roared O'Neill, "but upon me sowl, I believe yez are a set average chicken livered rogues. Fire, I say!." Roused by his eloquence, the gallant two hundred levelled their muskets. Terrible hundred levelled their muskets. Terrible It was late at night when they halted; and after kindling a fire of some dried twigs close to the side of a rock, they sat down and endeavored to make a repast of the dried buffalo meat they halt brought with them. After which they lit their pipes and smoked long and carnestly.

At length Carl arose.

A white cloud of smoke curled up in front of the enemy's line. Bug, bang and get a little rest. It is late. At least ton o'clock, he added, glancing at the stars overhead.

Roused by his eloquence, the gallant two hundred levelled their muskets. Terrible life and immortality, and shows the way to everlasting glory. It is a brief rectal of all that is past, and a certain predict of all that is past, and a certain predict of all that is to come. It settles all matters in debate, resolves all doubts, and eases the mind and conscience of all scruples. It reveals the only living and eases the mind and conscience of all scruples. It reveals the only living and eases the mind and conscience of all scruples. It reveals the only living and eases the mind and conscience of all scruples. It reveals the only living and eases the mind and conscience of all scruples. It reveals the only living and eases the mind and conscience of all scruples. It reveals the only living and eases the mind and conscience of all that is past, and a certain predict of all that is past, and a certain predict of all that is past, and a certain predict of all that is post, and a certain predict of all that is post, and a certain predict of all that is past, and a certain predict of all that is post, and a certain predict of all that is post, and a certain predict of all that is post, and a certain predict of all that is post, and a certain predict of all that is post, and a certain predict of all that is post, and a certain predict of all that is post, and a certain predict of all that is post, and a certain predict of all that is post, and a certain predict of all that is post, and a certain predict of all that is a brief rectail to all that is a br tish breech-loaders. Terence O'Toodle stars overhead.

Paul wrapped himself in his blanket and hid down by the fire, while Carl paced slowly round the the little camp.

The hours were slowly on, and the weary sentinel, now leaning against a tree, muttered:

'I do not believe the old Indian woman has followed us. Poor old creature, what a life has been hers! Paul deserwas death, if ever man deserves it; but I feel that is my duty to protect him. Ho feel that is my duty to protect him. He will do better if he lives; but he never can make any reparation for the crimes he has committed.'

Little did C rl Hausman think that the eyes of the old Indian woman were lived by the commandation of the committed of the cycs of the old Indian woman were lived by the commandation of the committed of the cycs of the old Indian woman were lived by the commandation of the committed of the cycs of the old Indian woman were lived by the commandation of the committed of the cycs of the old Indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old Indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old Indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old Indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old Indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old Indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old Indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old Indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old Indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old information of the specific of the old indian woman were lived by the cycle of the old information of the specific of the old information of the specific of the old information of the specific of the old information of the old information of the old information of the specific of the old information of the old info powers, that O'Neill says they ain fit for crows' meat. I leave the command to ye, sleepor, kuife in hand.

Should she let the murderer escape her hand? No!—a thousand times, no!

All mat cold, wintery day she had followed it through the drifting specific properties. The state of the murderer escape her hand? No!—a thousand times, no!

Hard to the more thand origin of informal legions. It will instruct the most accomplished mechanic and the best rhetorican, and exercise every powbould Boyle O'Rielly. I'm sick. I'm going to see McGinness, McGinness, McGinness will of bless ould Oirland! The most skilful arithmeticians, but the micest critic. It corrects the vain the nicest critic. It corrects the vain mer It are the most accomplished mechanic and the best rhetorican, and exercise every powbould be most accomplished mechanic and the best rhetorican, and exercise every powbould be most accomplished mechanic and the best rhetorican, and exercise every powbould best rhetorican, and exercise every powb er of the most skilful arithmeticians, puzzle the wisest anatomist and exercises the nicest critic. It corrects the vain philosopher and guides the wise astronomer. It exposes the sophist and makes the deviners mad. It is a complete code of laws, a perfect book of Divinity, an unequal narrative is book of lives several movements they were addressed.

Pitts is a fast man, a starp man, a business man, and when Pitts goes into a store to trade he always gets the lowest cash price, he says:—'Well, I'll look about, and if I dout find anything that suits me better I'll call and take this.'

Pitts, like all fast men, is partial to women, and young ones in particular.—'I am getting rather long in years, and

Starting a Poultry yard.

of a Yankee, who lately settled down in the West He was the picture of a thing fixed to his notion, a though struck his mind that he had no chickens, and he was powerfully fond of sucking raw eggs. He was too honest to steal them, and too mean to buy them. At last a thought struck him—he could horrow. He went to a neighbor and thus accosted him.

"Wald! reckon you aint got no old hen or nothin' you'd lend me for a few weeks, have you, neighbor?"

have you, neighbor?

'I'll lend you one with pleasure. replied the gentleman, picking out the finest in the coop.

The Yankee took the hen home, and went to another neighbor and borrowed a dozen of eggs. He set the hen, and in due course of time she hatched a dozen of chickens.

The Yankee was again puzzled, he could return the hen, but how was he to return the eggs? Another idea—he would keep the hen until she had hid a dozen eggs.

Gozen eggs.

This he did, and then returned the hen

A Discons late Veteran.

A few days since I d opped into a down town restaurant, where I found quite a number of sympathizing people collected around a table at which sit a remnant of the Union Army. Sa'd 'remnant' was a man of middle age, carewern and delected, clad in the old uniform of blue, the bloose tattered and torn, and the pants patched in many places. in many places.

'What is it?' I asked of a bystander. A poor soldier of the late war, he told me, who had just returned home.

I made my way to the table.
'Yes,' said the veteran in a mournful accent, addressing the gentleman who had been questioning him, 'I was at the first battle of Bull Run; I was at Yorktown; and at Fair Oaks; and I was at forklown, and at the Chickshowiny; and in the whole of that seven days' battle; and I was at Antietsm, and got a bullet through my. eg; and I was at Fredericksburg and at A nation would be truly blessed if it The New York Commercial Advertiser A nation would be truly blessed if it Chancellorville. At Chancellorville I were governed by no other laws than live wounded again and taken prisoner. those of this blessed book. It is so com- I was six months in the prison pea at plete a system that nothing can be added. Andersonville, and then made my escape. It contains nown or done, and no money, and found work in a blacksmith's shop. But I was kicked out of that, and I brought up in New Orleans, where I took a berth as fi-berman on,

of his tattered blouse.
'You had a wife?' suggested the ques-

'Yes, I had." 'And you found her dead?' 'Dead?' echoed the wayworn waggior, in hollow tones. 'Ali, no. Worse than 'Married to another, perhaps'?" 'No. Worse than that.'

Then what could it have been 2 'Ah.' replied the disconsolate veteran, a fearful shudder creeping through his shattered frame, 'my wife had not given me up! She had remained all these years in her lanely state—waiting for.

Poor fellow !

Not many weeks ago a well-to-do farmer in Harrison County. Ky., declared that he was determined not to live to see a nigger vote. The fifteenth Amendment was announced as ratified.
Of course negro voting was then in the near future. The farmer saw it coming, and actually did deliberately take his A Young Man Shor .- An accident

Now, quite bately, Pitts said to himselt in that brief moment he attempted to stay the blow. It was too late. The steel descended and was buried in his breast; and as the dark blood spurted upward the avenger leaped away.

The noise started Carl Hausman from his reverie, and he sprang forward, only to encounter the dying gase of his friend.

His business qualities wouldn't let him wait, so off he travels, and calling upon a friend, opened conversation by remarking the encounter the dying gase of his friend.

His pussiness qualities wouldn't let him wait, so off he travels, and calling upon a friend, opened conversation by remarking that he would like to know what about his getting married. 'Oh, Mr. Pitts, that is an affiair in which I am not can a stream from his breast, and Carl knaueman from his breast, and the mainter'in which the sest copy, the magistrates best rule, the housewife's best guide, the servant's best copy, the magistrates best rule, the housewife's best guide, the servant's best copy, the magistrates best rule, the housewife's best guide, the servant's best copy, the magistrates best rule, the housewife's best guide, the servant's best copy, the magistrates best rule, the housewife's best guide, the servant's best copy, the magistrate best rule, the housewife's best guide, the servant's best copy, the magistrates best rule, the housewife's best guide, the servant's best copy, the housewife's best guide, the servant's best copy, the magistrate best rule, the housewife's best guide, the servant's best copy, the magistrate best rule, the housewife's best guide, the servant's best copy, the magistrate best rule, the housewife's best guide, the servant's best copy, the housewife's best guide, the servant's

President Grant and his cabinet have, it is said, after a prolonged discussion, decided to prosecute vigorously all those Fenian leaders, who were captured by the United States Marshalls while taking an active part in the raid, but the hundreds of "dapes," are not to be punished in any way. Mr. Thornton, it is also stated, has seen fit to congratulate the American Secretary of State upon the promptness with which the United States Government entorce is a proper observance of their international obligations. Governor Hoffman's charitable contributions to the starying and pennicontributions to the starying and penni-less Fenians at Malone for the purpose of paying their railway fares to their homes, and securing their votes for the next Gubernatorial election, comes out of the State treasury. There is no cause for any further apprehension since Col. McNeill and Major Fitzpatrick, "un-doubtedly the best officers" connected with the late raid, have been arrested, after an exciting classe, in the vicinity of with the late raid, have been arrested, after an exciting chase, in the vicinity of Malone by Deputy-Marshall Titus. They will both be brought before Mr. Brennan, the United States Commissioner. The reporters of two New York papers, have been detained to give evidence against them. Twenty-six waggon loads of ammunition have arrived at Malone, beying been so included by A. D. Kright have of arms, and 343,000 rounds of anomum-nition, besides knapsacks, haver sacks, bay-onets, and otherwarlike material, all of which will be sent to the United States arsenal at Toy.—Globe.

The gallantry of the Canadian Volum teers and the energetic arrangements of he did so:

'Wal, I reckon I've got as fine a dezen of chickens as you ever laid your eyes ca; and they didn't cost me anything.

tather.'

Ceneral Lindsity, have not escaped recognition in England by Gen. Gorge Napier, who had, on a forur occusion, me opportunity of witnessing the bravery tather.