The only daughter of the Czar of Russia, the Grand Duchess Mary, a young lady of eighteen, is reported to be engaged to the Prince of Grange, a gentleman something more than thirty years old, a soa of the King of Holland, and the heir to the throne of that kingdom. The Prince was a very gay young man a dozan years ago, his gallantries and diaspations at Wiesbaden and other fashionable watering places in Gremany being the subject of much wondering comment. When the Princess Royal Queen Victoria's eldest daughter, reached a marriageable age, her mainstaking mother, being on the look out for eligible massin law, turned has attention to the Hague, and learning that the Princes woull be as a young gentleman fitted to fill a maid en's eye, addressed a note to his father, intimating that the Princess woull be a proper parson for the future Queen of Grange was invited in due form to the Court of St, James, the object being well understood.

Nothing loth, the young gen'leman started for London by the way of Paris. Lord Cowley, the British Ambassalor, was advised of the intended expedition, and directed to reqeive him at the Embassy with sush eeremony as was suitable under the circumstances. The galeties that death, and not endless torment is the end of the wicked; that the reign of Jesus Christ on earth will be a personal one; that no man can be saved who does not believe the Gospel, and that it is good news concerning the kingdom of God. They believe in the strict unity of God, declaring that he is one personally, and not three. They also reject the idea that the devil is fallen angel, but insist that he is sin in human flesh, the spirit that works inchildren of disobedience. They teach that all human governments are to be abolished and that a Devine Government comprised of Jesus and his immortal government shall rule the earth, and ahall be enthroned in Mount Zion and Jerusalem.

In the course of an article on the resources of British Columbia the Colonist says: "If yet ture to stock-farming it will be found that this colony has no rival anywhere. Apropos of this branch-of our subject at may be remarked that a gestleen, has just returned from the country watered by Nichola Lake, where he was pearance of the prince, is the most accomplished lady of the blood to the prince, it is made a personally, and her is the most accomplished lady of the blood royal in Europe.
